COLUMBIA NEWS

OUR REGULAR CORKESPONDENCE It is too cold for the skaters and nonare to be seen. Market this morning was just so so. The supply met the demand.

Miss Mattie Conard, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting here, left for her home to-day.

The report circulated that the Citizens hand would disband is incorrect. The band "tooted" very nicely last evening. There was a horse in Wagner's stable this morning standing more than six feet high. It attracted a crowd. While David Jones, an employee at Samuel Filbert's ice house, was climbing up a ladder this morning, he fell to the ground and had three ribs broken. It is thought he sustained no further injury. High Constable Strawbridge reports no "bums" in the lock-up last night. He says it was the first time the cell was entirely empty since the last meeting of The mercury at eight o'clock this morning registered twelve degrees above zero.

There has been but little of a "come up Snelbaker's Majestic Consolidation will appear in the opera house on Saturday evening next. The entertainment will be of a variety nature. The press of different cities speaks highly of the production, and no doubt the "show" will be an acceptable one. The Workers' association of the Reformed church will give an entertainment in the church lecture room this evening for the benefit of the church. The exercise will be of the usual character, and during the evening refreshments will be served. A telegraph pole dropped from a car on an east bound freight train, last night, at a point this side of Dillerville. Engine No. 295 running west a few minutes after midnight, struck the pole, which was lying on the north main track and five cars were thrown from the track. Another freight train, east bound, was passing at the time and the end of the pole flying up was forced through the caboose of the latter train, injuring a flagman from Harrisburg whose name we could not learn. The wreck has been cleared up.

While coasting, last evening, on Peart's hill, near the Shawnee furnace, the two sons of Mrs. John Wagner, residing at Third and Locust streets, were injured by their sled colliding with a fence at the bottom of the hill. The sled was going so fast that they were unable to stop it. One of the boys had his ankle sprained and the other a leg broken above the knee. They were brought to their home and the injuries attended to. The boy with the broken leg, it is said, bore the pain as a veteran soldier would, and while being carried up stairs at his home, suffered not a murmur to escape him, notwithstanding his pain was intense. Both of the boys are doing well. It is understood that the incumbent, C. Strawbridge, will be antagonized for the office of clerk of the market when the annual election to fill the office takes place in the borough council. As there is a Republican majority in council it will be seen that the new aspirant must be a Republicitime in the settlement of his liabilities as can to have any show. As council now stands Mr. Strawbridge would be retained in his office by a council now the plaintiffs objected to in his office by a vote within one of being unanimous and to defeat him it will be necessary to elect four anti-Strawbridge Republican councilmen at the next primary election. To this end the aspirant and several friends are now hard at work to secure a working majority. Unfortunately they are compelled to work quietly, as, in the event of the Strawbridge men getting wind of what is going ou, a certain candidate for the office of justice of the peace, in the First ward, who, it is to the interest of the clique to nominate and elect, would have an up-hill fight of it, with strong chances in favor of defeat. Just how to work their cards to insure the election of their man for squire, and at the same time capture the four vacancies in council, is a question which they are not over-sanguine of solving, and one which, if they persist in trying it, will eitheir rout them horse, foot and dragoon, or give them absolute control of every thing worth controlling in the borough.

Shaving on Sunday.

Our opinion of the matter is that they will never be able to defeat Mr. Strawbridge, but on the contrary, will precipitate their justice of the peace friend so deep in the mire that he will never get

A member of the Barbers' association informs us that it is a mistake to say the jours are more averse to working on Sunday than the bosses are to keeping their saloons open. The association is composed of almost an equal number of jours and employers, and it was the association as a whole that ordered the prosecution of Mr. Henry Wolf for shaving on Sunday.

This morning Alderman Donnelly rendered a decision in the Wolf case, giving judgment against him for the sum named in the law as a penalty for its violation. Mr. Wolf, in return for the prosecution brought against him, has made complaint against Christian Liller for keeping his shop open after 12 o'clock Saturday night.

Before Judge Patterson. Com'th of Pennsylvania, for the use of W. D. Weaver, A. M. Frantz, et. al. vs. forty years ago. David G. Steacy, Morris Cooper, Peter Piekel and Samuel A. Higgins. In 1871, W. F. Pickel and wife, residing in Bart township, made an assignment and appointed David G. Steacy the assignee. Steacy gave bond in the sum of $14,000, which sum was twice the amount of the inventory of the estate, and the other named | tal, 52. defendants became his sureties for the faithful performance of his duty in compliance with the act of Assembly. Steacy sold the estate of the assignor and then filed his account. Auditors to distribute were appointed, who, after having had the report, in 1872, referred back for certain amendments to the account, finally in 1878, reported that they found in the hands of the assignee the sum of $2,594.87, which they proceeded to distribute among the plaintiffs entitled thereto. This sum the plaintiffs now claim has never been paid over by Steacy. This suit is, therefore. brought against Steacy and his sureties to recover the amount. The deed of assignment, bond of the assignee, the assignee's account and the auditor's final report were offered and admitted in evidence. D. G. Steacy was called and testified that since the final report of the auditors, he has paid to none of the creditors the amounts distributed to them.

At the close of the plaintiff's testimony the defense proposed to show that at the time the first report was made by the auditors Steacy was solvent and in good circumstances, in addition to being entitled to a share of $4,600 in his deceased father's estate; by the litigation of some of the plaintiff's creditors and their present eventual indulgence to Steacy, they waived their right to recover from his sureties who cannot now be held liable, as they were never notified of this extension of

The plaintiffs objected to this, as they contended that as the sureties of Steacy had not taken exceptions to the report of the final distribution of the auditors, on which the decree by the confirmation of the court had gone before the world, and that their only defense could now be that they have paid the money.

The argument of the counsel had not oncluded when court adjourned. This afternoon the court refused to admit the testimony of the defense, and the jury were instructed to find in favor of the plaintiffs for the penalty of the bond, viz: $14,416.44, and to assess the damages in rendered by the jury.

Jurors Discharged. All the jurors who were not sworn in the two above cases were discharged, as there are no other cases for trial during

RECEPTION OF A PASTOR.

Love Feast at the Moravian Church, A very large congregation assembled in the lecture room of the Moravian church last evening to extend a welcome to Rev. J. Max Hark, their newly installed pastor, and his family, whose arrival in this city has been before noticed in these columns. Rev. J. C. Hume, of the Presbyterian mission church, acted as pastor ad interin and made a brief address of welcome, after which a hymn was

Dr. M.W. Raub, on behalf of the church, then made a formal address of welcome to the new pastor and his family. Rev. Hark feelingly responded, thanking the congregation for the warm welcome extended and expressing agreeable surprise at the many comfortable additions made to the parsonage. He said he had long felt a desire to take charge of the church in this city, but until now obstacles of one kind or other had prevented, it. He hoped it was God's will that had directed his steps to this city and that his pastorate would result in the good of the church and the advancement of the cause of the

Then followed an old fashioned love feast, cakes and coffee being handed around by a committee of young folks appointed for the purpose, to every person in the room. During the distribution of the cakes and coffee an appropriate hymn was sung. After a brief address by Rev. Hume, in which he dwelt upon the duties the congregation owe to the pastor, Rev. Hark and his wife and other members of his family received a personal introduction to each member of the congregation. There was a general handshaking and mutual congratulations among members of the church that they secured the services of a pastor so able and so devoted to the interest of religion.

" Bummers' Hall." A boarder recently discharged from this department of county jail says there has recently been a great reform in the management. The hall contains at present from flfty to sixty inmates. Although it is dirty it is not half so dirty as it used to be, and the inmates, who used to be put on short commons are now well fed. Each one is furnished with about a pound of bread in the morning and as much good coffee as they want to drink. For dinner they are allowed about one-third of a pound of meat and as much soup as they wantthe soups being of different kinds. For supper they get an abundance of mush, and at night they repose on the soft side of a plank. There are less comfortable places this cold weather than Bummers' Hall. Brandy as a Medicine The following article was voluntarily sent to

Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice It is commended to the attention of those at Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be nsed as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely phlanthropic notive we pre sent to the favorable notice of invalids—espesent to the tayorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their fils and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preterence over all other Brandics. no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are wanded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He are the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.

Burned to Death PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 27. - The barn of Benj. Falmy was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. A Portuguese servant who was sleeping in the barn was fatally burned. The loss on the property destroyed is between $10,000 and $15,000.

Guarding Against Feelan Disturbances. SHEFFIELD, Jan. 27 .- Owing to the advent of some two hundred strangers, supposed to be Fenians, into this town, precautions have been taken against popular disturbances.

PHILADELPHIA DEMOCRATS.

They Make Nominations For Municipal PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—The Democrats made the following nominations for city officers this morning: For mayor, Samuel G. King; City Solicitor, Edward R. Worrell. Mr. King has already given notice of his declination of the nomination unless John Hunter is endorsed by the party for receiver of taxes.

For receiver of taxes, William V. Me-Grath was nominated. The adherents of John Hunter then bolted the convention and there was great excitement.

THE CONTEST IN PENNSYLVANIA. Why Not Take the Republican Wolfe for Senator Harrisburg Correspondence N. Y. Sun. It no longer seems likely that the Democratic members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania are going to assist Mr. Cameron to elect a senator. Thus far nobody having a vote to give-except a patriot from Allegheny, whose seat is contested -has offered to be responsible for the scheme, and there is no evidence that Mr. Randall or Mr. Wallace has ever given it the slightest countenance. It is difficult to see what interest Senator Wallace could have in it. With Mr. Randall the case is different. The ring men threaten to cut up his district in the apportionment bill, and throw him out of Congress unless he agrees to buy them off by handing over Democratic votes for the Cam eron nominee for senator.

The people who circulate the storie that the speaker is ready to succumb to this pressure gauge his character by their own. But they are totally mistaken in him. He has been threatened with defeat in his district by the ring, by the Pennsylvania railroad, by the John Reach lobby and by other great powers. But he never yielded an inch. He is not that kind of a man. Nobody here believes the idle reports that Cameron has succeeded in bullying ness he has declined to meddle. Should he be called upon to speak on any proper occasion, I venture to say that his advice will be stern and strong against dickering with the ring. And should the latter undertake a gerrymander intended solely to get rid of him, it would be such a tribute notary's office of the court of common to his incorruptible character as falls to pleas this afternoon an answer to the writ the lot of few public servants. He could holding of an annual meeting and election make Mr. Cameron sensible of that im-

The truth is that, except in the case of a few individuals of a very bad type, there has never been any disposition among the Democrats to sell out to the ring. The moral average of this Legislature is much higher than usual. The methods of '57 TRINITY, Texas, Jan. 26 .- In a quarrel and '62 will not win in it. The storm that on Tuesday night, Captain McGee was passed over at the close of the last session, > of throwing away forever this providential opportunity to redeem the state from its long slavery to the Cameron ring? What matter about party names if they can sepeople, against rings and monopolists, the third term conspiracy, and the evil power of the Camerons? Mr. Wolfe would be eminently acceptable to nine Democrats out of ten in every part of the state. He would be with the Democrats upon the majority of questions that will arise at Washington, as he has been with them for years on the most important questions in Her Vegetable Compound the Savier the Legislature. A vote for him would be readily vindicated to any Democratic conman who but recently saved to the commonwealth a round four millions of dollars by a rare exhibition of personal independence of party trammels, and who in cidentally broke up the whole system of legislative bribery which has prevailed under the auspices of the ring. But for that feat, this present contest would have been impossible; it would have been settled long since by the work of hard cash.

> > Coasting

Yes, it is a dangerous pleasure. People have been seriously, some fatally, injured while coasting. Hundreds more have lost their lives taking pleasure rides on the rail. Skating is fine sport and good exercise, but one stands a good chance of being drowned. I wish some old croaker would invent some real lively sport that would endanger neither life nor limb. There has been more coasting this winter and fewer accidents than ever before. * How the coasters slide down! It does one good to think of it. I wish all the grum blers could be made to take just one ride on one of the larger sleds; I believe it would lot for United States senator taken to-day hold them all. York surely can boast of more than fifteen fault-finders; if it does they might take turns. Danger there is to be sure, when people grow reckless, but if a little care is taken no one will be hurt. The fresh air and lively exercise make bright eyes and cheeks. Old maids, if you have no beaux to take you, don't spoil other people's fun by croaking. Old bachelors, if you have hitherto been afraid to ask half a dozen ladies to coast, just get a big coaster and try it. Young and old are enjoying the fun, and their merry shouts and laughter can be heard long into the night. long into the night.

"The people may talk as much as they will,
And much has already been said;
Of boys and of girls who climb up a hill
That they might ride down on a sled;
They seem to forget that ere they were grown,
They had a keen relish for play;
That when they had limbs, as lithe as our own
They acted the very same way;
"We pity the men and women as well,
Who have not the will, nor the time
To travel with us the hill, for a time,
And share in our pleasure sublime; And share in our pleasure sublime; Oh, say shall we be as steady as they When children and youth shall be done; Then let us pursue our sports while we may. While we have such relish for fun."

No Conlition.

Hanover Citizen, Dem. We think it would be a great mistake for the Democratic members of the Legislature to step in and settle the senatorial imbroglio at Harrisburg by aiding Cameron to defeat Grow and to elect Oliver.

We see that some of the Democratic politicians at Washington recommend this course. It seems that they have been made believe that if they can induce the Democratic members of the Legislature to help Cnmeron out of his difficulty he will use his infinence to secure a fair apportion ment of the state and allow the Demo crats a larger representation in Con gress. This arrangement would no doubt Democrats, but it would crush out the opposition to Cameron in his own party and enable him to more effectually re-establish his waning power and give him almost autocratic authority in this state for years
