FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 2, 1880.

Amusement Notes.

What the Players are Doing.

Buffalo Bill is rusticating at Atlantic City.

Harrigan and Hart have closed their traveling season.

The company of the Berger Family will consist of twenty-three people next season.

Mr. Yecker, of Fulton opera house, will return from Europe some time in August.

Cooper & Bailey's circus will be here for certain during the latter part of August or early in September.

Little Rosebud is traveling through Indiana with a company which is known as the "Little Rosebud Combination."

Tony Pastor attended the convention in Cincinnati last week with his friend. He was playing in the city at the time.

Hon. W. H. English, the Democratic candidate for vice president is building a large opera house in Indianapolis.

Jacob Aberle, a New York variety manager will put a large minstrel troupe on the road the coming season.

D. B. Hodges, advance agent of Haverly's minstrels, went to Europe a few days ago taking with him over four tons of posters and lithographs.

Miss Annie Fox, the actress, who was last seen here with the "Our Boys" company, was married a few days ago to a son of the Democratic candidate for vice president.

The one thousandth performance of "Evangeline" was given at the Boston theatre on Wednesday evening for the benfit of E. E. Rice. About seventy persons appeared in the cast.

Tony Denier closes his traveling season of forty-six weeks at Aurora, Ill., on Saturday night. He will have a strong company next year and it will be headed by George H. Adams, the prince of clowns.

Alice Bateman, the clog dancer, who was here with Watson, Ellis & Kernells, will hereafter dance with Willis Pickert, formerly of Williams & Pickert. Miss Bateman was formerly a partner of Billy Noonan.

Cheevers and Kennedy the well kown clog dancers, who for several years were members of Carncross & Dixey's minstrels, but who for some time past have been in Australia, have separated after a partnership of eighteen years.

Floyd Lawman, of Reading, who during last season was in the employ of John D. Mishler as an advance agent, will go with Nick Roberts to Australia next season. He is an acrobat, and is now with John Robinson's show.

Josephine Morlacchi, the ballot dancer, was the wife of Texas Jack. She was in Leadville when he died, and is prostrated with grief. She is an Italian by birth, and was at one time one of the best dancers in the country. She appeared here with her husband when he last played here.

Haverly's colored minstrels began an engagement at Niblo's garden, New York, on Monday night. The troupe consists of one hundred people, including twenty end men, four jawbone end men, three middle men, forty female jubilee singers, two corps of shouters, a large orchestra and a brass band of seventeen pieces. Billy Kersands and Jim Bland are the leading comedians.

In the ring of Cooper & Bailey's show at Haverhill, Mass., a few days ago, Wm. H. Batchellor turned a double somersault over eleven elephants. The animals were placed side by side, save the last two in the line, which were head to head. The third elephant, the largest of the herd, was elevated on two four-feet pedestals. All of the company was assembled in the ring to witness the feat. At a given signal Mr. Batchellor ran down an inclined place, struck the battoute-board, and after making two complete revolutions in the air, cleared the eleven elephants and alighted squarely upon his feet.

No Hospital Needed.

No palatial hospital needed for Hop Bitters patients, nor large-salaried talented puffers to sell what Hop Bitters will do or cure, as they sell their own story by their certain and absolute cures at home. jyl-2wd&w
