for Philadelphia, whence he will run down to Cape May. Two excursions to Niagara Falls tomorrow. You pays your money and you takes your choice. Mr. John Wiley departed this morning for a week's leisure in Philadelphia, from which point he will visit Cape May and Atlantic City. This morning Messrs, Chas. S. Burns, of the firm of Shaub & Burns, shoe dealers, and Jno. M. Davidson, of R. J. Houston's notion house, left on an extended pleasure tour, the objective point of which is Quebee, Canada. Among the places of interest touched will be New York, thence by steamer to Portland, Me., thence to the White Mountains, to Montreal, and up the St. Lawrence to Quebec, the point of destination. On their return trip they will visit Niagara Falls, Saratoga and other points. J. L. Steinmetz, esq., of this city, was master of ceremonies at a grand carnival and bal masque given in honor of G. company, Second regiment, N. G. Pa., Friday evening, at Hotel Albion, Atlantic City, and made the opening address, complimenting the visitors upon their fine appearance and extending to them the courtesies of the evening. The event is described as one of the most brilliant that ever occurred at Atlantic City .

Religion in the Shade.

The English Evangelical camputecing at Beartown, this county, is under charge of Presiding Elder J. E. Knerr and opened last Tuesday. Sermons have been preached by Revs, Leopold and Lehr, of Reading, Hoover, of Birdsboro, Feger, of Laneaster, Hershey, of Millersville, Sampsel, of Fairville, Metzgar, of Trappe, and Smith, of Conestoga. Yesterday the throng in attendance was very great. Two special trains were run from New Holland, and they alone carri. 1 over 700 passengers to the camp. The location of the camp is delightful To the North extends the beautiful Conestoga valley, with farms as far as the eye can reach. The air is pure lifes with expensive doctors or humbug cure and invigorating, and the water pure, fresh and sparkling, A little distance south of the grounds there is a grand view of the Pequea valley, dotted with villages and farms.

THE DEAD ALIVE.

Bugler Strachan Returns to Camp. A few weeks ago we published a notice of the fact that David E. Strachan, late of this city, bugler in Company B, 8th U.S.

cavalry, had been captured and killed by the Indians on the Texan frontier. A letter received to-day by his brother, James E. Strachan, written by Sergeant F. W. Dudley, announces that the supposed dead soldier has arrived at the head-unarters of his command, camp Clark, LOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the quarters of his command, camp Clark, LOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the Texas, badly wounded in the muscle of poor little sufferer immediately-depend upon the left arm, but that he is in a fair way of recovery. Death of a Young Man.

George Sprecher, a son of George D. Sprecher, of East King street, died at his father's residence on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock of consumption. The deceased Caroline Sprecher, aged 18 years, Il months was between 18 and 19 years of age, and was a graduate of the high school. He returned on Monday night last from a visit to the mountains and soon afterwards took to his bed and lingered until death. He had many good qualities and friends, whose grief is aggravated by the painful circumstance that Mr. Sprecher's eldest son died only a few weeks ago in the Far | 233 West Walnut street, on Wednesday after West.

Large Picnic.

The Mænnerchor picaic at Tell's Hain this afternoon is being very largely attended. A large number of 'buses and cabs are running to the city and all return loaded to the grounds.

Brandy as a Medicine.

The following article was voluntarily sent to

Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commenced to the attention of those at-flicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Strandart was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.
With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalid—especially those afflicted with that intscrable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The agest, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their fils and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGARTS OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preterence over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of

Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been addicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had some eractations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Mcthodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and sleavily; the first bottle giving him an appetile, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting any thing which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a lit tle occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A Practisma Physician.
