FORGERY.

A Check stolen from $5 to $500. A story is on the streets that on last Wednesday David Landis, butcher, of Bird-in-Hand, gave to a man named Rudy a check for $5, and that Rudy "raised" the check to $500, had it cashed and departed for parts unknown. Our informant could not give us the name of the bank at which the check was cashed, and none of our bankers know anything about the matter. The check was probably cashed by a country bank. Rudy and a companion named Adam Wise were at the Sorrel Horse hotel, this city, on Thursday last, with plenty of money, and one of them got a $50 note changed, since which time neither of them has been seen.

The Steinhilber-Hensel Case in the Supreme Court. Mr. Shapley, one of the counsel for the editors of the INTELLIGENCER in the disbarment matter, went up to Harrisburg this morning from Philadelphia, and a dispatch received from there states that on his application the supreme court has fixed Friday morning next for the argument in the case.

Sacred Heart Academy. The seventh annual commencement of the Sacred Heart academy, under the auspices of the Sisters of the Holy Cross, will take place at Fulton opera house on Friday afternoon next at half-past 1 o'clock. The programme is a varied one, embracing fine selections of music, vocal and instrumental, essays, addresses and impressive tableaux.
