THE WESTERN BATTLE.

OHIO AND INDIANA ELECTIONS.

A VERY HEAVY POLL.

FATAL FLAMES IN CHICAGO.

GRANT OFF TO BOSTON.

ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

THE BATTLE IN THE WEST.

An Unusually Heavy Vote in Cincinnati—Both sides Hard at Work.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—The weather is delightful, though partly cloudy and colder than yesterday. Both parties in this city are using every effort to secure a heavy vote. Very little scratching is done, and everything is quiet at the polls up to this hour (12:40). There will undoubtedly be a larger vote than was ever before polled, as in some precincts the vote at noon was up to the highest vote ever before cast. All points throughout Ohio and Indiana heard from indicate earnest work by both parties. It is the most exciting election held for a long time. Nothing can be told at this hour of the probable result.

The Hegira to Indiana.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—There was a large hegira of Chicagoans to Indiana last night. A single railroad yesterday issued over 800 passes to various points of that state between this city and Indianapolis. Not a few of those receiving these passes sold them to others.

BRITISH SPORTS.

An American Cricket Team for England.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The newspapers here publish the following: "It is stated that an American team of cricketers may visit England in 1881. Two gentlemen are about to visit the United States to make necessary arrangements. The success of the enterprise financially or otherwise is very doubtful, but if the brothers Newhall and other strong Philadelphia players could be induced to come over an interesting tour might be arranged."

Hanlan Gaining Paces.

The Sportsman says Hanlan, the oarsman, has gained three pounds owing to inactivity during Saturday and Sunday on account of the weather. He has a slight sore throat, but he looks very well. Elliott is in excellent health. It is considerably reduced in weight and rows in capital form.

FIRE IN CHICAGO.

Academy of Music Burned—Lives Lost. CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Emmit's Academy of Music was destroyed by fire to-day. One fireman was killed and five injured. The fire was confined to the theatre. The cause is unknown.

Other Fires.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Skinner & Co's knitting mill at Stillwater, was partly burned yesterday. Loss, $10,000; insured. Seven-fifty operatives are thrown out of work.

The Slave Trade.

Gordon Fights Telling What He Knows. LONDON, Oct. 12.—Colonel Gordon (Gordon Pacha), while passing up the Red Sea on his way from China to Europe wrote, under date of September 29th, to the secretary of the British Anti-Slavery Society as follows: "I hear of an Egyptian official leaving Massawa to annex the Damki coast and occupy the Guardafui promontory. This will involve Egypt in the yearly expenditure of £50,000, and completely blockade Abyssinia from the sea. The Egyptian commission established at Assiout for the suppression of the slave trade is a perfect farce."

ABDUCTED AND GARROTED.

A Pennsylvania Farmer's Exciting Adventure. NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Robert F. Gouran, a farmer from Canonsville, Pa., was rescued by the police from a coach early this morning, while being, as he claims, forcibly abducted and garroted. He says four men entered him into the back in Baxter street, and robbed him of $75. One man named Gaffney was arrested, while the others escaped. The attention of the police was directed to the coach by the cries "Gouran for assistance."

BALTIMORE'S FESTIVAL.

Procession of Masons and Children. BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—The Knights Templar, Royal Arch and Blue Masons are out in strong force, including a number of visiting commanderies of Knights Templar. The remainder of the procession is composed of children of the public schools, of whom there are several thousand in line. A threat of rain early in the forenoon prevented many children from joining the line, but the procession is the largest of its kind ever witnessed in Baltimore.

GRANT.

Departure of the ex-President for Boston. NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Gen. Grant left to-day by the 12 p. m. train for Boston, escorted by a committee from that city of ex-Govs. Boutwell and Talbot, and Col. Herbert C. Hill. The party occupied a special parlor car. During the morning the General received a large number of visitors among whom were ex-Gov. Fenton, Rev. Highland Garnett and the Chinese ambassador Chen La Pin.

THE IRISH TROUBLES.

Preparations for Disturbances. LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Dublin correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says: "The military authorities in the west of Ireland are making extensive preparations in view of apprehended disturbances. Houses are being hired at Iram and Headford in Galway and at Balla in Mayo for immediate occupation by the military. Detachments of troops will also leave the carriage of Kildare for Castle Bar and Westport in Mayo."

GRANT OFF TO BOSTON.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Budget of Fresh News from the Borough on the Susquehanna.

Rev. F. W. Staley, pastor of the E. E. Lutheran church, has been delivering a series of lectures on "Pilgrim's Progress" during the past several weeks and will continue lecturing on the same subject for a few weeks to come. The lectures are held in the lecture room of the church every Wednesday evening and all persons interested in the subject are invited to attend. The attendance at most of the meetings held has been good.

The fence to the rear of Holy Trinity Catholic church, on Cherry street above Fourth, has been torn down and will be replaced by a brick wall, which is now in course of erection.

S. P. McCorkle, of Philadelphia, is on a week's visit to his home in this place. Mrs. Leah Enney was yesterday afternoon buried from the residence of her son, Richard C. Enney, on Cherry street above Fourth.

A number of Masons from Lancaster passed through here yesterday afternoon accompanied by Clemmens's City band on their way to Baltimore, Md., to participate in the celebration of the sesqui-centennial anniversary of that city.

Each year the C. C. Haldeman were elected secretary and assistant secretary, respectively, to fill vacancies. The company drilled with a very slim turnout—politics the cause.

E. K. Marzetta, esq., and Maj. A. C. Reinold, of Lancaster, will speak here this evening in the interest of the Republican party.

The Democracy of Columbia will give a battalion parade on Wednesday evening and the Republicans on Thursday evening. Each party will turn out every man who can be persuaded to carry a torch, and each party will probably extend courtesies to the other. This beats fighting all hollow.

That the Indiana and Ohio returns will not be eagerly awaited is extremely improbable. It will be a late hour to-night for many of our citizens see their beds, provided, of course, the telegraph operators can be persuaded to remain at their posts and talk the news as it flashes over the wires.

By the breaking of an axle a wreck occurred to a market wagon at Fourth and Locust streets at about 5 o'clock this morning. We went to a couple of blacksmith and carriage shops to look the matter up, but could not learn to whom the team belonged.

The ministers of the Protestant churches of Columbia held their weekly meeting yesterday morning.

The archery club will shoot at target this afternoon, on the Plover.

We had a very light market this morning. Produce is reported to have been plenty.

The gamblers about here are getting their traps ready for October 15. Rabbits, partridges, pheasants and other game may be and will be slaughtered. The day is not a great way off.

Columbians are more interested than we thought they would be in Baltimore's anniversary celebration. Trucks are no longer right level. Perhaps the gaudy display is doing it.

The Republican helmet company of this place will go to Lancaster again on the 21st. It is thought a special train will be run.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

The Chester County cases settled. This was the week set apart for the trial of cases, sent here from Chester county, and which arose from the disaster on the 1st of October, 1877. The suits were brought against the Reading railroad company, which controls the Pickering Valley R. R. in 1877. The suits were compromised by the parties with verdicts in favor of the plaintiffs as follows:

Mary Ann Tustin and George P. Tustin, children of Isaac Tustin, deceased, vs. the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company. Verdict $1,000.

Mary Ann Tustin, surviving parent of John Tustin, deceased, vs. the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company. Verdict $1,000.

Mary Ann Tustin vs. the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company. Verdict $5,000.

Abraham Pennycook vs. the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company. Verdict $2,500.

Olive Mary Prizer, by her guardian, &c., Isaac N. Schaeffer vs. the Philadelphia & Reading railroad company. Verdict $1,000.

The plaintiffs in all of the cases were persons who were injured in the disaster or relations of those who were killed.

Missing Woman.

Chief of Police Deichler has received a postal from Philadelphia to the following effect: "Eliza McKeever, 70 years of age, gray hair, 5 feet 5 inches high, dark dress, has been missing from her home in Philadelphia, since Aug. 15, 1880. Is childish, and subject to wandering off. Sometimes gives her name as Lizzy Gordon, and always goes up to policemen for information."

A woman answering her description was in the Lancaster station house over Sunday and gave her name as Anna Donahy. She said, however, that she was 91 years old and had served as nurse during three seasons of yellow fever in Philadelphia. She was discharged from the station-house Monday morning.

Dog Chastised.

A day or two ago Frank Hartmyer's pet dog, a beautiful Italian greyhound, was put to death by being chloroformed, the chloroform being administered by saturating a sponge, placing it in a cone and holding it over the dog's nose. The dog had been beaten about four weeks ago by another dog, and was put to death because it showed symptoms of hydrophobia.

A Rough Party.

Mayor MacGonigle had before him this morning a party of sixteen tramps, arrested as stated yesterday in the vicinity of Schroyer's hot-houses on the Harrisburg pike. Two of the party were committed for eight days, three for nine days, five for ten days, one for twelve days, one for twenty days, two for twenty-five days and two, who did not belong to the gang, were discharged.

A Giant Beet.

Our old Democratic friend Geo. Diller, hotel keeper at Leaman Place, sends us a sample, a monstrous Hancock red beet, weighing 11 pounds and measuring 36 inches around the length and 23 inches in breadth. Trot out your Garfield beetle to beat it if you can.

Gen. Samuel Ross's Insurance.

Gen. Samuel Ross, of Philadelphia, paid today to Mrs. Phebe W. Ross, wife of Gen. Samuel Ross, deceased, $6,014.34 being the amount of insurance due her from the above company.

THE FIGHT ON "THE HILL."

More Sworn Testimony—The Accused Police Sued—The Republican Campaign Lies Exposed.

The following additional testimony was taken before the mayor last evening and this morning in the case of Colonel Elias McEllen against the police officers for neglect of duty during the riot on the "hill" on Friday evening last. It will be seen that the sworn testimony of the officers of the New Era and Examiner are completely exploded by the sworn testimony of their own witnesses examined yesterday and to-day, without taking into account the testimony offered on the part of the accused.

For the prosecution Henry N. Stevens was sworn and testified as follows: After the fuss on the hill and the procession had come down to the square, I went to the colonel of the battalion and asked him if he could not get an escort to go over the hill to the Columbia people. He said he would see what he could do. After I left him I saw Mr. Deichler and asked him for an escort. He told me the policemen were all out on their beats. Some one in the crowd called out to the colonel of the battalion to go over the hill with the Columbians. He said, "I will attend to it myself and see what I can do." I said one man would be of no account as an escort going over that hill. Some one said that he, the chief, would be a pretty fellow to go over the hill there that crowd by himself. He turned round to me; I suppose he thought it was I who said it, when he said to me if I was not careful I might get myself into trouble.

The defense.

For the defense of the accused officers the following witnesses were called and sworn:

C. A. Oldender, sworn: I was on Manor street in rear of Dr. Long's; saw the procession coming along peacefully until the Fourth ward came; saw the man called Mr. B. try to introduce Mr. B. who was "spoiling" to put up a trifle on Hancock. Mr. B. tried hard to introduce Mr. W. to come again, but that gentleman was either out of soap or didn't want to mix any more with the crowd. In the meantime other Democratic "business men" had heard the good news of a Republican who was willing to back his candidate and hastened to see "him"—but they were too late. Mr. Wells's $100 is still at our office to be used for $80 by any one who believes that the Republicans will carry Indiana.

Narrow Escape.

A countryman accompanied by two ladies, while driving down North Queen street this morning, had a narrow escape from accident. The mail train west was pulling out of the depot and the countryman was only a short distance north of the track. Although the woman called to him and motioned him to stop and a dozen others did the same, the countryman seemed not to understand them, and drove right across the track in front of the engine, and the cow-catcher almost grazed the hind wheels of the carriage as it crossed the track.

Correction.

It was not John Fisher but his brother Henry, 553 North Prince street, who accidentally shot himself near McCall's carry on Sunday. The man who shot himself was not "throwing the gun over the fence" as stated yesterday, but that he was sitting on the fence and a rail broke under him, causing the discharge of the gun. His father did not go to Frank's yesterday to see him, as he had not heard of the shooting in regard to his condition to do to what was reported yesterday.

Boots Stolen.

Six boots have been stolen from the store of Jacob Bork, on West King street. All of them are for the right foot. The thieves should apply to Mr. Bork for the mates.

My wife was saved by wearing one of Prof. Gullinette's Kidney Pills after I had tried all other remedies, writes a well-known minister who had the gravel for five years.

Williamson & Foster have just received 4 dozen Men's Working Pants and making a special sale of them at 65c per pair.

Conchmaker's Ball.

The employees of Edgerly & Co's coach works will give a ball at Rothwell's hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 13. A large ball and pleasant time is expected.

General Butler's knowledge to have been nearly exhausted by the Centinel shaving soap.

Catch a Tartar.

Do not spare it. Brush for dear life. If you destroy it, all the better for you and your teeth. It will destroy the bacteria of the mouth, its beauty, and your sweet breath.

Midway.

Help to Mothers Nursing Infants. It is a conceded fact that mothers who have the care, anxiety and draught of nursing infants, are weak and need the aid of some strengthening tonic to make up the nourishment required for the growth of the child. Ale, porter and other beer have often been recommended. Of late, since physicians have become aware that the Port Grape Wine produced by Alfred Spear, of Passaic, N. J., is a healthy and strengthening tonic, it is of ale and porter. This wine is principally sought for by mothers who have nursing infants at the breast, as the best supplying medicinal tonic, which is rich in body and not intoxicating, but gently stimulating. Druggists generally keep it.—Enquirer.

This wine is endorsed by Dr. A. Lee and Davis, and sold by T. J. Shykmaker, of 2nd & W.
