BANKERS' DIFFER.

An Episode in Politics Between Ohio Bankers.

Mr. D. J. Fallis, president of the Merchants' national bank of Cincinnati having stated in an interview with a Commercial reporter, that if Hancock should be elected president, government bonds would not be worth 80 cents on the dollar. Mr. Theodore Cook, a prominent banker and manufacturer, chairman of the local Democratic executive committee, sent Mr. Fallis a letter in which he says: "Now, Mr. Fallis, this is a pretty heavy stump speech to inject into a brief interview on a purely business matter. If you are right in what you say the condition in public affairs is critical and dangerous. If you are wrong you are simply an alarmist, and much mischief may come from your statement. Hancock, I think, will be elected, and a nice, clear profit of $10,000 on a single transaction. This proposal is seriously made, and I await your acceptance of it."

A reporter called on Mr. Fallis to learn whether or not he intended accepting Mr. Cook's proposition. He was evidently very much annoyed, and answered that what he had said to the Commercial reporter was merely his individual opinion and that he had no authority to act for the bank in the matter.

HATS QUIT THE SINKING SHIP.

And Now Senator Jones, of Nevada, Deserts His Party.

A letter has reached Washington from Senator Jones, of Nevada, which comes very near being what is now the popular line of letter writing. Senator Jones has always been a staunch Republican, or at least always was until quite recently, so what he writes is especially significant in revealing the real drift of political feeling among the class of Republicans to which he belongs. His associations may be judged from the elegant testimonial of their regard bestowed upon him last winter at Belmont, by the most prominent Republicans in the country. The present letter is written to a very intimate friend. In it Senator Jones says bluntly and without reserve that he is tired of the Republican party and has virtually deserted it. Had General Grant been nominated at Chicago he would have exerted himself to secure his election, but with Garfield's nomination he was disgusted from the start, and what has transpired since has determined him to disconnect himself from any participation in the party's conduct. He will go further than this in Nevada state politics by opposing the re-election to the Senate of Sharon and supporting Colonel Fair, a Democrat. Just now Senator Jones adds: "If asked his politics he would declare himself more of a Greenbacker than anything else, but he anticipates so much bitterness for Republicans for his change of views that he shall not be surprised, before the end of the campaign, to find himself declaring himself a Democrat."

THE GREATEST BLESSING.

A simple, pure, harmless remedy that cures every time, and prevents disease by keeping the blood pure, stomach regular, kidneys and liver active, is the greatest blessing ever conferred upon man. Hop Bitters is that remedy, and its proprietors are being blessed by thousands who have been saved from disease by its use. Will you try it? See other column.

Viva Garibaldi.

When Garibaldi ceased his high command, and sheathed his sword, that sword a bright and keen as any that ever existed, was brought to America by the old Garibaldi family, and has been used by them for generations for all diseases of the blood and stomach, and is especially good to ward off malarial attacks and to cure the blood. It is a medicine that is used by the Garibaldi family, and is a blessing to all who use it. For sale by H. B. Cochran, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa.

A Happy Restoration.

I can truly say that I owe my present existence and happy restoration to the hopes and joys of life, to the use of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and I say to everyone suffering from any manner of kidney, liver or urinary trouble, "I have used it, and it has cured me." W. E. SANFORD.

Mr. W. S. Palmer, 119 Morgan street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "My child was taken by a Whooping Cough in the spring of 1878, and I was told that it was the only remedy at hand. I began giving it according to directions, and found it gave immediate relief. I gave three (3) doses and the child rested well the remainder of the night. I have used it since, and found it gave me some time with complete success. For sale by H. B. Cochran, Druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street, Lancaster, Pa."
