BEFORE THE JUDGES.

The Cases Heard by Them This Morning. Milton Goss, the boy who is charged with having set fire to Jacob Rohrer's barn in Strasburg township on July 12th, was taken before Judges Patterson and Livingston on lowing preamble and resolution were adopta writ of habeas corpus this morning. The evidence showed that the boy lived with Witmer J. Rohrer, the young man who burned. On the day of the fire the boy who had been working in an field was sent by Mr. Rohrer to go to work hoeing in a patch near the house. About 2 o'clock Mr. Rohrer and his men, while at work in the harvest field, discovered that the barn was on fire. They quickly ran to the burning building and did all in their power to save the property. No notice was taken of the boy until supper, to which he came late; he then told Mr. Rohrer that he first smelt the smoke while spec'ors, they say: "In examining the acat work in the patch ; he went to the barn and saw two tramps leaving the barn. That evening six tramps were arrested and did not charge themselves with all the taken to Strasburg where they heard before 'Squire Book. The boy who is now accused of the crime was present at the sometimes more money is drawn from the hearing. Four of the tramps were discharged at once and the two others were held until the next morning when they stamps," &c. were discharged. At the squire's office proper system of accounting between the the boy got mixed up in his story in regard prison keeper and the board of prison to the tramps, and the squire suspected that he was lying. He took him into a the power of disposing of the large quan-Robrer to talk to him. The boy finally balances in his hands for which confessed to Mr. Rohrer that he had set they are charged by the county treasurer the barn on fire; he struck a match on his and directly responsible to him, argues a did not want to fire the barn.

A number of witnesses were called to testify as to the character of the boy. Some said that he had for years been very mischievous; he is a boy who has been teased counting officers. a great deal by his companions, as well as by other folks, including some of the witnesses; he is very quick, and people teased him in order to hear his ready answers. Several of the witnesses thought him a bad boy, and one said he knew nothing of him which he would consider bad previous to

The court said there was sufficient evidence to send the case to the grand jury and they would fix the bail at $500. The security could not be furnished to-day and the boy was taken back to prison. " Wild Harry's" Case.

Harry McAlpine, better known as "Wild Harry," was before the judges on a writ this morning. His counsel asked that the crime of felonious assault and battery, for which he is now being held, be reduced to simple assault and battery, and they would furnish the bail. They claim that there was no felony in the case. None of the witnesses for the prosecution being present, the case was continued until tomorrow morning when the court will hear both sides.

Sent to the House of Refuge. Alonzo Anne, of this city, was also before the court. His father testified that the boy is incorrigible and unmanageable. He and his mother are unable to do anything with him. He runs away from home, steals money from his(the father's)pockets and does other bad acts. Officer Leman and another witness testified that the boy is very bad. The court ordered the boy to be taken to the house of refuge, and the necessary papers were made out.

LANDISVILLE CAMP-MEETING.

A Pleasant Woods-Cheap Railroad Fares There are quite a number of people on the camp-meeting grounds at Landisville already, although the meeting does not commence until next Tuesday. A number of the cottages have been occupied by parties from a distance, who will remain in the woods until the close of the campmeeting and probably for some time after it closes. On Sunday morning service will be held in the tabernacle on the grounds and by Monday the the recent heavy rains the woods are very cool and pleasant, and it is expected that this camp will be as large if not larger, than any held at Landisville for years.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will begin selling excursion tickets from this city to Landisville to morrow morning. They will cost 30 cents, a reduction of five cents from last year, and will be good to return until August 10. On and after tomorrow morning the Niagara express will stop at Landisville, so that persons desiring to go to the camp can leave this city either at 10:10 a. m. or at 11:07.

Jacob A. Hollinger, of this city, will act as police officer on the grounds during the camp meeting.

OFFICIAL VISIT.

The Lancaster County Commissioners Visit Yesterday morning our county commis sioners, Messrs. Bushong, Coble and Montgomery, took a run over to Reading. where they were met by Commissioner W. S. Young, who paid them every possible attention. They inspected the court just like to catch the fellow who did it. house, prison and other public institutions, and come home very favorably impressed with the management of them, and are satisfied that Berks is far ahead of Lancaster. Their prison is as sound as a rock, while ours is tumbling to pieces. The maintenance of prisoners in Berks last year cost only $5,000, while people will begin to arrive. Owing to in Lancaster the cost was $29,000. The coroner's fees are not more than $400 or $500 annually, while ours are $2,300. Their magistrates' fees for dismissed cases, including constables' bills, are only about $2,000, while ours, exclusive of constables' bills, resch almost $15,000. The bill of the district attorney of Berks counfor the past three months, was about $250; our district attorney's bills are more than four times as much. For printing and publishing, including all blanks and books used by the county, Berks pays about $3,000; we pay $10,000. And so it is with all other expenses. In Berks the officers appear to do the best they can for the interests of the county; in Lancaster the officers do the best they

CATTLE KILLED.

The Result of Malicious Mischief . This morning about half-past 2 o'clock a herd of cows, ten in number, belonging to Emanuel Denlinger, strayed from his barnyard near Gordonville and got upon the track of the Pennsylvania railroad. The second Empire freight train west ran into the herd, struck one of the cows, crippled it and threw it to the north side of the track. The Philadelphia express train east came along about the same time and running into the herd killed two of the cows and severely injured three others. Fortunately no damage was done to either of the trains. Mr. Denlinger is positive that his barnyard gate was securely fastened last night, and has no doubt it was Try it. opened by some person unknown, probably with the intention of wrecking the trains

Changes in the Faculty of the Norma Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Behmer have gone to Ocean Grove to stay two weeks. Before their return they will visit Long Branch, the New York Central park and Coney Island, and take a trip up the Hudson to Albany.

Several changes in the faculty of the normal school have occurred. Miss S. D. Watson, who has proved herself to be an accomplished pianist and efficient teacher, declined a reappointment. She will remain for a time at her home in New

Miss A. V. Peebles, who is well and favorably known as a vocalist, also resigns. She has a voice of rare power and sweet-

Miss Gestrude Shaw, assistant teacher of reading; Miss Lillian McGarry, assistant in the model school; and Mr. J. H. Michener, assistant in mathematics, have also concluded their engagements. Mr. Michener returns to Ashland, Pa., to take his old position as principal of the public schools. During his short stay at the normal, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Gross, he has been very efficient and popular teacher, and his loss is much regretted.

Miss Lavinia J. Coates, valedictorian of the class of '79, takes the position vacated by Miss McGarry, and Mr. Lloyd Smith, salutatorian of the class of '80, takes the place of Mr. Michener.

Miss Harriet Warner, formerly a pupil at the normal, a fine singer and pianist, has been engaged to teach music for the ensuing year. She has had unusual facilities for musical culture and will doubtless add to the popularity of the musical department.

The trustees are having a fire escape constructed at the west end of the north wing of the ladies' building-the only place where such a precaution is needed. There are two stairways in the ladies' buildings, three in the men's buildings and two in the main central building, to which there is communication from every hall of both buildings, thus affording complete facilities for escape in case of fire

Miss Evelyn Westlake, daughter of Prof. Westlake, who has made the study of music a specialty for a number of years, has been appointed teacher of vocal and instrumental music in the Independence (Mo.) female college. She will enter upon her duties Sept. 1.

The fall term of the normal school will begin, Monday, Sept, 13.

DETROIT, Mich., July 23.-A terrible

TERRIBLE STEAMBOAT DISASTER.

accident occurred about 10 o'clock last night on the Detroit river, some nine miles below this city. The excursion steamer Garland, with 1,200 persons on board, under the auspices of the Detroit moulders' union, while going down the river collided with the steam yacht Mamie, coming up, cutting her in two, so that she almost instantly sank. The latter had on board twentyfour persons, consisting mainly of Father Blyenbergh, father of Trinity Catholic church, of this city, and a number of acolytes and boys officiating in various capacities in the service of the church. They had been on their annual excursion to Monroe and were returning home. The night was bright with moonlight and there would seem to have been no reason save that of criminal neglect why the accident should have occurred. Of those on board the Mamie the following were drowned: Mrs. Fred. Martin, wife of the enginer; Miss Lizzie Murphy. housekeeper of Father Bleyenbergh; Miss Mary Hahn, of the domestic parochial school of Trinity church; and John Horsey, Daniel Barry, John Donovan, Willie Cuddy, Daniel Cuddy, John Costgrove, James Toomey, Joseph Monaghan, all altar boys of the church, aged from 10 to 14 years; Thomas Kelly, sexton of the church, Jim Keely, organ blower, and Andrew Doran, a boy who was invited to accompany the excursionists. GRANT IN COLORADO.

Brilliant Reception Given Him at Leadville. Denver, Col., July 23.—A special from Leadville states that Gen. Grant arrived at 9:30 last evening. He was received by a company of mounted police, two companies of cavalry, five companies of infantry, the city fire department, and five hundred veterans of the late war. A salute of one hundred guns was fired while the procession marched through the city. The line of march was beauti. fully illuminated and decorated with evergreens and flags. Nearly 30,000 people were on the streets. The general excused himself from making a speech on account of hoarseness. The party will remain until Monday. The city will expend $20, 000 for entertainments, mostly raised by private subscriptions.
