trancork's Portrait Elegantly Framed. This afternoon the Haucock Veteran association of Lancaster received a beautiful present from Lawrence Frey, a veteran of Co. K, 77th Regt. Pa. Vols., formerly of Lancaster, but now of Greensburg, Westmoreland county, this state. The present consists of a beautifully framed portrait of Hancock, half length and life size. The frame, which is handsomely carved and ornamented, was made with a pen-kuife by Mr. Frey The top of the frame is surmounted by the American shield, and on the other side of the frame, in wood of different colors, are carved representations of cannoas, swords and rifles with fixed bayonets. On the bottom of the frame are carved crossed bayonets, and on each corner of the frame, resting on leaves of pretty design, is carved the well-known trefoil, the badge of the Second corps. The frame is creditable to the mefurnace. chanical skill of Mr. Fry, and its presentation to his old Democratic comrades shows that his heart is still in the right place-for an undivided union and for the man who shed his blood to perpetuate it. Mr. Frey sent along with the picture the following letter :

"GREENSBURG, Oct. 25, 1880. " To the Veteran Club of Lancaster, Pa .:

" COMRADES-In'presenting to you the accompanying picture of General Winfield Scott Hancock, the soldier-statesman, as a slight token of my regard for you, allow me to say that I regret that I am unable to meet you face to face and feel the warm grasp of your friendly hands. Although far from you, my thoughts and feelings are with you and the strong cords of a soldier's friendship and admiration for the hero of Gettysburg still bind me to yeu with living strength.

"Please accept this in the spirit in which it is given, and may you have the unbounded pleasure, as you gaze upon the manly soldier's face, of beholding the picture of the next president of the United States of America, is the carnest desire of your friend and brother,

" Very respectfully, " LAWRENCE FREY,

"Member of the Greensburg Veterau club, 77th Regt., Co. K, Pa. Vols.
