gone to Mexico. "Hebe," the mother of the baby elephant, will recover. Emma Thursby is making a concert tour through Austria. Salvini gave Campinini, Mapleson's tenor, instructions in the art of acting.

Remenyi has a wife and two children in Hungary. "Hazel Kirke" will be given here by an excellent company. " The Mulligans' Silver Wedding " will be Ed. Harrigan's next.

Agnes Leonard is reported to have lost $16,000 so far this season. Alice Atherton (Mrs. Willie Edouin) became the mother of a new son recently. The Barnum London show is having 2,000 advertising sheets engraved. All the floral tributes given to Gerster are sent by her direction to the hospitals. Colliers company appear in Hornellsville, Bob Slavin, who was here with Ford & Denham's "Pranks" party, has joined Haverly's new minstrels.

Col. Snelbaker, manager of the Majesties, was form rly chief of the police in Cincinnati. The cold weather is good for hall shows in this city. There have been but one or two bad houses since Christmas. The three Rankins, Major Burk and Theodore Jackson have joined the "Big Four" minstrels. Miller, of the Winter Garden, Philadelphia, has received a variety theatre license, as he has closed his bar.

Lesler & Allen have been playing with Haverly's new Mastodon minstrels, but they are now at Tony Pastor's theatre Oates will have a circus this season. Dan will appear as clown.

is a relative of the famous pantomimist Ravels. He is thirty-two years old and has been on the stage four years. Charles Goldie, the clog dancer, is the husband of Sallie St. Clair, and Steele is her brother. Press Eldridge is the husband of Miss Lou Sanford. Snelbaker's Consolidation is at the National theatre, Philadelphia, and Pat Rooney is at the Grand Central. Both are

A company billed to play "Our Hotel" swamped in Allentown, and everybody who trusted the manager was "lett."

The people of the show were also left, as the manager flew by night, leaving them Billy Rice, of Haverly's minstrels, which are now in Europe, arrived home last week. He went to Chicago where he joined the new troupe, and he will remain with them until the others arrive from Europe, when he will rejoin them. In speaking of "Hazel Kirke," the Easton Argus says: "Those who were pre-

The bills announcing the appearance here on Saturday, February 12th, of the Harrisons, in "Photos," are up. The lithographs are up. Louis Harrison, the leading male member of this company, was last year one of the bright lights of Rice's Surprise Party. His sister Alice has appeared with a number of the best has appeared with a number of the best companies, and Mart Hanley, their man-

Harrigan and Hart for many years. The lithograph of Pat Rooney and Harry Miner "Burying the Hatchet" can be understood when it is known that for a time they were very bad friends. The cause of the fight was that Rooney, who made a contract to play with Miner for two weeks, desired to break the contract. Miner was opposed to this, as he knew that Rooney is a big card. He took the matter into court and got a decision in his favor which restrained Rooney from playing with any other manager. Rooney then saw that he could do nothing and he and Miner then adjusted their difficulties. From their appearance in the picture-they both seem well pleased with the way matters stand. While Arlington's minstrels were on their way from Versailles, Ky., to Georgetown, Jan. 28, in an omnibus drawn by four horses, in descending a hill which was very slippery near Midway, the team became unmanageable, and upon reaching the bridge over Elkhorn creek the vehicle struck the railing and went over into ten eet of water, crashing through the ice. There were sixteen people inside and two on the top of the stage, besides a large quantity of heavy baggage. Citizens in the neighborhood came to the rescue and with axes shattered the roof of the vehicle and extricated the passengers. Billy Marr, comedian, was seriously injured. Mrs. Arlington was badly hurt and all the others were bruised, some having bones broken. Most of the musical instruments were demolished, and one of the horses was killed. The dreuched minstrels, with their clothing freezing on them, resumed their journey.

Cured of Drinking. "A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for Liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he has remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, an has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others who have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading Railroad Offi-cial, Chicago, Ill. febi-2wd&w

An Old Doctor's Advice. An Old Boctor's Advice.

It was this: "Trust in God and keep your bowels open." For this purpose many an old doctor has advised the habitually costive to take Kidney-Wort—for no other remedy so effectually overcomes this condition, and that without the distress and griping which other medicines cause. It is a radical cure for piles. Don't fall to use it.—Translated from the New Yorker Zeitung.
