Charles Gibson, the jail breaker, who has twice escaped from Lancaster jail and was last captured by Geo. A. Smith at Greenburg, Westmoreland county, and returned to his old quarters, states that after his escape he was arrested by Brady, the Pennsylvania railroad detective for train-jumping, and was taken before a Columbia judge. Kennedy, who had been committed under an assumed name to the county prison, for five days. He served his five days term in jail and was discharged, none of the prison officials recognizing him. It is due to the prison officials to say they were all new men except the keeper, the inspectors having made a change of underkeepers, and it is also possible that Gibson may have lied about the matter.

This morning at 7 o'clock 137 persons left this city for the Pennsylvania railroad for the state fair at Philadelphia. Another excursion will be run to-morrow morning. The Circus to-morrow.—Cooper & Batley's London Circus arrived in Albany recently and the daily Journal said of the performance: In the big tent were arranged two rings, in which circus companies gave a succession of brilliant displays of equestrianism and acrobatic skill, together with examples of intelligence shown by animals. While the two distinct rings were forming pyramids of themselves in one ring, the six trained elephants showed what they could do in the other. The principal features were the displays on the trapeze by the French family Davene and the pretty and graceful Lawrence sisters, each of whom excelled any previous female performers in their line. The Lawrence sisters, especially, excited great interest, that a male gymnast would hesitate at attempting. The graceful riding of Linda Jeal, and the famous fire cap act which terminates her appearance, attracted the immense and varied audience and won her many plaudits. The band led by Jeal was also superior to anything yet shown here in point of the number of performers, twelve or thirteen, each executing a double somersault in rapid succession.

STOP SPENDING SO MUCH ON FINE CLOTHES, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better than you are getting. It is a substantial thing of life every way, and especially stops the foolish habit of running after fine clothes and quack remedies. It is a potent article of the life of humankind that does you only harm, and makes the patient rich. It is a wonderful effect in giving strength, vigor and tone to the whole system. It is extensively used by ladies nursing, or about to nurse infants. This is the best of all medicines—no liquor is added to it. It is a patent article or cordial humbug, but is a superior article of the Opoteo grape. It is pure, old, unadulterated, and is the best of all. It has been supplying hospitals with wine for many years past. It is said to be unsurpassed for summer complaints, and for all ailments of the stomach and bowels. This wine is endorsed by Drs. Atlee and Davis, and sold by H. E. Slaymaker.

COLUMBIA NEWS. OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. The School Board—Resignation—Personal Points—Board Budget. The school board held its regular meeting last evening in the School library room. Members all present except McCullough and Wilke. The finance committee reported that the board Thomas B. Dunbar, tax collector for 1880, has been properly executed and signed by the approved securities, and that the tax duplicate had been delivered to the collector. The committee further reported receipts and expenditures as follows:

The committee reports were accepted.

PEDESTRIAN MISTAKES. Robinson's Minstrel Disband in York. On Tuesday night Robinson's minstrel troupe performed in Columbia to very bad business and on Wednesday they went to York. In that town their advertising was very poorly done and the result was that there was but $40 in the house. This did not pay their expenses, and yesterday morning the company was compelled to disband, before several of the members had gotten any breakfast. Three members of the band, which was connected with this "great organization," arrived in Lancaster this morning and gave concert at the residence of the members of the band, where they reside. The members of the band are good musicians and deserve to be pitied, as they were used and sold by going out with this party.

Second Ward Club. A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Second ward Hancock and English club was held last evening at Rausing's saloon, East Orange street. Owing to the election of Wm. J. Fordney, captain of the club, to the office of Colonel of the regiment, Robt. Chas. was elected in his stead. Messrs. Chas. E. Stewart, Thomas McClaren and David G. Hirsch were elected mounted aids. The club will turn out in full uniform on Friday evening next, to attend the meeting of the club at the residence of Mrs. Chas. E. Stewart, on South Queen and Strawberry streets. The uniforms will be given out on Thursday evening next, when it is expected every Democrat in the Second ward will be present. Due notice will be given as to the place of meeting.

Mayor's Court. His honor the mayor had before him this morning a motley group of six vagrants all of them badly dilapidated, and one of them being a jolly old African, 40 years of age, who was unable to walk, and who was as white as a lamb's steak. He carried a carpet-bag and a crooked stick, and walked and laughed and talked in such a peculiarly ludicrous way that he would prove a fortune to any enterprising minstrel troupe that could get hold of him, and put him on the stage as "peo' ole man." He and the other ragamuffins were discharged, but cautioned not again to put in an appearance at headquarters, on pain of being sent to Castle Weise.

Bird-in-Hand Items. As Peter Boffenmyer was coming home from Lancaster on Wednesday evening his horse became frightened at some cattle, ran against a hitching post, landing Peter on his head, and the horse fell dead. Result, a skinned head and a torn set of harness. Sigle & Morrin sold 426 cases of their 79 tobacco to New York parties on private terms.

Equipments. The equipments of the Young Men's Recreational club are on exhibition at Ames's hat store, West King street. They consist of a red white and blue oilcloth cap and a white oilcloth coat. The captain is distinguished by wearing a gold bronze oilcloth coat and the lieutenants silver bronze oilcloth coat.

THE RAIN. The rainfall that prevailed all day yesterday was continued throughout last night, doing an immense amount of good to the pasturage and late crops, replenishing the almost exhausted springs, streams and wells. In this city there was as usual some little washing, and on the first square of North Queen street, where the new Belgian pavement was recently laid, there was some sinking of the pavement. The most serious was over the sewer on the east side of the street some distance south of Orange.

Mrs. Bushong's Funeral. County Commissioners Coble and Montgomery, left Lancaster this morning, accompanied by Mr. Will, the commissioner's clerk, to attend the funeral of the wife of Commissioner Bushong, which took place to-day from his residence near Heller's church, Leacock township.

Miss Withersell on the Clarinet. We had the pleasure of witnessing on Monday night the excellent performance given by Miss Withersell in Fulton opera house. The clarinet solo by Alice Withersell was extremely well received, and the audience was a rare treat indeed, and proved her to be a thorough musician and master of her instrument. We understand she is the only lady clarinet soloist in the country. M.
