NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE SOUP FUND. Difficulty of Obtaining Port Wine. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE The mercury this morning was way down to within 9 degrees of the zero butions to the soup fund : point. We hope this is not the beginning of another blizzard.

Market this a. m. was fair. Prime butter brought 30 cents, eggs 28(0,30 cents. Rosenmiller, $1.

A tramp caused a great deal of trouble and excitement on Friday afternoon on Walnut street. He made several calls in the neighborhood, Mrs. George Fager receiving no less than four. He seemed C determined to stay and succeeded in thoroughly frightening the women. Constable Hollingsworth was finally sent for, Willow Street, three crocks of pudding and Mr. Tramp was very summarily disposed of.

The new market hour, 7 o'clock, scems to suit every one except one or two butch- Mis. By the new ordinance the market is not opened until 7 o'clock a. m., and butchers are now compelled to cut up their meat by their own gas or lamp light. We under-stand several of these butchers threaten not to attend market. Very well, let them stay at home : there are enough who will come to supply all the meat the citizens of Columbia will require.

The last of the union services which have been going on in the Protestant churches of the borough during this "week of prayer," will be held in the Bethel church this (Saturday) evening. Subject-"Prayer for Christian missions and the conversion of the world to Christ.' All the meetings have been well attended.

The late thaw and subsequent freeze had the effect of making splendid sleighing. The pavements, however, are not so good, some being clear of ice and snow. others are covered with a solid mass of shippery ice. An old lady named Flick, residing on South 4th street, beyond Young's brewery. slipped on the ice in the side yard at her house yesterday and falling down dislocated her wrist Dr. Hinkle attended her.

A coasting party is talked of for this several times been arrested for stealing evening. Should the party go out they will unquestionably have a very pleasant time, as the several hills near town are in prime coasting condition.

We regret to learn that Mr. L. K. Fondersmith, the gentlemanly teller at the banking house of E. K. Smith & Co., is to have been implicated in other larcenies confined to his room to-day. We trust his at this market house. indisposition may be of short duration.

The Spy current issue says a decline in butter and eggs is sure to occur. Well, that is a prediction that Columbians will be very glad to have verified. We are all livered. sick of paying 30 and 35 cents for butter and eggs, We hope to see both down to term of quarter sessions will commence. 25 cents, before many days. Brother and Sister Made Husband and Wife THURSDAY, JANUARY 13. History of the Decoption Practised by Maryland Farmer on His Unsuspect-ing Children. The Popular Comedian. Thomas Bowen, a wealthy resident of Calvert county, Md., has made application to Gov. Hamilton for a pardon from the State House of Correction, where he is In his original characterization of UNCLE DAN'L, serving a term of four years for a most astounding crime, the details of which are now given publicity for the first time. Bowen was convicted on the 12th of No-"A Messenger From Jarvis Section," vember last for having brought about a marriage between his daughter Ella and a young man, generally supposed to be a distant connection, but who has since proven to be a son of the accused. The marriage between the brother and sister was celebrated by Rev. Joseph P. Wilson, of the Methodist church, at Prince Frederick, Calvert county, where the parties resided, on September 18, 1879, when Mr. Bowen gave the bride away and accorded the young couple his parental blessing. The groom, who went by the name of Enoch Walters, had been adopted by Mr. Bowen and was very popular in the stated, the elder Bowen was tried, convicted and sentenced in the Calvert county circuit court last November, but the case escaped public notice at that time.

The unfortunate brother and sister at once separated when their true relation was made known to them, and have taken steps to have the marriage formally declared void. Both are terribly prostrated by the shocking discovery. Bowen's ap-plication for pardon, based on a plea of ill health, has aroused a storm of indignation in Calvert county, and it is not probable that it will be granted. He owns a large farm near Prince Frederick. and was a class leader in the Methodist church at that place.

The principal topic of conversation on the street this morning is the conflict of at Fulton opera house, and our people have authority between the city councils and the city treasurer, and many are the opin- admiration of fine art in music than will be ions as to what will be the outcome of it. Bets are offered that the pro ten. Treasurer W.S.Shirk, appointed by councils last night, will not get possession, and that if he attempts to do so before the court shall have passed upon the injunction restraining the finance committee from interfering with Treasurer Welchans, he and all his aiders and abettors will be arrested by the sheriff. Opinion appears to be a good deal divided as to the position taken by the treasurer and his counsel : some who believe that the treasurer's accounts will pan out all right, think it would have been better if he had " verified " his accounts in accordance with the demand of the finance committee; while others denounce the committee in unmeasured terms for their arbitrary proceedings and charge that they have perjured themselves in swearing that the treasurer is a defaulter, before they have had an opportuuity of verifying his accounts. So far as our observation has extended public sympathy is decidedly with the treasurer, who meanwhile "holds the fort," and though evidently annoyed at the predicament in which he finds himself, continues to receive and pay out the city funds, and declares himself able to satisfactorily account for every dollar of the public money that has come into his possession, and to pay the same over to his legal successor. Not a few of his friends of both parties, who have faith in his official integrity, have urged him to announce himself as a candidate for re election, and thus secure vindication at the hands of the public ; but he says he would not hold the office another year and undergo the persecution he has been subjected to for thrice the salary he receives.

At the trial it was proven that Walters's real name was Enoch Bowen, and that he was the son of Thomas Bowen by It appears that the elder Bowen, about twenty-five years ago, seduced a girl in the neighborhood and subsequently married her just before her baby was born. The mother died and Bowen adopted the infant as a child of an old friend. The boy baby was named Walters and grew up in the family where he was of course in constant contact with Miss Bowen, resulting in a warm affection springing up between them. When Walters first proposed the marriage Bowen objected, but subsejust.
