The Smaller Boy Took the Cue. A jolly clergyman in Rondout, New York, has two sons, both bright, obedient and well trained lads, but mischievous and fun loving, as boys can be. It is the custom of the father to have his boys learn a verse of scripture every day and recite it each morning. In accordance with this custom, a few days since the lads were called upon by their father to repeat their verses for the day. It happened to be a time when the skating was good, a sport of which all active boys are devotees, and the boys naturally burned with eager desire to be off to the frozen field. But discipline must be maintained, as they well knew, and there was no escape from the daily scripture recitation. The elder of the boys had learned his text and was ready for the ordeal, and when asked to repeat it promptly replied : "I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wicked " and he "slid out" happy at his release. The younger lad had quite forgotten to learn his text, but his wit came to his rescue. "So would I, father," he shouted, and off he ran to join his brerher. LANCASTER HOUSEHOLD MARKET. DAIRY.

Properties Nos. 244, 216 and 250 North Arch alley, atoresaid, to be sold separately, each fronting on said alley 12 ft. 8 in., more or less, and extending in depth 100 feet, more or less, to the aforesaid 10 feet wide common alley. No. 259 lying on the north and alongside that part of the said 10 feet wide common alley, between Nos. 218 and 250 of the said properties, fronting on said Arch a'ley and intersecting that part of said 10 feet wide common alley, running north and south the terms of all these properties and

Arch a'ley and intersecting that part of said 10 feet wide common alley, running north and south in the rear of all these properties and those situated on North Mulberry street, before mentioned and described.

Purpart No. 12. Property No. 252 North-Arch alley, fronting on said alley 15 ft. 8 in., more or less, including an open space of three feet, more or less, on the north side, and extending in depth 100 feet, more or less, to the aforesaid 19 feet wide common alley, running north and south; the improvements are a TWO-STORY BRICK HOUSE, with one-story Frame attachment and a good Bake Oven. The 10 feet wide common alley mentioned, runs north and south, and also cast and west, opening out on Arch alley between Nos. 248 and 250, and is south, and also east and west, opening out on Arch alley between Nos. 218 and 230, and is common to all of these purparts, both the Mulberry street and the Arch alley properties. All these houses are comparatively new, except purparts Nos. I and 2, and are situated in one of the finest and most thriving parts of the situation o the city, convenient to schools, and especially to the high school, being only about 1½ squares from the latter. The houses on Arch alley are finely located and afford homes within the reach of any laboring man or mecnanic, far more desirable than almost any other part of the city being squally near to all the city. of the city, being equally near to all the active business of the railroad, tobacco warehouses and manufacturing piaces. The houses on Mulberry street, excepting Nos. 1 and 2, are larger and more valuable, and for location and ty in the city.

Any person wishing to see the properties before the day of sale, will call on W. C. Pyle, one of the heirs, occupying No. 243. Sale to commence at 7 o'clock p. m., when attendance
