

THIRD EDITION. THURSDAY EVENING, DEC. 23, 1880.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Saturday next being pay day at the Susquehanna rolling mill, and the day being Christmas and a holiday, the employees will receive their pay for two weeks work on Friday morning and the mill will be closed on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Filbert will celebrate their silver wedding on Monday, December 27, and a reception will be given to the friends of the family.

The Frederick accommodation train came in yesterday afternoon forty minutes late.

Alfred C. Bruner has returned from his visit to Philadelphia.

The Fifth Street Presbyterian Sunday school will hold its Christmas services this evening in the Salome chapel Sunday school room.

Robert Clark died of pleurisy this morning, aged about 70 years.

The members of St. Paul's congregation were busy last evening tying greens to decorate their homes for the Christmas season.

At the stores this morning business was right lively after market hours.

Samuel Filbert to-day commences his contract of furnishing two thousand tons of ice to the Pennsylvania railroad company.

Yesterday afternoon while the telephone people were digging a hole at the corner of Second and Locust streets, the main gas pipe was struck with a bar and pierced and a quantity of gas escaped.

Had a lighted torch and a match struck, and the gas had been turned off, and now the pipe in the locality is secure.

While Henry Roy was unloading a wagon load of coal, this morning, his horse fell, and in getting up, he kicked the aforesaid Henry, who is somewhat hurt therefrom.

A break, which was at once repaired, occurred yesterday morning in the main water pipe on Walnut street, above Second. The cold water is possibly this cause.

A party of a dozen ladies and gentlemen took a trip last evening to Mount Joy, loaded in a big and rather clumsy-looking sleigh drawn by four horses.

The mercury was evidently on a still hunt last night, as a look at the thermometer at 7:30 o'clock this morning showed the mercurial point to be at but twelve degrees above zero.

Excepting, perhaps, the tobacco and cigar trade, the stores of the borough will be closed on Christmas day and we may report the same of the private and national banks.

The post office will be open only at the usual holiday hours. The usual Christmas services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal and the Catholic churches.

Any number of the trees commonly known as "Christmas" trees have lately been disposed of by our enterprising and enterprising business men.

Major Yocum, of the 5th, was busy this morning in putting up the banners, transparencies, and other decorations for the late campaign.

The telephone working force was this morning increased from ten to twelve men. Holes were dug to Fourth street yesterday and it is thought the telephone service will be restored to-day.

The exchange office fittings are expected here on every office.

The sleighing is becoming better than ever. The snow holds its own well and is thoroughly frozen.

We are informed that several of our enterprising young men will sweep the snow from the smooth ice in front of E. N. Smith's planing mill and provide a good place to skate. The end will justify the means.

ARGUMENT-COURT.

Judgments Entered—Orders Made, &c. In the case of John D. Huber, executor, vs. Jacob Sanders, administrator of Mary Sanders, his wife, with notice to Jacob Sanders terre tenant; judgment was entered in favor of the plaintiff for $53.25.

Frick & Co. vs. Ryan & Co. In this case, on motion of George Nauman, attorney for the plaintiff, the court granted the plaintiff leave to withdraw from the suit their claim upon the six car loads of coke first set forth in the copy.

Account filed of coke, as shipped in the month ending June 30, without prejudice to their right to proceed for the same in another action. Judgment was entered for $972.35, the amount admitted to be due on the remaining items.

Ann G. Berst's vs. Peter S. Berst defendant, and Peter S. Berst, executor of David Berst, deceased, garnishee, for $85.82. The sum admitted to be in his hands by his answers to interrogatories to be paid out of the fund.

Appointee Auditor. The court this morning appointed A. F. Shenck, esq., auditor to audit the accounts of the different county officers for the year 1880.

The Printing of Lists. In the matter of the printing of the argument and trial lists the court ordered the prothonotary to have the lists for the year 1881 printed for the year 1880 and to get it done as cheaply as possible.

When the court made this order, County Solicitor Fulton was in court and stated that he understood that the bills for printing these lists were entirely too large, and he stated that from what he could learn, the price would reach $1 a page. Mr. Fulton was entirely too high in his figures.

Of this fact Judge Livingston was aware, and he sharply told Mr. Fulton that this was something with which the county commissioners had nothing whatever to do, and the commissioners would have enough to do if they would attend to what concerned them.

The following account of St. Mary's fair, held at Mount Joy, Dec. 11, 18, for the benefit of St. Mary's chapel, erected last year by Father Kaul, of St. Anthony's, has been prepared by the latter, who acknowledges many thanks to all who kindly assisted the below stated receipts:

It was manufactured by Wm. B. Leument & Co., of Philadelphia, and is intended for making heavy steam forges.

The anvil block weighs ten tons and a half, and the hammer one and a quarter tons.

This morning a young man named Ealen Ferrer, residing on North Mulberry street, was employed by Bickler & Co.'s foundry, had the middle finger of his left hand torn off at the latter place by the mauler being caught between the box and frame work of a machine used for cleaning castings, upon which he had inadvertently rested his hand.

A Fool-Mouthed Woman.

is worse than a fool-mouthed man. But no one need be fool-mouthed if they will only use SOZODONT and rub it in well. Don't spray the brush and spoil the mouth, as some parents do with their children when they whitened the roof.

Special Notices. "Every man to his trade" is an old saying, and the more closely a person applies himself to any one subject the more proficient he becomes in his particular line.

The Popular Demand. So great has been the popular demand for the celebrated remedy Kidney-Wort, that it is having an immense sale from Maine to California.

New Jersey Wine. This wine for decades has long been in popular favor, but by no means intoxicating in its nature. We refer to Spear's Port Grape Wine, which has been introduced into the house and market of Lancaster, Pa.
