WHAT GLEN?

Disgraceful Row-A Man Brutally Beaten Yesterday the "managers" of the What glen park association had a family picnic on their grounds. There were present about twenty-five couples of adults and a number of children. The day was pleas-antly spent and everything ran along smoothly until towards evening, by which time the male portion of the party became somewhat hilarious, and a row followed, resulting in the severe beating of Mr. S. B. Herr, proprietor of the Park house. There are different stories as to the cause of the trouble. One story is is that Mr. Herr used vulgar and insulting language to one or more of the ladies present, and for this misbehavior he was attacked and beaten by A. J. Cogley and his son John W. Cogley. On the other hand, Mr. Herr positively declares that he did not insult any of the ladies, and did not make use of any language in the presence of the ladies that could possibly be con-strued as being vulgar. He says he did make use of one or two slang phrases in the bar-room, but he did not suppose that any ladies were there-if they were they oughtn't to have been. He says there was cheering in the bar-room for Garfield, and in response he hurrahed for Hancock, and he was at once set upon and beaten by half a dozen men. He says Alderman Barr was the first to strike, and he was immediately afterwards struck by Wm. Blickendefer. Peter Lotz of the Schiller house and the Cogley's, father and assailants by crying out "Kill the son of a bitch," and he probably would have been killed had he not received some protection from Gottlieb Schmidt, who had charge of the saloon, and John Horting, Samuel Gensemer and other members of the association, who declared it "a shame to abuse a man because he was a Democrat." Mr. Herr says that he and his wife were invited, and went to the picnic at the urgent request of members of the association, and that his only offence was that he was a little "full" and persisted in hurraling for Hancock in response to other fellows who were equally full and hurrahing for Garfield. Mrs. Herr, who rushed to the assist-ance of her husband when she saw

It is due to Alderman Barr to say that he utterly denies having struck Mr. Herr or said a disrespectful word to Mrs. Herr, until she used a vile epithet to him. The alderman says the attack on Herr was made by the Cogleys because he insulted Miss Cogley, and not because he was a Hancock man. He and other members of the association acknowledge that all hands were pretty full of beer.

It is charged that when Samuel Bitzer. Barr denies having made any such remark, and states that there were several Democrats on the ground, and none of them were interfered with on account of their

Mt. Joy Post Office Robbed. Last night thieves broke into the postoffice at Mt. Joy. They effected an entrance by prying open the back window with a chisel which they stole from the wagonmaker shop of D. Boyce. They broke open the money drawer, but only succeeded in getting three cents. The stamps had all been locked up carefusly by postmaster W. C. F. Reed and they were not disturbed.

Sometime during yesterday Wm. Manning received a check for $1,273.50, for back pension, from the government. After he received the money he deposited it in the First national bank. A number of persons were aware of the fact that Mr. Manning was to receive the money and it is supposed that they thought they would succeed in getting it by breaking into the ing intended to come off this evening has been indefinitely postponed. The com-mittee had ordered a 10x15 banner in New York, but the Hancock Legion banner on North Queen street and the "tame, spiritless" manner in which it was hung compelled them to change their plans and scratch their heads to discover what they will do about it. Last evening the wooden plug in the end of the six-inch water pipe at the extreme north end of Prince street, was blown out by the weight of water against it, deluging the street. The water was shut off at the corner of Prince and Frederick, and the plug was replaced.

Old Almanacs. One of the INTELLIGENCER staff was this morning presented with a collection of old almanacs dating back almost to the begining of the present century. Among others are "Bonsal and Miles' Town and County Almanac" for 1804, printed in Wilmington, Del., Paulson's Town and County Almanac for 1805 and 1896," printed in Philadelphia, the "Lover's and Bachelor's Almanac, for South Carolina and Georgia," for 1807: the "Grand Republican Almanac for South Carolina and Georgia," "Bioren's Town and County Almanac" for 1811. These old almanacs are well preserved and contain some entertaining reading.

His objective point was a place near Hesse Cassel, where his mother and a couple of his sisters reside. The East Reservior Reported Leaking. At noon to-day there was a report that there was a leak in the sonth wall of the east reservoir. Mayor MacGonicle and the water committer at once visited the reservoir and found that for a distance of several feet along the south wall the brick lining of the basin had sunk several inches and the foot-walk on top of the reservoir bank showed signs of the moisture beneath it. It was deemed best to lower the water in the basin a foot or two at once and ascertain if the leak is near the surface. There is no sign that the water has made or will make its way through the bank, but the superintendent believes the proper thing to do would be to concrete he south wall in the same way the bottom and north wall of the basin were recently improved. It will be remembered that when the recent repairs were made the south wall was not touched-it being believed to be water tight. The DeGolyer Veterans.

Last night the veterans, who will support DeGolyer Garfield, met in Grant hall and were addressed by Ex-Mayors Atlee and Stauffer, Hugh R. Fulton and Charles Denues and W. D. Weaver esqs., and Alderman J. K. Barr. The attendance at the meeting was very small and there was very little enthusiasm.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Warm Weather and its Effects Many people, especially ladies, complain this season of the year of a general weakness or debility. The use of Speer's Port Grape Wine prevents this. The wine is said to have a most wonderful effect in giving strength. vigor and tone to the whole system. It is extensively used by ladies nursing, or about to nurse infants. This wine is not a manufactured article—no liquor is added to it. It is no patent medicine or cordial humbug, but is a superio wine of the Oporto grape. It is pure, old, un adulterated wine, nothing more or less. Mr. Speer has been supplying hospitals with his wine for many years past. It is said to be unsurpassed for summer complaints, and for weakly persons. The price is low for so excellent a wine, and no tamily need be without it. This wine is endorsed by Drs.
