At this distance there seems to be a very fortunate deliverance for the Democrats of Tennessee and of the whole country from the sharp senatorial struggle in that state, which threatened to wreck the party there and to impair its strength at Washington.

Mr. DON CAMERON is about to make the Greatest Effort of his life. He needs to. Hayes yesterday appointed BEVELLY TUCKER, of Virginia, a commissioner of the world's fair in New York in 1883.

SENATORS FAIR, of Nevada; Jones, of Florida, and Sewell, of New Jersey, are all from the Emerald Isle. Oliver is also an Irishman born.

GENERAL CLINSMAN, of North Carolina, says living is so cheap in that state that it is more economical to feed a man than to bury him.

SOMEBODY asked how "Endymion," the name of Beaufield's new novel, is pronounced, and a witty editor answered: "It is pronounced a failure."

Mr. Francis Collier, fifty years old and well known in Lancaster, Pa., was fatally wounded by falling with a kerosene lamp in her hands.

Five lawyers out of 35 members of the bar of Harrisonburg, Virginia, have died within a short time.

About a year ago Mr. Chisholm, a wealthy Cleveland man, gave a reporter a thumping with his cane.

A report has been received from Singapore that a local trading steamer has capsized. Seventy bodies have been recovered.

A man named Sterling was hanged in Youngstown, Ohio, in 1877, for the murder of a young girl.

Small-pox has broken out in Fort Madison (Iowa) penitentiary creating great excitement and panic.

At a joint meeting of the San Francisco board of trade and the chamber of commerce a resolution was adopted requesting the Legislature to urge Congress to grant the application of the Nicaragua canal company for a charter.

H. Baucher, a fisherman, returned to his home in New Orleans, yesterday, after a year's absence and found his wife lying on the floor, choked to death, and the house robbed.

The score in the walking match in New York at midnight last night stood: Hughes 325, Howard 305, Krohn 301, Albee 301, Van 300, Cox 299, Curran 278, Phillips 276, Campans 255, and Loucous 242.

John Conrad, of Corydon, Ind., deposited $900 in coin and $1,200 in United States notes in New Albany bank the other day, having just unlearned the money from a trunk which he had buried in the ground during the raid of the guerrillas.

General Skobelev telegraphs from Gork Tep, on the 24th inst., announcing that the Russians on that day captured Gork Tep and Denzil Tep, after seven hours of desperate fighting.

Alphonse Montamat fashioned an old plantation negro at a personated New Orleans masquerade party. He sang one verse of the current, "O, Dem Golden Slippers," that was playing the piano accompaniment, and was about to begin the second, when he fell dead on the merry-makers.

It is reported in Chicago that the old and well-known wholesale and retail dry goods firm of Field, Leiter & Co., of that city, is about to be dissolved.

In the Baltimore American recently was published an article declaring that a ghost would inhabit a house at the corner of Huntington and North streets in that city.

HENRY WARD BEECHER says his step-mother's praying had no more effect upon him than a snow flake on a slate roof.

GLIMPSE of a future event: An immense ship carrying the Washington monument from the United States, then an ancient and abandoned country, to the grand republic of Africa, to be set up in the big square in the city of Timbuctoo.

THE Boston Herald defines "Hop Scotch" as it is a temperance beverage invented in Scotland and highly commended by such eminent temperance advocates as Christopher North, the Ettrick Shepherd, and Timothy Tackler.

THEODORE PARKER is said to have been the first Protestant minister to welcome flowers upon his pulpit.

LORD BEACONSFIELD is described as "sitting in the House of Lords looking fearfully old and haggard."

It was quite charming to hear that Grant's Philadelphia friends raised $100,000 for him, and the Quaker City papers were felicitating themselves that their townsmen did the thing so neatly and quietly without the vulgar ostentation of the New York donation.

COLD WINTERS.

The winter of 1779-80 was as the present one did, and before the slight moderate snow, resulting in Hartford, Va., of the elder residents, whose fathers and mothers had told them many tales of that terrible winter, were speculating as to whether the present one would resemble it in other respects.

In 1779-80 the cold bar of Harrisonburg, Virginia, have died within a short time. Most of the deceased were young men, and succumbed after short illness.

TENNESSEE'S NEW SENATOR.

Howell E. Jackson, a Democrat, Elected With the Help of Republican Votes.

Howell E. Jackson, State-Credit Democrat, was elected to the Senate in Tennessee, on the 25th inst., by a ballot for senator voted: Jackson, 70; Maynard, 25; Rose, 1. As soon as Jackson was declared elected he was lifted out of his seat by friends and escorted to the station, where he said that he would do whatever lay in his power to ally sectional animosity and bring prosperity to the country.

The State Credit Democrats, fearing Maynard's election, had agreed to support a Low-Tax Democrat of insignificant position and attainments, and he had votes enough to elect him.

The Tennessee Democrats, being thus forced into the position of voting for a Low-Tax demagogue against a man like Jackson abandoned their candidate, and Jackson was elected by an overwhelming majority.

A REMARKABLE FAMILY.

We saw in a recent Juniata county paper, says the Lewisport Gazette, a parson and his wife, account of the Myers family, copied from an old paper, and have obtained from one of the younger particulars of this somewhat remarkable people.

George Myers and Rebecca, his wife, were the parents of 15 children, six sons and five daughters. Their original home was near Barville, Lancaster county, Pa., where they started in life together about 75 years ago, and where all of their children were born.
