L. D. Blackmore holds with Wm. Black in the first rank of living English novelists, and every new work from the pen which wrote "Laura Doone" and the "Maid of Skeer," is awaited with interest and read with eagerness. "Mary Anerly" is a Yorkshire tale, exhibiting the best powers of its author in delineating character no less than scenery and provincial life. The unique and attractive binding in which the publishers have issued it make this edition one of the most inviting volumes that the summer traveler is looking for to pack in his hand satchel. Harper & Bro., New York. Pp. 516. For sale by C. H. Barr, Centre Square, Lancaster.

Mr. Barr has also laid on our table and has for sale Benjamin Vaughn Abbot's "Judge and Jury"—a book which is not a catch-penny "Every Man His Own Lawbut an interesting, intelligent and popularly written treatise on the leading topics of the law of the land. The main aspects and general principles of modern jurisprudence, as now well settled, are presented in a style that makes the work one for the library and counting room as well as the lawyer's desk. Without an attempt to make it a text book for the profession or a digest of the reports, it serves admirably to inform a large class of readers who are daily confronted with allusions to the statutes and decisions, and who above all want to know how the ancient and established legal principles have been construed and applied to modern American institutions. In his effort to provide this the author has been a signal success. Harper & Bro., New York.

Harroun & Bierstadt, 58 and 60 Reade street, New York, publish a very artistic artotype portrait of Gen. W. S. Hancock, made from life since his nomination, an excellent likeness, printed on heavy plate paper 15x20 inches, with fac-simile signature; single copies sent by mail on receipt of 50 cents, 10 copies $4. The excellence of the artotype picture is that it does not fade, spot, nor turn yellow.

The well-known publishing house of Hubbard Bros., of Philadephia, have in preparation and will soon issue the "Life of Gen. Hancock," written by his old-time friend, Hon. John W. Forney. The career of the brilliant soldier who is soon to be of the brilliant soldier who is soon to be transferred to the White House furnishes material for a volume which in deep and thrilling interest has rarely been equaled in the annals of American biography. It is BIT fortunate that its preparation has been assigned to Col. Forney, who for twenty-five years has been known as one of the ablest editors and most brilliant writers in America. His known ability and his personal intimacy with Gen. Hancock are a suffi cient guaranty that the book will be full, complete and authoritative-a volume of permanent value—and in this respect widely different from ordinary campaign literature. It will be sold only by subscription, and must meet with a very large sale. The volume will also contain a sketch of W. II. English, Democratic candidate for vice president.

BETHANY, ONTARIO. BETHANY, ONTARIO.

GENTHEMAN,—I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to the great benefit I have received from the use of one of the wonders of the world, that is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to Ulcers, causing entire deafness. I tried everything that could be done through medical skill, but without relief. I continued using it, and in a short time, my ear was cured and hearing completely restored. hearing completely restored,

I have used this wonderful healer successfully in cases of inflammation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colds, cuts and bruises, &c.; in fact, it is our family medicine. Yours truly, MRS, W. J. LANG, For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa.

The greatest of Modern Medical Discoveries. A Vegetable Preparation and the ONLY SURE REMEDY in the world for Bright's Disease, Diabetes and all Kidney, Liver and Urinary Diseases. There are a large number of testimonials of the highest character in support of these statements. Prof. Green, a distinguished allopathic physician of the South, in an article in the Medical Record, gives an account of the cure of two cases of Chronic Bright's Disease by this remedy, and advises all his brother physicians to use it in practice. R. Caulkins, M. D., of Rochester, N. Y., writes that he would prescribe the remedy to all afflicted with serious Kidney and Liver Diseases. Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., of Washington, D. C., tells of permanent cures effected by it, and says: "I do not doubt that it has great virtue." D. W. Bartine, M. D., D. D., of East Orange, N. J., certifies that it cured him of chronic Bright's Disease in two weeks. Rev. C. A. Harvey, D.
