Great Loss of Life by an Underground Explosion in Nova Scotia.

HALIFAX, Nov. 12.—About 6:30 this morning an explosion of gas occurred on the south side of Fort pit, at Stellarton. The explosion nearly swept across to the other side of the pit, killing men and horses within reach. Almost all the men on the north side will be saved while those on the south side will be lost. At least sixty men are missing. Full particulars not yet known. Five men have been brought up and are likely to recover. Probably forty are shut up with the fallen coal on the south side. The accident, it is presumed, was caused by some miner firing a shot in a forbidden part of the workings.

Two hundred men were in the mine at the time of the explosion, though not all of them were in dangerous positions. A bulletin from the scene of disaster states that a second explosion is apprehended.

THE POPE'S PERPLEXITY. Over the Agrarian Agitation in Ireland. LONDON, Nov. 12.—The correspondent of the Times at Rome says it is well known in the Vatican that the Pope is much embarrassed about Irish affairs. He fully understands that it is not a question between Catholics and Protestants, but between the friends of order and the anarchists. He openly disapproves the agrarian movement and sincerely desires to assist the English government if possible. He is well aware that he is only hearing one side of the case, and he feels that were he to break silence he might, in seeking to do good, produce a contrary result through his imperfect knowledge of affairs.

Military Movements. LONDON, Nov. 12.—A despatch from Ballinrobe says the troops forming the escort of Boycott relief expedition were mustered previous to starting for Boycott's farm, crowds of people groaning at and hooting outside the barracks gates. The uproar in the principal street was tremendous.

Another Agrarian Murder. The steward to Colonel Cooper, of Dunboden, near Mullingar, county West Meath, was shot and wounded in two places by an unknown youth.

A GILL-WIFE. Murdered by a Brutal Husband. RED BANK, N. J., Nov. 12.—William V. Grover, aged 50, of this place, married Jimma Amack, aged 13, last May and the couple went to live at Easton town. Grover's abuse drove the wife away last Saturday. Last night the wife returned to the house to get her clothes, when Grover shot her twice in the head. Mrs. Grover is dying.

DEATH OF THE POSTUM. Sudden Death of a Philadelphia Physician. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—Dr. George R. Neberger, a well-known doctor of Philadelphia, was taken suddenly ill last night while delivering a lecture at the Wagner institute and died a few minutes after being taken from the platform. He said he had previously taken half an ounce of Laudanum to relieve him of a temporary attack of sickness.

NEWS OF THE AFTERNOON. John McManus has been arrested in Chicago for killing Bernard Riley, in Philadelphia, during a political dispute last December. Mary Segerson, who was murdered by her rejected lover in New York, was buried to-day. During the funeral services her mother fainted and her brother had to be removed from the casket by force.
