Now for Your Ice Houses

ermantown Telegraph. There are very few farmers at the pres ent time, who conduct a mixed husbandry and are within reach of a metropolitan market, or of a station, who has not provided himself with an ice house of sufficien capacity to meet his wants throughout the year. He finds, too, that in providing himself with what was formerly considered an almost insuperable attainment, an ice house costs no more than many a good hog pen. We had one built ourselves twenty-five years ago, which cost about $500, and we could now provide a far superior one, for its actual value, for fifty dollars. Ornamentation is quite out of place on an ice house. It is not put in a conspicuous location to be admired and commented on for its architectural beauty, but where it will be quite out of sight, if possible, and where it can be easily approached to be filled, in a cold exposure, and where the drainage is perfect. In saying what we now do about the cheapness of an ice house, we do not wish to be understood that we approve of the many plans, or rather no plans, in which to keep ice throughout even the hotter portion of the summer. In fact there is a 'plan' now before us, appearing in a leading journal which undertakes weekly to furnish information and instruction to farmers and others on agrestic pursuits, of which we are very certain it possesses not a single practical idea. In regard to keeping ice, it recommends, as sufficient for an "ordinary family," merely the for-mation of a cubical body of ice of about eight feet, the "blocks to be cut as smooth as possible and square, so they will fit closely, and then ice must be chopped-up fine and crowded in between the pieces so as to make a solid mass," and so on, and a great deal more of it. This body must be covered-up with sawdust; but a large mass does not even require sawdust, "only straw or a double wall of boards," etc. This is to do everything; but try it and

Nevertheless, the cost of a house in which ice can be kept for say nine months in the year, is very trifling. A frame building of rough boards and timber, raised from eighteen to twenty-four inches from the ground, double-walled with boards at bottom and sides, from eight to ten inches apart and filled in with saw dust, is about all there is to do. The straw on the top in addition will answer as a substitute for a double roofing. The ice should be packed closely in blocks, of course, and on the completion of every layer the small pieces of blocks lying around—and if not enough the smaller, irregular blocks should be broken for the purpose—should be thrown over to fill up the crevices. The door or aperture of the house should be in parts, to slide down in a groove, one on top of the other, so that they can be taken out or put in as the process of filling or emptying may require. Ventilation is an important matter, and is perhaps best secured by allowing a strip of say three inches open around the whole building directly at the top of the "square." The water dripping from the in should be directly carried away from under the building.

From twenty-five to thirty two-horse loads of solid ice are sufficient to supply a good sized family for all it may need for every ordinary purpose. But if you follow the advice of the theorists who tell you that from four to six loads are enough you will not follow it more than once.

It Seems Impossible

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., should make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do, but when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Eoctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them yourself, and doubt no longer, See other column. INVESTIGATION!

DR. GREENE has successfully treated over 1,000 of the most difficult chronic (so called) incurable cases during a nine month's practice. The most of them had been the rounds of the leading physicians of Lancaster county. DR. GREENE is ready at any time to meet a committee of the Lancaster County Medical Society at the Opera House or elsewhere to discuss the merits of Omnipathy and prove its superiority over all other pathies in vogue.

The people are greatly interested and demand the fullest investigation. Invalids are every week dying in this county whose lives every week dying in this county whose lives could be saved. Is there any subject about which the masses are more concerned than restoration to licalth, and the prolonging of their lives?

Dr. G. originated and is now the owner of 29
Medical Pads. He especially warns the public against the numerous counterfeits now offered the people. Dr. Greene does an exclusive office business. Patients who cannot call at his offices must send full description of afflictions. Hundreds of deaths have occurred here in nine months only two in his practice.

DRY GOODS.

HOMER, COLLADAY & Co., 1412 and 1414 Chestnut St.

The general improvement in business the past year, with the prospect of a very large increased demand for all kinds of Dress Goods, induced all American buyers of Foreign Goods to place immense orders. This was universally the case, so much so that, perhaps without exaggeration, 50 per sent, more goods were imported than the country could possibly consume. As a consequence, there has been a great break in prices in a great many fabrics, which we shall that the country could possibly consume.

BROWNING'S C. & C. CORDIAL,

For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, HOARSENESS, TICKLING or DRYNESS, of the THROAT, SORE THROAT, COLD in the HEAD, CROUP, INFLU-ENZA, WHOOPING COUGH, COLD in the BOWELS, ASTHMATIC COUGHS, and RELIEF OF CONSUMPTIVES

Dr. BROWNING is a regular graduate of medicine, a skillful pharmacist, and a thorough chemist. His "C. & C." (Cough and Cold) Cordial is not the result of mere chance, but of long scientific research in chemistry and medicine, as is plainly seen by the rapidity of its action and its unparalleled efficacy. The expense in its manufacture is at least five times as great as that of any other medicine upon the market, and yet it is sold at the exceedingly low price of 50c.
