THE LOCAL CAMPAIGN.

A Rattling Week for the Democracy.

Col. John W. Forney and other speakers who are to be present in Lancaster county this week to shake the country up politically on behalf of the Democracy, arrived this afternoon and have taken a carriage for Mountville where one of the largest meetings of the campaign will be held this evening to be addressed by Col. Forney and others.

The Columbia and Marietta clubs will be there and hosts of earnest Democrats from the surrounding country.

The Hancock Legion and glee club of this city will go out 100 strong, some on horseback, some in carriages, and omnibuses leaving Centre Square at 5 p. m. will convey many other Democrats of the city who will attend the meeting.

To-morrow a grand mass meeting will be held during the afternoon at Quarryville, to be addressed by Col. Forney, Mr. Ringwalt, Col. Douglas, Col. Ritchie and others.

A special train will run from this city at 9:45 a. m. The members of Hancock Legion and invited guests will assemble at Democratic headquarters to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock for the purpose of escorting Col. J. W. Forney and other speakers to Quarryville. The members are requested to wear dark clothes and white hats.

Many citizens will accompany the excursion and the turnout all along the line of the Quarryville railroad and from all the districts of the lower end is expected to be unusually large.

In the evening a special train, leaving Quarryville at 7 p. m. and returning from this city after midnight, will bring the excursionists back to the meeting in Fulton hall and the folks from the country who want to hear the news from Indiana and Ohio.

The Democratic meeting in the hall to-morrow evening promises to be an immense affair, and the attendance from the city and country will be very general, the liveliest interest being manifested to hear Col. Forney.

The speakers and visitors from Quarryville will be back in good time to begin the meeting at 8:15 p. m. Geo. Nauman, esp., will preside at the meeting and the election returns will be announced as rapidly as received in this city.

On Wednesday afternoon, and evening there will be a grand demonstration of the Democracy at the eastern end of the county at New Holland. Col. Forney and other distinguished speakers will be there, and the meeting promises to be the largest ever held in that section. Many persons from Lancaster will attend it.

On Wednesday evening Col. Forney will speak at Manheim.

On Thursday evening there will be a general meeting of the Democrats at John F. Eckhardt's Millport hotel, on the Strasburg turnpike, two miles east of this city. All of the Lancaster clubs are invited to attend it, and several companies of the Eighth ward club, the Ninth, Seventh and Sixth ward clubs, and probably others, as a whole or in part, will march out and participate in the demonstration.

On Friday night there will be a Democratic meeting at the Litzitz Springs hotel, another at Bowmanville, and one in Washington borough; on Saturday in Strasburg, Maytown and McCall's Ferry.

THE HILL RIOTS.

Testimony Before the Mayor.

This afternoon a number of witnesses appeared before his honor Mayor MacGonigle to testify in the case of the complaint made by Col. E. McCall, of the Republican club, against Officers Harman and Kautz, for neglect of duty on the occasion of the Republican parade on Friday night. The following testimony was taken.

J. N. Goodman, sworn: On Friday night on the occasion of the Republican procession the policeman who had hold of me had a stouch hat; can't say it was Kautz; the policeman caught hold of my arm; will not say that he caught hold of me for the purpose of holding me. I positively deny saying that Mr. Kautz handed his black-jack to anyone, never said anything of the kind.

E. H. Staub, sworn: Was standing at Hotel in front of Ackerman's place, West King street; asked Harman and Kautz to arrest a man, and they gave me no satisfaction; if they did not, in less than 15 seconds I saw a horseman strike Harman over the head with a whip. The officers had their backs to the crowd and faces towards the marching men; the name of the horseman who struck Harman was Franz; don't know his first name; the officer gave no provocation, but I think he was not doing his duty; can't say I saw the officers taking any part in the assault on Goodman; saw no officer strike a blow.

George W. Metzger, sworn: Was at Young Men's club, Co. C, Goodman stood by with me in hand, waiting till we came up and told the crowd to stand back; when the rank in which I was came up the rowdies tumbled into us; the officers came up—Kautz and Harman—Harman took hold of Goodman while other men struck him; it looked to me as though Harman was taking part with the crowd; it got pretty hot at that time and I got down street further. After the trouble had cooled down, I heard men ask, Kautz why he did not arrest those who were urging the fight, and he only laughed at them.

Peter Elias, sworn: When we were coming up Manor street, near Dorwart, we were attacked. I caught a boy who was throwing stones; he kept him and intended to hand him over to an officer as soon as I could see one; told Kautz the boy had been throwing stones and told him to lock him up; that I had seen him throwing stones; don't think Kautz saw him throwing stones; he was coming up Manor street towards home house; Kautz caught hold of Jacob Batt and pulled him out of the crowd.

Wm. Metzger sworn: Was coming up Manor street with company C. Jesse Nye had a flag in his hand with Hancock's likeness on it; he shook it at us and said see there you h. s. of b. I then saw Goodman trying to keep the crowd back; I walked the alley to Strawberry street; came back, saw Goodman and Harman talking; stones were being thrown, a torch was thrown at Goodman and he kept him and intended to hand him over to an officer as soon as I could see one; told Kautz the boy had been throwing stones and told him to lock him up; that I had seen him throwing stones; don't think Kautz saw him throwing stones; he was coming up Manor street towards home house; Kautz caught hold of Jacob Batt and pulled him out of the crowd.

John Wisegarver, sworn: In front of Harman's house I was one of the crowd who asked Harman to arrest a young man who had thrown a stone; he told us to pass on, never mind; he also told Shertz to go and get a warrant for his arrest, as he could not arrest him without a warrant. The crowd on this street wanted him to arrest Shertz; he said he could not do it; the crowd on the pavement turned on him. The defendants were not present at the hearing.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Their Visit to Baltimore.

This afternoon Lancaster commandery No. 12 Knights Templars left this city in the 2:10 train, accompanied by the City coroner band, to take part in the sequent-centennial ceremonies at Baltimore, in connection with a great parade which will take place to-morrow. Before taking the cars the Sir Knights made a happy reception of the members of the church, and after the ceremony the wedding party returned to the residence of the bride's father, where the newly wedded pair held a reception and the guests were royally entertained. Among the many elegant tokens of esteem presented to the happy couple was a handsome and costly silver pitcher, the gift of the choir of Zion's church, of which the bride was a member.
