The chief difficulty with reliable wines has mon to a large congregation in Elizabeth chapel, on Sunday night. Tears filled the cyes of the members of his beloved flock when he spoke of leaving, and he will certainly depart with the best wishes of the entire community.

Carry the news to-what do you say-Elizabeth township is going to have a mounted club numbering two hundred members. Some of the most prominent Republicans in the township are interested, and they may succeed in organizing a club, but we'll bet a Mexican twenty-five piece that it will never reach hundred; and if they succent two in begging, borrowing or stealing ceed a sufficient number of horses, jackasses or mules to mount the club it will put any other mounted club in the county in the shade. It will be like one of the glorious old menageries we used to read about. There are only about 140 or 150 Republican voters in the township. They must cither swear in recruits from over the line, or make up the deficit by enlisting a lot of boys in "Brubaker's cavalry."

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS Before Judge Livingston.

This morning Judge Livingston, after hearing the argument on the motion for a non-suit, in the case of Mary Kissinger vs. the city of Lancaster, refused the non-suit and the case will therefore go to the jury. The defense is that the gutter was not in

The Eighth ward will form on West Orange, not West Chestnut, as published yesterday.

The staff officers and aids will call a Lane's store, 24 East King street, between 7 and 8 o'clock this evening for their caps and belts.

Caps, torches and badges are being procured for Cos. C and D of the Veterans and will be distributed at headquarters at 6:30 p. m., sharp, Friday.

Poor Emigrants.

Yesterday a family of poor Polish emigrants, of very respectable appearance, arrived in this city, entirely destitute of means to carry them any farther West. The family consisted of two brothers, one of whom had a wife and three small children. They were cared for by a few kindhearted people in the vicinity of the depot. Joseph Kautz gave them their dinner and John Schoenberger, of the Tremont house, furnished them with supper and lodging. This morning Fred Brimmer collected for them $10.80 and bought them tickets for Millersburg, Dauphin county, in the vici-
