Way of the World. Fresh Gleanings from the Home and For-eign Crop of Humor. One of the first requisitions received from a newly-appointed railway station agent was; "Send me a gallon of red oil for the danger lanterns. Tommy (whose mamma had been reading to him about Eve and the serpent):

"She wasn't like you, mamma, for you're afraid of a mouse. "I believe in bananas in the abstract, but not in the concrete," said an old gentleman, as he painfully arose from the asphalt walk.

"If I punish you," said a mamma to her little girl, "you don't suppose I do so for my pleasure, do you?" Then whose pleasure is it for, mamma?"

"You are an idiot!" angrily exclaimed a domineering wife "So my friends said when I married you," replied the husband. And she became more infuriated than

"You ought to travel for your health." "But I have neither the money nor the in-clination." "I'll tell you what to dosteal $10,000, and then you will have both the inclination and the means to travel!"

Two Kentuckians had been stopping at a Chicago hotel. One of them was fiercely disputing the correctness of the bill which the clerk had just presented to him, when the other took him by the arm and said. "Colonel, never forget that you are a Kentuckian. Kill the clerk, but pay the bill.' The German papers teli this story in connection with Baron Rothschild's death: A meets B, weeping and sobbing aloud. Says A, "Why do you weep?" "Be cause," says B, as if his heart were break-" Being, "because he is dead-the powerful and rich baron." "But," replied A, why do you cry so much; he was no relation of "That's just what I am erying about," howled B, more affected than

If any one were to say that the famous picture of Colonel Mulbery Sellers placing a candle inside an empty stove counterfeit a cheerful fire, was not original with Mark Twain he would doubtless be scoffed at. Nevertheless, if any one will turn to the memories of Saint Simon, he will find that this ingenious device was invented about two hundred and fifty years ago by the Prince of Leon and his wife, at Bruy eres. "One winter's day," we are told, 'the wood gave out, yet at night the stove shone as brightly as ever. The Chevalier de Konan, who was acquainted with the state of the wood pile, was sur-prised, approached the fire, felt the stove and found it icy cold—a lamp placed in-side made it glow."

CONTENTED Beneath the linden shady, I sat, with my heart's ladye, Contented, hand in hand. There not a leaf was blowing, The sun was brightly glowing Down on the silent land.

The time we could not measure The time we could not measure, So lost were we in pleasure, Scarcely our bearts did beat. We breathed no word—why should we? We questioned not—how could we? We knew that life was sweet.

c cated not for the morrow. We knew not pain or sorrow, Love was not far away. From the dear eyes a greeting A kiss from warm lips meeting— So passed the happy day.

At the Roman Comique some fifty years ago the juvenile leading lady of a strolling company was cast as Juliet; she was a young mother, and her baby was put in herdressing room to be near her and for security. But just before the balcony scene, the young tyrant became unruly. A mother's tact hit upon the true soothing syrup. She nestled the infant to her breast, and from that moment the young villiar became silent as a mouse Being called, she hastily mounted the rostrum that supported the supposed balcony, throwing a lace scarf over her shoulders, which concealed the babe; and leaning over the balcony, with her other arm pensively placed on her cheek, she looked the picture of innocence and beauty. The scene opened and went beautifully. But, alas! Juliet has to appear and disappear thr.e times, and in her effort to do so gracefully, and yet con-ceal the child, she stumbled against the iron brace that held up the frail structure. Down fell the balcony, and, lo! the love lorn maiden was discovered with a baby at her breast-seated on a tub, that served for a stool, and at her feet, accidentially placed there by the thirsty carpenter, was a quart pot. The said carpenter was discovered on all fours, steadying with his back the rickety structure above.

If you see a lady drop her glove and a gentleman by the side of her, kindly telling her to pick it up, you need not hesitate in forming an opinion that they are married, and it you see a man or woman's face all covered with blotches and pimples, you must not hesitate but tell them to use Spring Blossoms. DR. GREENE has successfully treated over 1,000 of the most difficult chronic (so called) incurable cases during a nine month's practice. The most of them had been the rounds of the leading physicians of Lancaster county. DR. GREENE is ready at any time to meet a committee of the Lancaster County Medical Society at the Opera House or elsewhere to discuss the merits of Omnipathy and prove its superiority over all other pathies in vogue. The people are greatly interested and demand the fullest investigation. Invalids are every week dying in this county whose lives could be saved. Is there any subject about which the masses are more concerned than restoration to health, and the prolonging of their lives?

Dr. G. originated and is now the owner of 29 Medical Pads. He especially warns the public against the numerous counterfeits now offered the people.

Dr. Greene does an exclusive office business. Patients who cannot call at his offices must send full description of afflictions. Hundreds of deaths have occurred here in nine mouths; only two in his practice.

A REMEDY WITHOUT A RIVAL for all diseases arising from Nervous Debility, Sexual Disorders, over Indulgence of Vicious Habits, as well as from the prostration of old age. Its curative properties in violent and chronic forms of the following diseases have been attested to by the most Eminent Physicians:

Dyspepsia, Self Abuse, Headache, Dizziness, Sexual Exhaustion, Spermatorrhosa, General Debility, Impotency, Premature Decay, &c.

It has been in use for over forty years, and is to-day the most popular remedy for the diseases above mentioned in the WORLD. It can be used without regard to diet, is pleasant in taste, and better than all, it is a sure, safe and certain cure. It is no quack medicine, but stands upon its own merits, as any trial wil amply demonstrate. Since 1836 this remedy has always been sold for a much larger price than that for which it is now sold; but owing to the act that the time for the payment of an enormous royalty upon its manufacture has expired, it is offered to the suffering of both sexes at one dollar per package, so as to be within the reach of all; at which price it will be sent to any address tree of further charge.
