IN THE HOUSE. In the House Mr. Blackburn offered a resolution reciting that charges of misuse of the mails by congressmen having been made, a select committee of five be appointed to examine into the subject. The resolution was adopted, and the House at 12:35 went into committee on the Indian appropriation bill.

A NEW MOVIE. The Opposition to Governor. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.—A petition has been filed in the clerk's office of the United States circuit court here, and will be presented to Judge McKenna in Pittsburgh to-day, asking that the permission granted the receivers of the Philadelphia & Reading railroad to issue deferred income bonds be set aside.

THE NATIONAL MEDICANT. Logan Pushing his Bill to Place Grant on the Retired List. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—At a meeting of the Senate committee on military affairs this morning, Senator Logan called up the bill introduced by him, and referred to the committee yesterday to place General Grant upon the retired list with the rank and full pay of general of the army, and authorizing the president to assign him to active duty in case of emergency. Senator Logan and his Republican colleagues argued immediate favorable action upon the measure, and after a warm discussion it was determined by a majority vote to postpone its further consideration until the next weekly meeting.

STRIKING ICE CUTTERS. Objection to a Reduction of Wages. BALTIMORE, Jan. 11.—About 900 men employed by Cochran & Co., Oyster & Co., of this city, and other firms, employed in cutting ice on the Susquehanna at Havre de Grace, struck this morning because one of the firms decided not to pay more than $1.25 per day, the men having heretofore received $1.50. Cochran's men were the first to strike, and soon succeeded in getting others to join. The ice is ten inches thick and free of snow.

THE WORLD'S FAIR. Concerning the Proposed Exhibition in New York. NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The world's fair commission reassembled to-day at the city hall. The consideration of the report of executive committee was resumed. The section recommending the application to Congress for additional financial assistance was adopted; as was also the section requesting Congress to admit foreign goods free of duty, constituting the exhibition building a bonded warehouse.

FOUND DEAD AFTER A BIG DREAM. NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—A man who registered himself as David Boyd at the Compton house in Third avenue, Saturday night last, was found dead in his room this morning. The hotel people say he was so drunk last night that he had to be carried to his room. He was about seventy years of age. From letters in his pockets his name is supposed to be William Hodgkinson.

THE BUZZARDS. A Letter From Mart—A Buzzard Under the Bed. It seems that in the capture of the Buzzards of near Ephrata last Saturday, Joe, the younger of the Buzzards, who is only twenty years of age, was secured without any trouble at his home on the mountain, and Abe Buzzard was found on the mountain in the company of his wife. He himself occupied the bed, and in answer to inquiries by the officers stated that he had not seen Buzzard for several days.

A Letter From Mart. Meanwhile, Martin Buzzard, and a brother to the above, as he signs himself, who has served some terms in jail, but who has now turned "reformer," writes a long letter to the INTELLIGENCER, dated Salisbury January 10, which he asks us to "fix up" for the purpose of bringing to the public in regard to the few yet remaining of the Welsh mountain gang, who are at large, and who, he says, are the most desperate of the lawless, and most unscrupulous.
