"Flour! I reckon we ran out o' flour yesterday, and we won't have any more till next week."

"Can you spare any coffee?"
"I guess not. The last coffee we had run out on Christmas. If we git any next week I'll spare some." "How about tea?"

"Well, tea has been purty skeerce with us for the last two months, but Ben said he thought of gittin' some 'long this fall. If you are around here when our tea comes we'll divide with you.' "You haven't any potatoes to spare, have

"Well, now, you ought to have been here last week for 'taters. I cooked the last Sunday. These 'ere dogs and children set a heap by cold 'taters, and they go off like hot cakes. Ben is going to git some more 'long about Saturday."

"Haven't you any provisions at all which you can spare?" asked the discouraged en-

Well, now, I don't believe we have, but we are goin' to stock up 'long in the fall. I was telling Ben only last night that I'd got kinder tired of scroochin' along on Injun and lasses."

"I'll buy some of that if you can spare it, for we have't a bite of anything in camp."

"No, I can't sell any. Fact is, we had the last for breakfast, and Ben won't get any more till Saturday night."
"I'm sor:y," sighed the man as he turn-

"Yes, so'm I," she sighed in return. "I seed your party down dar in camp t'other day, and you look like honest folks. I'd be glad to spare you somethin' but I can't. If you men want to move your camp up here, and enjoy our soci ety, and use our smudge to drive away skeeters we'll do our best to make it pleasant; but when you come down to fodder we ain't nowhar' I was telling Ben only last night that we'd be lucky if we got these dogs and coons through another winter !"

How Happiness is Secured. Happiness is Secured.

Happiness is the absence of pain or annoyance, and wherever there is pain there is discase. A pain in the lower portion of the body indicates a disorder of some kind. If there is any o lor or color or deposit in the urine it means disease and requires attention at once. We have heard many of our friends speak of the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure and are convinced there is nothing so certain and valuable for all disorders of the urinary system both male and female.

Now a-days when a couple of tools are engaged, Tis sickening to see how they spoon. They think brothers or sisters are all in their way, Until after the Honey moon, Then when married life comes with its troubles and cares;

Their spoening it very soon drops,
Their Billing is done by the doctors and nurse
And then cooing with broom-sticks and mops.
Contusions and bruises, will sometimes appear

Their beautiful features to spoil,
Their only relief in such cases as these,
Is Dr. Thomas' Eelectric Oil.

DR. GREENE

Is exceedingly happy to announce to his numerous friends that his wife and self have safely returned from nearly a seven weeks' tour through a portion of nine states, riding and satting nearly 3,000 miles. Dr. Greene is now ready to help all sick persons to regain their health. His attendant says in one week of his absence 107 patients called to see him at his offices. The following appeared in the Columbia Courant of June 17, 1880:

As nearly everybody in Columbia knows Harry Long has not for two years past been expected to live from one week to the other, nearly all of which time he has been in bed or propped up in an arm chair. During this time he has taken medicine enough to kill a dozen people—pounds of pills and powders and barrels of liquids, Mr. Win. Paxson, and others who had been looking after the wants of Mr. Long, prevalled upon him to try Dr. C. A. Greene, of Lancaster, and I am pleased to say the effect of Dr. Greene's treatment is magical. The sick man is now almost like one raised from the grave. He is now out visiting friends, and a few days ago was in Lancaster city to offer congratulations to Dr. Greene in person. Well! well!! Wonders never cease. FROM THE BRINK OF THE GRAVE.

CATHARINE F. TRISSLER,
KATE TRISSLER,
ANNETTA F. TRISSLER,

Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those af-flicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia. BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

MEDICAL.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.

With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY Sold by our enterprising young friend, II E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspensia specifies would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been addicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which helphose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occusionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
