While aiming at a bird at Monticello, N. Y., the barrel of George Watts's gun left the stock, and the whole charge went through one of his feet.

B. Pabeston, a 16 year old boy, of Sullivan, Ind., while swinging his gun carelessly during a gunning trip, caught the hammer in his clothes and was killed. While Julius Mollier, a barber of Cambridge, N. Y , was drawing a gun out of a boat at Lake Lauderdale, the firearm was discharged, blowing off Mollier's arm. The son of John Donohue, of Atkinson, Ind., threw himself on the grass, caught the trigger of the gun on the bottom of his trousers and hall his right hand blow a

He was found the next morning dead, lying upon a knoll, with one shoe and his fishing basket, under his head and placed near his body some papers and a photograph, which explained the manner and cause of his death. He had pursued a squirrel down into a hollow, and in en deavoring to eatch him the lock of the gun caught. The lock was broken and the gun went off, sending a ball into Mr. Dyer's abdomen. He started for help, but was too weak from loss of blood to go far and drew himself up to the knoll where he was found. He took a paper from his pocket and wrote a brief statement of the accident. and knowing that death would ensue, he made a brief memorauda relative to his estate and funeral. He wrote on the back of the photograph: "8 p. m., still alive."

WANAMAKER & BROWN.

OAK HALL, PHILADELPHIA.

Worth Knowing.

There is a place in Philadelphia where a stranger may buy his clothes, and fare as well as if he knew the whole city by heart; and if knows nothing about the value of cloths, or of clothes, he is as well off as if he were a good judge of both.

The reason is that everything to be found there is made theresold under a system which rarely allows mistakss to occur, and which corrects them if they do occrr.

OAK HALL is the place; and its practice may be summed up in a few words. If you get there what you don't want to keep at the price, you return it, and get your money back.

Tois means a great deal more than appears on the surface. It means that you are not going to get what you will not want to keep at the price, if the merchant can help it. It means that the clothes you get there will be of honest cloths, honestly made; and that they will cost you less than as good clothes can be got for elsewhere. It means that they will be every way better worth your money than you can get elsewhere for the same money.

If it means anything less than these thing: -if it means poor cloths, trimmings, cutting, sewing, or in any way dishonest or illiberal dealing; the return of his goods will plague the merchant, injure his credit and dissipate his trade.

If it means these things-if it means liberal and honorable dealing, valuable and trusty clothing, case and safety in getting it, OAK HALL is the place for you to go to, or to send to; and it is worth your while to know how you can send, if it is inconvenient to go.

Write; say what your occupation is; say what sort of use you intend to make of the clothes you want; whether for everyday wear or otherwise; what color you prefer, or what color to avoid; say about what you want to pay; say everything that you think may aid a stranger in choosing for you. You will get in reply samples of cloths and prices of whatever you want made from these cloths. You will get also the means of having your measure taken by an unskilled person.

There is only one difficulty left. Somebody has got to take the risks of the dealing; for there are risks. Send your money along with your order. That covers the risk as to your good faith. We risk everything else; the fit and your satisfaction

Our trade by mail amounts to half a million dollars a year; there's no reason why it shouldn't amount to five millions.
