FAC-SIMILE OF GARFIELD'S CHINESE LETTER.

Personal and Confidential House of Representatives,

Washington, D. C., July 23, 1880

Dear Sir,

Your attention to the Chinese problem came duly to hand. I take it that the question of free trade is only a question of private and corporate economy, and individuals or companies have the right to buy labor where they can get it cheapest.

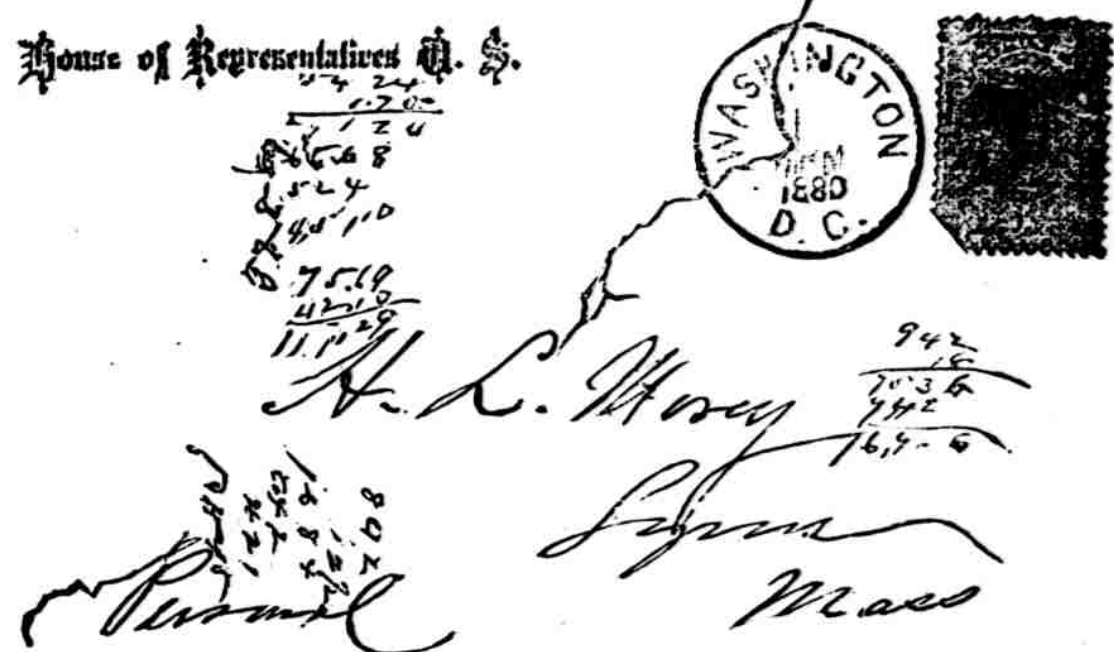

We have a treaty with the Chinese government, which should be religiously kept until its provisions are abrogated by the action of the general Government, and I am not prepared to say that it should be abrogated, until our great manufacturing and corporate interests are concerned in the matter of labor.

A. S. Money, Employer Union, Lowell, Mass.

Very truly yours, J. L. Garfield
