Indian Ethnology.

The Eight Investigating Parties of Major Powell. Omaha, Neb., Republican.

Among the Union Pacific passengers bound for the Pacific coast Monday was the explorer, Major J. W. Powell, of Washington, chief of the bureau of ethnology. Major Powell has eight parties in the field engaged in making a study of the North American Indians—their condition, their habits of life, their languages, their history, &c., as well as taking a census of them. These parties, who are roughing it with tents, mule-teams, &c., are scattered throughout California, Nevada, Utah, New Mexico and Arizona, and Major Powell is going to visit them all to ascertain personally how they are progressspring, owing to the scattered locations of the various tribes. The name of every Indian is written out in full, together with age, sex, &c., and other statistics are obtained, just the same as of the civilized citizens of the United States, so far as practicable. Besides these eight ethnological parties who are doing this work, there are special agents of the census bureau who are assistestimated that the total number of Indians in the United States will foot up over 300,which means old Indian villages. These are now being carefully explored. In New Mexico they have discovered, west of Santa Fe, the largest collections of ruins ever found on this continent. Major Powell had just received a dispatch concerning it, and stated that the Republican would be the first newspaper te make the announcement. Major Powell, who has gained a national reputation, began his explorations under the auspices of the Smithsonian institution in 1866, and has been in the employ of the government ever since.

Workingmen. Before you begin your heavy spring work after a winter of relaxation, your system needs cleansing and strengthening to prevent an at-tack of Ague, Bilious or Spring Fever, or some other Spring sickness that will unfit you for a season's work. You will save time, much sickness and great expense if you will use one bottle of Hop Bitters in your family this month. Don't wait. See other column. n1-2wd&w

A Word to Our Readers. A Word to Our Readers.

When you read of a remedy that will cure a diseases, beware of it; but when you read of a pure vegetable compound which claims to cure only certain parts of the body, and furnishes high proof that it does this, you can safely try and with the assurance that it will help you. This is just what Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure does. It cures all troubles of the lower portion of the body and none others. It will not help the toothrache, carache nor consumption, but it will put your earache nor consumption, but it will put your body in a vigorous and healthy state where you can enjoy life and appreciate its good h nigs. Try it.
