COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE The B. Macauley combination presented last evening for the second time in Columbia, "A Messenger from Jarvis Section," and gave the same satisfaction to their large audience that was given on the first rendition of the comedy at this place. Macauley himself was better than ever, while Skinney Smith, Keppler, Mrs. Mc Glone and Clip each at least sustained the favorable impression they made on their former appearance. Mr. Joseph J Dowling, as Sandy Mitchell, the "boss" villain, is a decided improvement in his role and acquitted himself very creditably indeed. The support was good.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Susquehanna iron company, beld yesterday, a dividend of two per cent. was declared. The following directors were elected: Michael Schall, William Patton, Robert Crane, John Paine, Thomas Edwards, Audrew Garber and Vernon Ellis. Michael Schall was elected president. The secretary and treasurer will be elected at an adjourned meeting.

"Hard Times" Russell has given bail to make his appearance before Justice Evans on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, to an swer the charge of surreptitiously obtaining a wagon load of coal (not hay) from a a school house in Manor township.

The telephone exchange was put to work for the first time last evening, and its trial service gave entire satisfaction. As yet only three connections have been made with the central office. They are the Columbia national and First national banks and Hiram Wilson's hardware store. The other connections will be made as fast as the wires are stretched. A few days more will see all the Columbia members of the exchange in communication, and after that the out of-town members will be taken in as their places are reached. The wire stretching is still going on rapidly.

A break in the main water pipe occurred yesterday in Walnut street, above Second. At a meeting of the officers and teachers of the Presbyterian Sunday school, held last evening. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term of one year :

ness. He is able to sit up to-day.

No. 3 of Our Parish Life, edited and published by Rev. Richard C. Searing, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, has been given to the public. It contains in formation for church people, which, to the Episcopalians, will be found especially valuable. The sheet is neat looking, clean typographically, and the arrangement of e matter with the editing of the paper, has been given careful attention. With encouragement the paper will be en-

The Pennsylvania railroad pay car, we are informed, will be here to-morrow. We were shown, this morning, a copy of the Lancaster Intelligencer and Jour-NAL, dated May 25th, 1841, and "printed and published by John W. Forney." The paper is in the possession of Justice Evans and is well preserved. The squire has also a paper published in 1809-we have forgotten its name. A boy coasting on Locust street last evening, was only saved from going under a moving freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad by striking the wheel of a car with his sled. At Second and Locust streets, the same evening, the Adams express wagon, employed here, came near running over a couple of boys as they shot past on their sleds. Some one will be killed some of these days and then the ordinance prohibiting coasting will be en-

We are informed that the large collection of Indian relics belonging to the late Prof. S. S. Haldeman, of Chickies, are being sent to the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia. It is said that seventeen boxes were sent there yesterday and a number of boxes the day before. The professor had an immense collection of these curiosities and they will be an acquisition to the institution to which they are being shipped. The bones of the whale, recently shipped from Boston to Chicago, passed through here to the east a day or two ago. The mercury was down to twenty de

Strachan's Benefit. The friends of James E. Strachan mus not forget that the complimentary enter-tainment for his benefit takes place in Fulton opera house on Monday evening next. The programme for the occasion is varied and entertaining, and apart from the excellence of the performance, Mr. Strachan has personal claims on the public that should not be disregarded. He is a disabled soldier and not long since was stricken with partial paralysis and rendered almost blind, and is therefore entirely unable to follow his usual occupation. Let him have an overflowing house on Monday

Heard on a Writ. On Monday Horace Reynolds, colored, was committed to prison for 20 days by Mayor MacGonigle for being drunk and disorderly. This morning he was taken before Judge Patterson on a writ of habeas corpus and his sentence was reduced so that he will get out of jail on next Monday, in time to go to work at a job which he has received. He claims to have never been in jail before.

Last evening the Merry Twelve, consisting of six ladies and six gentlemen, headed by S. T. Hookey and Miss Ida Wettig, went to the residence of W. M. Campbell, Columbia avenue, to spend the evening, and congratulate the newly married couple, II. L. Frailey and wife, who reside there. The evening was spent very pleasantly and a good time was had by all

Death of Mrs. Annie E. Mann. Annie E. Mann, relict of the Barnherd Mann (farmer), died last evening about 7 o'clock at her late residence in Manor township. Mrs. Mann suffered from total blindness for the past thirteen years, but otherwise enjoyed comparatively good health until the evening of the 1st of January, when she was stricken with paralysis. She leaves three sons, four daughters and hosts of friends to mourn her loss. Her funeral will take place from her late residence on Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m. Interment at " Manor emetery," the resting place of her husband, who died nine months ago.

Death of Mrs. Abrahm Landis. Mrs. Abraham Landis, residing in Lancaster township, near the city water works, died this morning after an illness of only six days. Mrs. Landis was an estimable woman widely known.

Death of Mrs. Susan Hinkle. Mrs. Susan Hinkle, relict of the late George Hinkle, died this morning about 1 clock, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Adams, No. 29 South Prince street. Mrs Hinkle was about 68 years of age and had been for years a sufferer from pulmonary consumption. She leaves a large family to mourn her loss. Her funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

Death of Jacob Web. Our mortuary column to-day records the death of Jacob Weh, residing in Bachman's Lane, in rear of College avenue. Mr. Weh during his life pursued the occupation of farming in which he was quite successful, and by his industry and frugality, acquired a substantial competency. At the ripe old age of 75 he has laid down the burden of life, leaving behind him a name universally respected.

THE BUZZARD GANG. Ike Buzzard and W. W. Weider in Jail.

This morning about 3 o'clock Constable John R. Shirk, of Ephrata, delivered at the county jail Isaac Buzzard and W. W Weider, two of the most desperate and dangerous men in the Welsh mountain gang of thieves, and who escaped arrest a few days ago when some of their compauions in crime were captured. It appears that last evening between 9 and 10 o'clock Buzzard and Weider were seen to jump off freight train at Ephrata. Mr. Shirk and A. R. Bitzer at once called upon Squire Seltzer and obtained warrants for their arrest. A party consisting of John S. Shirk, A. R. Bitzer, Francis Coover, Wm. Owens and Thomas Bingaman, was organ ized to capture them. They were tracked through the snow to the house of David mountain. The premises were surrounded and Shirk and Bitzer entered the house and made the arrest, took the prisoner before Justice Seltzer, whose commitments were made out, and brought them to Lancaster, lodging them in jail for trial for various larcenies and burglaries. Great credit is due Mr. Shirk for bringing this gang of desperadoes to justice.

Exciting Runaway. Between 1 and 2 o'clock this afternoon workorses, hitched to a sleigh and belonging to Mrs. Mary Dunn, of 219 East King depot. They were in charge of Jack Conner, Mrs. Dunn's driver, and when a train came in they frightened and started to run. Conner attempted to be the conner at the conner attempted to be the conner attempted t run. Conner attempted to hold them, but the yoke suddenly broke and he was unable to do so. They ran down North Queen street at a furious rate, passing a street car and several teams, and Conner was thrown out, but not injured. The horses continued their flight to Centre square, where they passed around the monument and ran down South Queen street. They turned into Vine street and soon got on the pavement, on which they ran to Prince street, when they turned and were caught by a colored boy a few doors north of the corner. The sleigh was dashed against the tree boxes along the pavement and the dasher, back, tongue and one runner were badly broken. The horses kept upon their feet during the whole of the run and neither of them was seriously injured. Both received slight scratches however.

George Wells, a well-known colored man of this city, died at the residence of Henry Brady, West Mifflin street, last evening aged about 70 years. He was a blacksmith by trade and followed the business many years in Sadsbury township. During the war he became quite a successful "substitute broker," and furnished a large number of recruits to the army. For several years past he resided in this city, and was for some time proprieter of the Sumner house, on Middle street. He leaves traordinary effect in all disorders of the Throat a family of grown-up chi'dren, one of whom is the wife of Morris Lebar.

When the ceroner heard of the death he resolved to hold an inquest. He empanerled a jury and a post mortem of the body was made by Drs. Foreman and Raub. The evidence before the jury showed that Wells had a hemorrhage on Monday. He recovered from that and was believed to be out of danger, although he was not out of bed. Yesterday morning he was again taken ill and died in the evening. The jury rendered a verdict of death from congestion of the lungs."

Shooting Match. Yesterday a shooting match was held at Fleming's hotel in Neffsville. The attendance was very large, there being a great many persons present from this city. Fifteen gentleman participated in the match. Dr. J. B. McCaskey and David Reese, of this city, each killed seven straight birds, and they divided the first prize. John Cline, of this city, and Horace Shelly of Lititz, each klled six birds out of seven, and they divided the second prize. The match was one of the best that has been held in this county for some time, and a great deal of interest was manifested in it by the spectators. The number of outside shooters, or "skirmirshes," was very large, and the birds that escaped being hit by those engaged in the match did not get away far before some one in the crowd hit them.

The Lycoming Insurance Company. Yesterday E. D. North, esq., solicitor for the Lycoming fire insurance company, issued executions against fourteen policy holders of the company, residing in this city, because of their neglect or refusal to pay over certain assessments made upon them to meet losses incurred by the company. As all of the parties have waived inquisition, and as Monday next is the sheriff's "return day," the assessments must be immediately paid or the property of the insured will be levied on to meet the claims. The assessments range in amount from $7 to $100, and there is no end of growling at the management of the o clock.

company on the part of the victims. A Boy Elas His Leg Broker This afternoon Harry Kiphorn, aged about 10 years, son of John Kiphorn, of Lafayette street, had his leg broken while coasting on Dinah's hill on West Vine street. The boy was riding down the hill on a little sled when he was struck by a large sled which was filled with boys. The leg was broken near the hip. After the accident the injured boy was taken by his vited to attend the funeral from her late resicompanions to the office of Dr. Hess.

" Uncle Dan't" To-night .- Mr. E. A. Locke's wholesome comedy of "A Messenger from Jarvis Section" will be produced at the opera house this evening, with the favorite actor Mr. B. Macauley in his great role of Uncle Dan'l. There is an abundance of delightful humor combined with dramatic situations and a well-defined and interesting story running through this piece, and Mr. Macauley's former appearances here have won for him a popular favor that is likely to be again mani-fested this evening in a large audience.

"My Pariner."-On Saturday night the Ald rich and Parsloe combination will present Bartley Campbeli's picturesque drama of "My Partner," The newspapers of the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago and St. Louis unite in pronouncing it one of the ablest of recent dramatic productions, and ;its uccess has everywhere been positive. Beside the names of Messrs. Louis Aldrich and Chas. T. Parsice, who head the bill, Messrs. Frank Mordaunt and Waiter Lenox, Miss Dora Goldthwaite and others scarcely less invorably known fill out a cast of great strength.

Art Entertainment Admission to the matinee for the schools of aturday afternoon at the court house will be ten cents to pupils who present the tickets that have been distributed to them. The general admission is twenty-five cents. Pupils should therefore preserve these tickets.

Coughs.
"Brown's Bronchial Troches" are used with advantage to alleviate Coughs, Sore Throat, Hourseness and Bronchial Affections. For thirty years these Troches have been in use, with annually increasing favor. They are not new and untried, but, having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age.

The Throat. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" act directly on the organs of the voice. They have an exand Larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. Speakers and Singers find the Troches

Difficulty of Obtaining Port Wine. The difficulty of obtaining a pure Port Wine for sickness is one great cause why physicians would benefit their patient, because they fea that some poisonous mixture will be given them instead of Port Wine, and the injury be bly mixed and adulterated with alcohol and water and other ingredients to make it cheap, so as to bring a greater profit from the sales. The most excellent and finest Port Wine is made in New Jersey, from the Oporto Grape by Alfred Speer, and has become the most re-liable wine for Hospital and Communion pur-poses. This Wine has been thoroughly ana-lyzed, and is pronounced by chemists to be the pure juice of the grape, and to contain the most valuable medicinal properties. It is sold by druggists, who purchase direct from Mr. Speer's Vineyards in New Jersey.—Evening

The dinner was served with sumptuous liberality in Mr. Childs's residence, and after the cloth was removed and the health of General Patterson had been proposed by Colonel Snowden in a most appropriate speech, letters of regret were read from General Hancock, Thurlow Weed, Peter Cooper, Goldwin Smith and Gen. U.S. Grant. the last of whom expressed his determination to be present at the celebration of General Patterson's hundredth birthday.

An admirable speech, full of the most interesting reminiscences of enterprise and sickness, as follows: "Sea-sickness is a very unpleasant dis ease. The first case of sea.sickness that we read of is that of Jonah in the whale's belly, which made it so unpleasant for the whale that he cast Jonah up on to an exceeding high mountain .- (See Bible, book

"The best way to get sea-sick is to take a passage on a German steamer fron New York to England, as they fry the beefsteak with onions, and most of the passengers dine off of Limburger cheese. "Sea-sickness may be likened to a game of poker: When a man raises, it goes into the pot, though a sec-sick man often throws up something other than his hand.

"Sea sickness is not considered conta gious, unless one only of a party is af-fected by it, in which case he usually catches it from the others. Nor is it thought to be dangerous, except to those in the immediate vicinity of one who may have at the moment a violent attack of the disease. Atithis point the patient's stomach buckles, and the remainder of his body caves in.
