

by Prof. Frank Bradford, of New York City. The opera house was crowded. Prof. Bradford is a fair elocutionist, of good stage presence, and with graceful gesture and easy manner. His selections ranged "from grave to gay, from lively to severe," among the most effective of his performances being his rendition of a thrilling descriptive poem, entitled "The Carrion's Ride." He read also a selection from Bret Harte's writings in capital style, and a humorous poem he read, entitled "The Puzzled Dutchman," created an immense amount of fun. Mr. Bradford's essay in Shakespearean reading was less successful. He is not a great elocutionist, but he is a conscientious student, and afforded a pleasant evening's entertainment. During the evening there were several vocal selections by a quartet composed of Miss Alice Troyer, soprano, Miss Mary Senner, contralto, Prof. Wm. B. Hall, tenor, and Mr. S. D. Bauman, bass. The rendition of a song entitled "The Old Man Dreams," by these voices, was excellent. Prof. Hall sang a ballad entitled "The Old Tumbler," and a humorous character, and for an encore sang "The Bells." Misses Troyer and Senner sang a duet entitled "The Fisherman" and were rapturously cheered. Before the audience was dismissed Dr. J. H. Shumaker sang a selection.

COURT.

Opinions Delivered by the Judges.
This morning's session at 10 o'clock. Opinions in the following cases were delivered:

By Judge Livingston.
The board of prison inspectors of Lancaster county vs. Levi Weiler, G. W. Styer, Alexander Galt, C. Shouster, et al. Rule to show cause why the writs in above cause should not be amended so as to read: "The board of inspectors of the Lancaster county prison vs. Levi Sensenig and Christian Musser, partners, trading as Sensenig & Musser," and all the names of the other defendants with the words "partners trading as the New Holland company store" stricken off the record. Rule made absolute.

Mary Ann Kleider by her next friend David Cramer vs. Amos Kleider. Rule to show cause why the writs should not be set aside. Rule discharged.

The city of Lancaster vs. the Pennsylvania railroad. Rule to show cause why the above cases should not be consolidated into one at the plaintiff's costs, and that the cases be dismissed with costs according to the terms of the rule, but order and direct that of the said suits, from No. 28 to No. 98, both inclusive, shall be consolidated and tried at one and the same time, as one action, and that from No. 99 to No. 176, both inclusive, shall be consolidated and tried at one and the same time as one action.

David Kaufman vs. The Reading & Columbia railroad company, exceptions to taxation of cost by the prothonotary. Plaintiff's bill was corrected by striking therefrom the sum paid to the original first viewers and the prothonotary's taxation of the remaining portion of plaintiff's bill of cost was confirmed, sustaining the exception with reference to the item thus stricken out and dismissing the remaining exceptions.

East Earl township, appeal, exceptions to auditor's report, exceptions overruled and report confirmed.

Moses Ober vs. William Koser, rule to show cause why the appeal should not be stricken off. Rule confirmed.

John Drace, deceased, exceptions to auditor's report. The part of the report finding the fact of the death of Fanny Myers and that payment should be made to Fanny Misher was confirmed and exceptions to that part were dismissed. The remainder of the report relative to interest is rejected as surplusage.

Lewis Hepting, deceased's estate, exceptions to auditor's report overruled and report confirmed.

Isaac G. Smoker, deceased's estate. Exceptions to auditor's report. Dismissed and report confirmed.

Commonwealth vs. Wm. A. McPherson, embezzlement, demurrer to indictment. Demurrer sustained and indictment quashed.

By Judge Patterson.
O. P. Brubaker, for the use of the Honeybrook First National bank vs. Perry Brubaker. Rule to show cause why an issue should not be granted. Rule confirmed.

Samuel W. Kurtz vs. David S. Miller and Samuel H. Royer. Rule for a new trial discharged.

Henry M. Watts, Elizabeth Watts and William M. Watts vs. the Pennsylvania railroad company. Rule to show cause why judgment of non suit should not be stricken off. Rule discharged.

Christian Good, deceased's estate. Exceptions to auditor's report. Dismissed and report confirmed.

Samuel Barr, deceased's estate. Exceptions to auditor's report. Auditor's fee reduced to $35; the other exceptions dismissed.

Jacob F. Roller, deceased's estate. Rule to show cause why sheriff's amended return of service of law on heirs, should not be further amended. Also, exceptions to confirmation of sale of real estate. Rule discharged and exceptions to confirmation of sale sustained and sale set aside.

Issues Granted.
An issue was granted between the Home for Friendless Children for the City and County of Lancaster vs. the City of Lancaster and County of Lancaster to ascertain the amount of damages, if any, sustained by the Home by reason of the opening of South Marshall street from East King to Juniata street.

An issue was also awarded between Catharine Kelly and the County of Lancaster to ascertain the amount of damages sustained by Mrs. Kelly in the opening of Juniata street through her lands.

A Novel Election Bet.
Mr. Al. Price, of Thornbury, is the owner of a flock of sheep, among which is an old buck, noted for its propensity to butt any and every living thing that comes in its way. This propensity of the old buck will be brought into requisition on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of paying an election bet. It appears that Stephen Taylor, a Democrat, and his brother, Amos Taylor, a staunch Republican, both of Westtown, made an agreement before the election that if their favorite candidates defeated the one losing should stand and take a butting from Price's "old ram." As Garfield was elected, Stephen Taylor lost, and says he will live up to his agreement. The time fixed for the operation is Saturday afternoon, when it will be done in the presence of a large number of friends of both political parties. We imagine that Stephen will be entirely satisfied with the first butt, and that while the old ram is gathering for the second attack, Stephen, if he is able to do so, will gently skip out of the enclosure where the butting is to take place.—West Chester Local News.

Musical and Literary.
A musical and literary entertainment will be given on Monday evening in the Moravian church under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Guild of this church. The programme will embrace an address by Rev. C. Elvin Houpt, essays by the members, and some fine musical selections.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

D. F. Shure, of the Susquehanna canal, was in town yesterday.
Joseph H. McFadden, of Philadelphia, dropped on his Columbia friends yesterday. Of course he went to the hop.
The Frederick accommodation train went came in yesterday afternoon twenty-five minutes late.

The first of the season's snow is now falling and is coming down with a vengeance too. It commenced dropping a little after 9 o'clock and it is still going ahead, apparently with no let up. Well, it is drawing near the time.

The Pennsylvania railroad pay car paid us its regular monthly visit yesterday afternoon. It is always welcome.

The class of book-keeping, of which we spoke a few days ago, will take lessons, beginning next week, in the room of S. S. Detweiler's building, opposite A. D. Reese's billiard hall.

The teachers of the Columbia public schools have concluded that they have seen enough institutes for one week in the week closing with to-day, and by virtue of this decision to-day's district institute was not held. A meeting will take place on next Saturday.

A public sale of real estate at the Franklin house to-night.

We are inclined to believe the present snow will turn into rain before the day is over.

A fair-sized audience assembled in the opera house, last evening, to witness the dramatic exhibition for the benefit of St. Peter's Catholic church, as rendered by the pupils and young ladies of the church congregation; which rendition is commended, the participants in the exercises complimented, and the entertainment pronounced a success. The Citizens' band discoursed some airs.

Messrs. C. C. Hogenberger, W. H. Herr, I. C. Gitt and Orrick Richards, the special committee under whose auspices last evening's hop in company H's army was given, are congratulating themselves this morning on the success of their enterprise, and the happy termination of their labor in navigating, so unwaveringly, from its embryonic state, the first dance of the season. The music as furnished by "Taylor's orchestra" was superb, and the boys and girls present had a delightful time.

Borough Council.
At the meeting of council last evening all the members were present except Mr. Elbert. The finance committee reported receipts since last meeting, $1,492.92, expenditures, $3,187.30, balance on hand, $1,769.18. The insurance of city property has been replaced at 3 per cent. rate for three years. The work of extending the opera house store room was estimated at $1,000 and the tenants will each pay $100 additional rent per annum; not agreed to. J. C. Stoner proposes that if the borough will vacate Strickler's lane from Grubb's road to where Manor street extends, it would strike the borough line and open Manor street to Twelfth, he would release all damages from the opening, extend Manor street to the borough line, putting it in passable condition and continue Grubb's lane to Manor street. Several business men were heard in favor of later market hours during the winter months, and there will be a conference on the subject on Monday evening at an adjourned council meeting. The Thanksgiving market will be held on Wednesday, the 23rd inst., at 3 p. m. Permission to erect telegraph poles in the streets and alleys was granted. The finance committee was authorized to borrow $1,500 temporarily. Sundry bills were ordered to be paid.

All-Day Microscopical Exhibition.
The exhibition of the Lancaster Microscopical society yesterday in the orphan's school room attracted hundreds of people, including teachers, directors, clergymen, lawyers and citizens generally in the vicinity of the court house, who had read of the compound microscope but had never before tested its revealing power. Some of these are already thinking of buying instruments and nearly all will have a new and fertile subject of conversation, in describing the wonderful and beautiful objects exhibited under the lenses of the various instruments. The value of microscopical exhibition yesterday was about two thousand dollars; the value of those exhibited on Tuesday night on the stage at Fulton hall was perhaps three thousand dollars. The Microscopical society puts money into its work, and its members regard the work worth more than the money it costs to do it.

Serenaded.
A short time ago Mr. Ferd. C. Demuth, a member of the Empire hook and ladder company, was married. Last evening the company gave him a serenade at his residence on East King street. About nine o'clock the members assembled at their truck house. Headed by Clemmens's City band they marched to Mr. Demuth's home, where they were met by a large number of guests, who had decorated with flags and Chinese lanterns, with them. Arriving at the house the band played several tunes and the line of march to the truck house was then taken up. The truck was placed away at Mr. Demuth's residence, and the company to the saloon of Eugene Bauer, on East King street, where he entertained them handsomely.

Funeral.
The funeral of Henry Gundacker took place this afternoon and was very largely attended by relatives and friends. Lodge 43, F. and A. M., attended in a body. The friends of the deceased assembled at the residence North Queen street and viewed the remains, which lay in an elegant coffin. The funeral procession then formed and moved to St. James church. The coffin was placed in front of the altar and the impressive funeral service of the Protestant Episcopal church was read by the rector, Rev. C. F. Knight. The music was rendered by the surplined choir under lead of Prof. C. Matz. The remains, at the end of the service, were replaced upon the bier, the procession re-formed and moved to Lancaster cemetery where the interment took place.

Drowned.
Coroner Misher has received information that a child, between 2 and 3 years of age, of Lemon Frankhouse, who resides near Fry's mill, on Muddy creek near Hinkleton, was found drowned in the mill race a day or two ago. No particulars of the affair are given further than that the funeral took place yesterday.

Sale of Real Estate.
Samuel Hess & Son, auctioneers, sold last night, at public sale, at the Cooper house, for J. W. Yocum, executor of A. F. Herr, deceased, a lot of ground situated on the west side of College avenue, 100 feet front and 150 feet deep, to M. S. Harsh, for $690.

St. Anthony's Fair.
The fair of St. Anthony's church, in Grant hall is being well attended. The voting is lively.

Condition of Young King.
William King, who was thrown from a carriage yesterday, has returned to consciousness and is doing a great deal better to-day.

Musical and Literary.
A musical and literary entertainment will be given on Monday evening in the Moravian church under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Guild of this church. The programme will embrace an address by Rev. C. Elvin Houpt, essays by the members, and some fine musical selections.

By Judge Patterson.

THIRD EDITION.

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 13, 1880.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—For the Middle states, cloudy and threatening weather, possibly followed by occasional snow or rain, northwest to northeast winds, generally lower temperature, stationary or higher barometer.

THE MINE EXPLOSION.

Circumstances Attending the Disaster at Stellarton, N. S., Nov. 13.—The first indication of the accident on the surface was the blowing off of the top of the fan pit, followed by great gush of wind, but no report was heard. The utmost precautions have been taken by the management and the explorers are all picked men under the guidance of cool clear-headed men. Another exploring party went down at 9:30 p. m., but has not yet returned to the surface. The equipments of the mines were excellent, probably as good as any on the continent. About $40,000 had recently been expended in new machinery and it was considered a very safe pit, as the workmen could walk out of it.

An exploring party went down Ford pit again this morning, but could not get any further than on the first attempt, owing to the damp. They saw evidence that the pit was on fire, so the pumps have been stopped to allow the water to rise and drown the fire. Only two bodies have been recovered. There is little hope that the rest will be secured. The other mines are idle, though the demand for coal is great.

THE MONEY LETTER.

Philip Held for Libel—Judge Davis is Severe.
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Judge Davis this morning rendered a decision in the case of Kenward Philip, holding the defendant to answer before a jury the charge of libel. The decision is very severe on Mr. Howitt, upon whom it says must rest the larger share of the responsibility for the publication. Judge Davis says the Money letter is clearly a forgery, and the evidence indicates a grave conspiracy to accomplish a national crime, and points to conspirators of far higher positions of whom Philip may have been merely a tool.

A Naughty Boy.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 13.—Willie Sprague, the son of Ex-Governor Sprague, is being examined at Wakefield to-day, on two complaints, one for assault with a dangerous weapon, the other for assault with intent to kill Robert Thompson, his mother's trustee.

BY WIRE.

News of the American Contested.
The artisans at Portadown, Ireland, have initiated a movement for ostracising the members of the Land League by refusing to deal with or work for any member of that organization.

A woman who had sold food to one of the Orangemen at Lough market, Ireland, was "carded" last night.

Nicholas Gedalia, a broker and the son of a Danish count, committed suicide in New York this morning by shooting himself.

The Little Chief mine at Leadville, on Thursday night, disregarded the injunction of the court to suspend operations in order to close its level against the approach of fire, which started in the Chrysler mine two months ago. Eight hundred pounds of giant powder was exploded this afternoon on the line between the Little Chief and the Chrysler to break down the slopes, and another charge of 1,000 will be fired to-night.

A number of desperate criminals who escaped from jail at Los Vegas, were pursued by a posse. In an encounter that ensued two of the murderers were killed and another wounded.

Warren Shepperd, colored, was hanged at Montgomery, Alabama, yesterday. On the gallows he said he was ready but not willing to die.

Fire early this morning in the cotton shed of the Mutual storage company, Memphis, Tenn., entirely destroyed about a hundred bales of cotton. Loss, $12,000.

Half the town of Agram, in South Australia, has been destroyed by earthquake, which continued all day yesterday. Many people are homeless and panic prevails.
