

Lancaster Intelligencer.

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 12, 1880

An Inevitable Record. Gen. Hancock has now been in nomination long enough to develop every objection to him if any there had been.

The Harrisburg Patriot of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

THE HARRISBURG PATRIOT of this morning is authority for the statement that Mr. Wallace would decline the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee in the event of the position being tendered him.

PERSONAL. Secretary SHERMAN and party arrived at Ocean Grove on Saturday.

White satin sunshades elaborately painted by hand are carried by fashionable ladies who ride in open carriages along Bellevue avenue, Newport.

A woman at Newport bathes in a suit of oiled silk, worn under the usual flannel suit. She says she enjoys the surf, but can't bear the touch of salt water.

Rev. STEPHEN GLADSTONE, son of the prime minister, recently made an attack on the Church of England Sunday-schools, which he characterized as a "hollow and rotten system."

General HANCOCK has many callers on Saturday, among them General Joseph E. Johnston, Col. John W. Forney and Lewis C. Cassidy.

Mr. and Mrs. TOM TURNER have been at Brighton Beach, and have attracted much attention while bathing in the surf.

Queen VICTORIA is not on good terms with her daughter, the Crown Princess Imperial of Germany, nor with the Empress Augusta.

Mrs. MARGARET PERRY, of New Orleans, whose husband died four months ago, gave birth to triplets, two boys and a girl, on the day which the Cincinnati convention reached the nomination, and called the trio Hancock, English and America.

Mrs. HANCOCK is a regular attendant of the Protestant Episcopal church. The little church on Governor's Island, which is supported by Trinity Parish, has been attended by Mrs. Hancock during her residence at that station.

Mrs. MARGARET PERRY, of New Orleans, whose husband died four months ago, gave birth to triplets, two boys and a girl, on the day which the Cincinnati convention reached the nomination, and called the trio Hancock, English and America.

Mrs. MARGARET PERRY, of New Orleans, whose husband died four months ago, gave birth to triplets, two boys and a girl, on the day which the Cincinnati convention reached the nomination, and called the trio Hancock, English and America.

SAVING MONEY AT THE WHITE HOUSE. Hayes's Stinginess and Parsimony—Laying by the Soldiers.

Mr. J. R.'s letter to the Philadelphia Times. The president, his wife, his son and his daughter, and the whole household, are said to have all gone to the old Soldiers' Home to spend the summer.

Two bodies were found in the after cabin of the wreck of the Narragansett, at Cold Spring Harbor, yesterday morning.

Radical changes have been made in the condition of the working people in the factories of Chicago, Ill., through the exertions of a visiting board of the common council.

An official decree has been published, granting full remission of sentences to all individuals convicted of participation in the French insurrection of 1870-71 and subsequent insurrectionary movements.

Peter Sullivan was killed and another boy had his leg broken by an explosion of blasting powder in an old lighthouse at Holyoke, Mass., Saturday night.

Thomas Boothroyd, a wealthy farmer of Canada, was attacked by a bear which threw him down and bit him in the side and throat completely severing the jugular vein.

Miss Carrie French, of Mount Vernon, Ohio, was killed by jumping from a train at Toledo, Ohio, on Saturday morning.

The Orangenmen of Montreal will to-day unveil the Hackett monument in Mount Royal cemetery and then sit down to a banquet.

The reports as to the condition of the great crop in the northwest are very contradictory, but the general evidence seems to show that in no case will the damage caused by the rust and chinchbugs amount to more than 30 or 40 per cent.

An enthusiastic Hancock and English ratification meeting was held Saturday night at Cincinnati. Wm. D. Groesbeck presided. Addresses were made by Mr. Groesbeck, Senator J. Pendleton, General Durbin Ward and others.

The water in the reservoir supplying Petersburg, Va., having become insufficient, a supply was turned in from the canal last evening.

There was six feet of water in the Hoosac tunnel yesterday morning, owing to an overflow from the mountain streams.

Miss Jessie Ferry, 17 years of age, a student in the Normal college, swam from the foot of Ninety-sixth street, North river, to the dock above Fort Lee, a distance of more than five miles.

Two tramps passed through Stoneville, Westmoreland county, on Friday, and one of them was overheard to tell the other he would kill him.

George Brown, aged twenty-six, a fireman on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, attempted to jump on his train while it was in motion last night near Delaware station.

So much embarrassment has arisen from the present attitude of Collector Tutton on the subject of the proposed personal friend of Hayes called upon the ex-governor yesterday.

At Elizabeth, N. J., Patrick Butler, aged 39 years, a laborer, was sunstruck and died. He leaves a wife and one child.

At Norfolk, Va., Engineer J. Higgins, a prominent wholesale liquor dealer, died from an overdose of laudanum administered by himself.

Mrs. Sarah Collins, a dissolute white widow, died at Ylvesthite, Va., on Friday, after a long illness.

A Long List of Deaths from Accidents and by Suicide. At New Brunswick, N. J., Patrick M. Calligan, aged 60 years, committed suicide by taking Paris green during a fit of melancholy.

Joseph Obermyer, a German boarder at the Hartman hotel, Bowery, N. Y., shot himself during last night and was found dead in his room this morning.

At Brattleboro, Mass., a German named Kurtz Chemelk, aged 51 years, was drowned while bathing. It is supposed he was seized with a cramp.

Mrs. Sarah Collins, a dissolute white widow, died at Ylvesthite, Va., on Friday, after a long illness.

LAST NEWS BY MAIL. Mrs. Sarah Regan, aged 65, was overcome by the heat and died at Jersey City yesterday afternoon.

Mohr & Mohr's whiskey house in Cincinnati was destroyed by fire Saturday. The loss is about $70,000.

Two bodies were found in the after cabin of the wreck of the Narragansett, at Cold Spring Harbor, yesterday morning.

Radical changes have been made in the condition of the working people in the factories of Chicago, Ill., through the exertions of a visiting board of the common council.

An official decree has been published, granting full remission of sentences to all individuals convicted of participation in the French insurrection of 1870-71 and subsequent insurrectionary movements.

Peter Sullivan was killed and another boy had his leg broken by an explosion of blasting powder in an old lighthouse at Holyoke, Mass., Saturday night.

Thomas Boothroyd, a wealthy farmer of Canada, was attacked by a bear which threw him down and bit him in the side and throat completely severing the jugular vein.

Miss Carrie French, of Mount Vernon, Ohio, was killed by jumping from a train at Toledo, Ohio, on Saturday morning.

The Orangenmen of Montreal will to-day unveil the Hackett monument in Mount Royal cemetery and then sit down to a banquet.

The reports as to the condition of the great crop in the northwest are very contradictory, but the general evidence seems to show that in no case will the damage caused by the rust and chinchbugs amount to more than 30 or 40 per cent.

An enthusiastic Hancock and English ratification meeting was held Saturday night at Cincinnati. Wm. D. Groesbeck presided. Addresses were made by Mr. Groesbeck, Senator J. Pendleton, General Durbin Ward and others.

The water in the reservoir supplying Petersburg, Va., having become insufficient, a supply was turned in from the canal last evening.

Baseball: At Chicago—Cleveland, 2; Chicago, 0. At Troy—Troy, 7; Providence, 3. At Buffalo—Cincinnati, 2; Buffalo, 1. At Boston—Worcester, 3; Boston, 0. At Prospect Park—Polytechnic, 2; Nameless, 2.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. THE WHEEL. The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The Negro Campmeeting at Quarryville. A large crowd and interesting services. Yesterday a colored campmeeting was held in C. M. Hess's woods near Quarryville.

COLORED WORKERS. The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

crop on the river islands looks very promising, and Mr. Andrew Kane, the general proprietor of the "lower hotel" and a large and successful planter, who has a number of acres out on large islands, says the river tobacco will "beat it all."

Mr. John Metzger, of Columbia, has taken charge of the Susquehanna hotel. Mr. M. is an old landlord and knows how to run a hotel.

Mr. J. K. Shultz and wife have left for a tour to Niagara Falls and the lakes. Dr. Samuel Pigman, fresh from the walls of that eminent medical institution, Jefferson college, and a student of Dr. Craig, of Columbia, has migrated to our town and hung out his "shingle."

Fishing is very little indulged in at present. All our citizens are now fishing in the tobacco fields for the cut-worm. Occasionally we hear of "big hauls" but they are few and far between.

COLORED WORKERS. The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.

The "Lamentations of Jeremiah" are cheerful reading compared with the agonizing wail of the editor of the Tobacco Journal as he contemplates the bankruptcy and ruin about to overtake the poor deluded packers of 1879 tobacco.