LANDARTHUDAU Y LOUGHLED COUL WERRENAY ADDRES 15

LANCASTER DAILY INTELLIGENCER, WEDNESDAY AUGUST 25. 1880.

We had good luck gunning that day, and when we found another pile of big trout on the rock next morning we made up our minds that some bark peelers to whom we mouth was a large trout, which it deto the creek. Everything was as plain as double six to me now. The mink I had was no more than the mink ought to do, and that if it had done anything less he

a young dog out with him to give him some training on woodcock. At the first fire of gun the dog had made for another part of him again. When we packed up our things, we couldn't find the dog's chain and collar it. I was walking out of the woods be-hind the wagon. We hadn't got more than 100 yards away from camp, when I heard a noise behind me. I looked back. There was that mink, limping at my heels. He had the collar about his neck, and when I turned around, he raised up on his hind feet and held the chain up to me with his fore paws. That mink was so blame grateful to me that he wanted me to take him home with me. It touched me to the heart. I took him in, but poor fellow, the trap had injured him so badly that he died of lock-jaw."

I have been greatly troubled with my did-neys and liver for over twenty years, and dur-ing that entire time I was never free trom pain. My medical bills were enormous, and I visited both the Hot and White Springs, noted for the curative qualities of the water. I am happy to say I am now a well ama, and curod entirely as the result of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. With such glotious results, I am only too glad to testify regarding the remedy which has acade me so happy.
