BAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

A Young Man Killed-Three Others In-William Dornbaugh, jr., aged 18 years, who was an employee of the steel works at Baldwin, was struck by the engine of day express on Saturday evening and was in-stantly killed. A freight train was going at a lively rate and Dornbaugh was standing on the down track waiting until it had passed, and on account of the noise it made, did not hear the approach of the passenger train. He was about to get on it, and his companions adverted in not to. He was struck on the shoulder, knocked down, and his head, falling on the track, was completely severed by the train passing over it. Young Dornbaugh resided with his parents at No. 411 Herr street,

Adam R. Hoar, aged 20 years, residing at the Gap, was struck by the engine of fast line east, about 6 o'clock yesterday morning, just after he had stepped out of the door of the telegraph tower to the track. He was badly bruised and is said to have been injured internally. No bones were broken and he will recover. Dr. Parke, of Gap, attended the man's inju-

W. G. Fagan, a boy who resides with his parents about a mile and a quarter north of Parkesburg, in stepping off the Parkesburg construction train yesterday afternoon fell through a culvert. He had his right arm broken and dislocated. The accident occurred near Parkesburg and the boy was removed to his home. Dr. Mercer attended him.

On Saturday night a brakeman on the train drawn by engine No. 120 was stand-ing on a freight car when the train was passing through the depot. He was struck and knocked unconscious by the depot. A number of young men witnessed the accident, and they informed one of the other brakemen, who went to the rescue of the injured man, who was on the train vet when last seen.

KENNEDY. A Maiden Effort.

The Republicans of Salisbury had a mass meeting and pole-raising at the Gap on Saturday, and two or three worn-out Republican orators repeated the stereotyped bloody-shirt speeches with which they have afflicted other communities. There was, however, one new feature presented-a speech by G. C. Kennedy, esq., late of Salisbury, now of this city. It was his maiden effort, and he made an effort that will be long remembered. It was a good speech,

"For he himself bath said it, And it's greatly to his credit." He declares he was astonished at his own oratorical accomplishments, and that his words fell upon the cars of his auditors like the droppings—well, no matter what kind of droppings. We are sorry we did not hear Mr. Kennedy's speech, because he says it was a good one, and good speeches are not to be listened to every day. We are not positively informed as to what was Mr. Kennedy's theme, but most probably it was "Republican Arithmetic," a subject in which he takes much interest and with which he is quite familiar. He could have shown his hearers the great advantages which the system of "counting possesses over the old system of "counting up," and he could have mentioned by way of illustration the wou ana returning boards, the Seventh and Third ward Republican election officers. and the more recent case in which the lector Wartel sits at the Court House THIS orator himself "counted out" Sammy EVENING from 61/4 to 9 o'clock to receive it Groff as chairman of the board of Repub- GO THERE AND PAY IT. lican return judges, to the delight of Fry, Sensenig, Eberly and Company. He might have shown that by this method the Salisbury Republicaus can add 329 votes to Garfields majority as easily as Garfield put $329 of Credit Mobilier dividends, into his wallet, and that the legitimate Republican majority of Lancaster county may be increased 5,000 votes as easily as Garfield picked up $5,000 from the DeGolyer lobbyists. Mr. Kennedy, of course, did not forget to tell his Gap-ing admirers that he was a candidate for prison solicitor with a hope of something better in the near future—but he studiously avoided mentioning that he is an

Plenty of Business This Morning. This morning there were seventeen persons before the mayor. The four tramps who were arrested near the park on Saturday by Officers Leman and Titus, and who were believed to have been implicated in the robbery of Hinkle's store, were sent to jail as follows on drunken and disorderly charges: Thomas Phillips, 10 days; Frank McDevitt, 20 days; Wm. Morgan, 30 days; Frank Maloney, 10 days. It is likely that the charges of burglary will be dismissed, as it is probable that these men cannot be identified. Three other drunks were sent to jail for 10 days each. One for 20 days and one for 30 days. Two others paid the costs and six vagrants were discharged. One of the latter was a man named Real, who was in the employ of Cooper & Bailey, but missed the train yesterday.

Democratic Meeting at Washington. A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of Washington borough was held on Saturday evening, and able addresses were made by S. W. Shadle and R. B. Risk, esqs., of this city, and John L. Jacobs, of Maytown.

A quarrel between two young men in the bar-room of the hotel in front of which the meeting was held, caused a slight disturbance for a few moments, but had no political significance, as it was an old grudge about a girl. The Democracy of Washington borough are wide awake and will give a good report of themselves on elec-

Squire Baily, of Colerain, held an inquest on the body of A. P. McNeal, whose accidental death on Thursday last has already been noticed in these columns. The following named gentlemen were empaneled as a jury : Wm. N. Galbraith, C. Blackburn, Penn Moore, John Thompson, John J. Galbraith, Simeon W. Swisher.

The following verdict was rendered: Andrew McNeal came to his death by falling from a scaffold in the barn of Joseph Robinson, in Colerain township, Lancas ter county, Pa., and producing compound fracture of the skull, and causing instan-

On Saturday afternoon Hugh Cosgrove and his brother John became involved in a quarrel while standing on the New Hol-Hugh pulled a knife and cut John in the neck and hand wounding him slightly.
