On Saturday night there were at least one thousand people in attendance at the strawberry festival of the Union Bethel church. Abraham & Bro., artists, was won by George Doersch, who sold the highest number of tickets.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Town and County News in Brief. Henry Knapp, son of Charles Knapp, grocer, cut off the top of his thumb on a patent Bologna slicer.

The storms deluged the P. R. R. trains yesterday. The fast line due at 5:20 a. m. reached Lancaster at 4:35 p. m., and the day express was four hours late.

At a meeting of the senior class of Franklin and Marshall college this morning, Mr. Frank S. Elliot, of York, Pa., Goethean, and Mr. A. F. Rohrer, of Smithsburg, Md., Diognathian, were elected master orators for the commencement of 1883.

Lewis Hepting, of No. 523 West King street, sends us a sample of very fine ripe cherries. Among the lot was a very perfect double specimen—two cherries with a single stem, two twigs that grew as one.

The Demuth club of this city, which is encamped at Bair's island on the Susquehanna, were visited yesterday by a large number of friends from this city. A splendid time was had, and the gentlemen who returned this morning speak in the highest terms of Sammy Allen's cooking.

Stehman Forney, of the United States coast survey, son of Charles B. Forney, esp., of Lebanon, was in Lancaster to-day. Mr. Forney has been stationed on the Pacific coast for the past fourteen years, and will leave New York for that coast again on June 20.

The brick work of the Humanoe house, the foundation of which was laid some time ago, was started this morning. It will be under roof by August.

Charles Peacock, aged about 13 years, son of A. H. Peacock, of East Orange street, while playing on an elevator at Jeremiah Rohrer's, on North Queen street, fell and broke his left arm, near the wrist. Dr. Reed set the injured limb.

George Book and Simon Book, colored, have been held by Alderman Donnelly, of the Seventh ward, to answer the charge of assault and battery preferred by Thomas Young, also colored.

DOUBLY IRON-CLAD. $500 Betag Expended on Frankford's Cell. Since the late attempt made by the burglar Frankford to escape from the county jail, redoubled vigilance has been exercised over him by the jail officials, and the county commissioners or inspectors have made a contract to have an additional plating put on the walls of his iron-clad cell, and the work is now being done by Joseph H. Huber. This appears to persons competent to judge, to be an extravagant and unnecessary expense. The only weak place in the cell is immediately around the register, and had this been sheathed with chilled iron plating the cell would have been as secure as it will be after the double plating of the walls shall be finished. The sheathing of the register could have been done at an expense of not more than $10, while the job now being done will cost $400 or $500. Are the county commissioners or prison inspectors responsible for this unnecessary outlay?

PRESBYTERIAN ANNIVERSARY.

Interesting Proceedings—Fine Flowers—Gaily Dressed Children—Good Music, and Address. The Presbyterian Sunday school celebrated their 50th anniversary in the beautiful audience room of the church by appropriate exercises last evening.
