

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Rev. J. V. Eckert, of this place, will officiate in the Bethany Lutheran church at Millersville to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock.

Miss Mamie Kunkel, of Harrisburg, Pa., who had been visiting Mrs. Henry Blatz for a couple of weeks past, left here for her home this morning.

A break occurred yesterday in the main water pipe on Walnut street, between Second and Third streets. Breaks in this immediate locality have become frequent of late.

Miss Annie Bitter, of Lancaster, Pa., is visiting Miss Maggie Wilson.

Mr. Abram Bruner will be a candidate for school director in the Second ward at the ward meeting to be held next week. Mr. Bruner is a Republican and he has to compete with him for the nomination, Mr. P. S. Hough, the druggist. Both are good men.

Isaac P. Walker and family, of Chester county, are visiting the family of Mr. Joseph Eckman.

A gathering of quite a large party of friends took place last evening at the residence of Mr. H. Wilson, at the corner of Second and Locust streets. The occasion of the assembly was the visit of one of Lancaster's fair ladies, and while doing their utmost to make it pleasant for the guest of the house, those present themselves were in very enjoyable spending the evening.

Uriah Southerer is not a candidate for election to the school board from the Third ward.

We have not heard whether Mr. John Filbert will be a candidate for re-election to council from the Second ward or not.

Mr. E. K. Boice, the ticket agent at the Pennsylvania railroad depot at this place, has been confined to his residence for three weeks past with an illness, which we trust he will soon get the upper hand of.

The Columbia fire company transacted the business of the month at its meeting last evening. It was unimportant to the public.

The Citizens' band will give a "package ball" in the academy on February 21. The ladies attending will furnish prize packages which will be auctioned off at the close of the evening's festivities. No one will know what is getting until it makes his purchase.

Communion services at St. Paul's Episcopal church to-morrow.

Susquehanna mill employees paid today.

A child named Findley was found dead in his bed on Thursday morning at its residence south of Walnut and above Second streets.

Miss Cox, of Lancaster, is the guest of Miss Mamie Hershey.

Mr. W. H. Cassin, the water company superintendent, says this has been the hardest winter on hydrants within his recollection. Flooded cellars in consequence of bursting hydrant pipes have been reported in all parts of town.

The snow is melting, and the water is running on Front street.

The snow, which was piled up in front of the Pennsylvania railroad depot, has been loaded upon cars and taken away.

Capt. D. Brantner has been away from his recent illness. He took a short walk on Chestnut street yesterday afternoon.

This morning's market was rather lively and good as compared with the markets of the early part of the week.

The semi-monthly meeting of the teachers' institute was held today.

The Democrats to be elected to-night as conferees will remember that they are to meet on Monday evening at the Board office to agree on candidates for chief burgess and high constable.

To-night the Democrats of the several wards of Columbia will meet to nominate candidates for borough officers. It should be the aim of each ward at these ward meetings to cast his vote for a good man; one who is a representative citizen and identified with the interest of the town.

Especially should this be so in returning names for council at the school board. A longside of these officers we would be filled are comparatively unimportant, and the candidates need not be drawn through so fine a sieve, but where the borough's finances are concerned, and where, perhaps, the future prosperity of the place, are at stake, the man we elect to represent us, none but the very highest qualifications should be, even for a moment, considered. The Republicans realize this and will put up their strongest men, and it will be the same advantage of the Democrats if they are equally far-seeing. We are informed that Mr. Wm. Patton would accept the Democratic nomination for council in the Second ward. Mr. Patton is closely identified with the business interests of Columbia; is a leading business man himself, and would make a faithful and efficient councilman. The Democrats can do no better than tender him the nomination, and the Republicans no better than endorse him. With men of Mr. Patton's standing we would be assured faithful service and good management. A call has been made for good men. Now, let us see whether good men will be supported.

Lost or Deceased. Wm. Thompson, a driver for J. C. Spaeth confectioner, North Queen street, left Lancaster on Monday morning at 7 o'clock, with a two-horse wagon loaded with confections. He was to have visited the places between Lancaster and Elizabethtown, disposed of such goods as his customers wanted, and returned home by way of Manheim, and it was expected he would reach Lancaster by Tuesday evening. He has not yet returned, and nothing certain is known of his whereabouts. It is said that he was seen on Wednesday noon far from Lebanon, and was inquiring the road to Mount Joy saying that he had lost his way and been detained by the snow-storm. Mr. Spaeth telegraphed to Mount Joy yesterday, and received answer that had not put in an appearance up to 9 o'clock last evening. If he does not arrive to-day, Mr. Spaeth will send for him. He had with him $500 or $600 worth of stock.

The Union Fair. The fair of the Union fair equipment association will commence in Roberts's hall this evening. Elaborate preparations have been made by the management to make the fair attractive, and many articles of great value have been placed on exhibition—some of them rare, and some of them of high quality, and others to be voted for. Thousands of useful and ornamental articles of less value will be found upon the tables.

One of the Ablest and Best. Lyeingizing Chronical. The Daily and Weekly INTELLIGENCER, one of the ablest and best Democratic journals in this state, appears elsewhere in the Lyeingizing Chronical.

Mechanics' Library. Hereafter the rooms of the Mechanics' Library will be open on Monday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock, as well as on Thursday evenings from 7 to 9. Hereafter the rooms have been open only on Thursday evenings.

More Declinations. William Wisner, of the Fourth ward, withdraws his name as a Democratic candidate for council.

Charles Green declines to be a candidate for city committeeman of the Sixth ward.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The Licensee, Curvett Steining, &c. Court met this morning at 10 o'clock for the hearing of the license which was contested.

Wm McAfee, of Marietta, who in last February, was convicted of false pretence, and was refused a new trial at the December court, was brought in for sentence this morning.

In passing sentence, Judge Livingston said that on the trial there was such doubt in the case as would have justified a jury in finding a verdict of not guilty. Mr. McAfee had shown a character which any person might be proud of. The court could see no error in the proceedings and they therefore had refused a trial. Taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case, the court would make the sentence a grade one better than it would otherwise have been. The court then sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $100, costs and undergo an imprisonment of 10 days.

In the case of L. Power vs. B. F. Hovey, called for trial, Judge Patterson delivered an opinion making the rule absolute. When the case was tried the jury found in favor of the plaintiff.

The contested hotel license cases were taken up and they were disposed of as follows:

Samuel A. Groff, Second ward, this city, new stand, with a remonstrance. This case was continued because the applicant does not live in the city as yet.

James L. Brecknock, Ninth ward, city, new stand; granted.

Jesse Lutz, Brecknock township, new stand. License refused, as the applicant does not reside in the house.

The contested house licenses were disposed of in the following manner:

Andrew J. Cogley, First ward, this city, at 235, 234, North Queen street, new stand, granted.

Peter G. Meisley, Milton Grove, Mount Joy township, new stand, granted.

A Charge Session Case. In the case of Michael H. Kaufman, indicted for false pretence, two charges, which were marked "settled upon payment of costs," John B. Bachman, of Columbia, who was the prosecutor in the case, declined to defend on the ground that he shows cause why the record should be corrected by striking off "settled" and insert "recognizances forfeited absolutely."

Mr. Bachman holds that the representation that he had sanctioned a settlement was not true, and that the recognizances had been forfeited by the district attorney.

Viewers Appointed. Samuel Evans, A. W. Cassel, Wm. E. L. Manner, Henry Eckert and Michael Metzger, were appointed viewers to assess damages by the burning of St. Joseph and Poplar streets in this city.

EDITOR GUEST AND EDITOR GUEST. Why Edward Griest was beaten for Congress Lancaster inquirer.

Once upon a time—it seems as though it were "years and years ago"—and we hope it was, the editor of the Inquirer was induced "through the solicitation of friends" to accept of the honor of being a candidate for Congress. He was "forced into the field," as it were, and his name announced in the Republican newspapers round about. His name was plainly and correctly printed—Edward Griest—in every instance, including the New York Herald and Register. But it wouldn't answer. People—a large portion of them at least, stoutly maintained that it was Geist who was the candidate—and they swore vengeance at that "lean cadaverous, unexpectant fellow, who had induced Buckle and tried to break up the Republican party," and hoped they would "sink to—" if ever they would vote for such a man as that.

We tried a little to stem the current which was setting in, but found it fruitless and abandoned it in despair. How many votes were cast against us from this cause it would be impossible to tell. Competent observers, however, assure us that it was the means of our defeat. We have never blamed Mr. Geist for it, as he probably had little to do with naming either of us; but as he was not one of our most ardent supporters we never could divest ourselves of the idea that he had a good deal of quiet enjoyment in the fact that we were beaten by such a result. We hope to live long enough to be able to thank him for it but, so far, never felt quite ready.

Bible Society. The anniversary of the Bible society will be held at St. Paul's Reformed and St. John's Lutheran churches to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. The speakers will be Revs. Stahl, Liechler, Garrison and Hame.

Railroad Accident. Engine No. 327 attached to the mail train west, broke a piston rod, near the big Conococheague bridge, this morning, and the accident delayed the train for nearly an hour. No one was hurt, and no other serious damage was done to the locomotive.

West to Marietta. Daily & Co.'s markets started for Marietta, where they will appear to-night, in three large sleighs, this afternoon.

The Voting Places. The Democracy of the several wards will meet at the following named places on Saturday evening from 6 to 8 p. m. except in the Sixth and Eighth wards, where the polls will open at 4 o'clock, to select from the names of those who have been nominated for ward officers, school directors to be voted for at the municipal election on the 15th inst., and one city committeeman from each ward:

First Ward—Shober's hotel corner of North Queen and Orange.

Second Ward—Union hotel corner of Chestnut and Christian.

Third Ward—Eiffage's saloon corner of South Queen and Vine.

Fourth Ward—Rothweiler's saloon, 306 W. King.

Fifth Ward—Phillip Wall's Green Tree hotel, 409 West King.

Sixth Ward—Joseph Kautz's saloon, 211 North Queen street, above Penn's railroad depot.

Seventh Ward—B. Kuhlman's saloon, 509 Rockland.

Eighth Ward—Centennial saloon, junction of Vine, Mulberry and Strawberry streets. Polls open from 4 to 8.

Ninth Ward—Arnold Hans's hotel, 328 North Queen.

By ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

The only medicinal soap adapted to easy shaving—Cuticura Shaving Soap.

BE YE LIKE FOOLISH. "For ten years my wife was confined to her bed by such a complication of ailments that no doctor could tell what was the matter or cure her, but a small bottle of Cuticura, bought six months ago I saw a U. S. flag with Hop Bitters on it, and I thought I would be a fool once more. I tried it, but my folly proved to be wisdom. Two bottles cured her, she is now as well and strong as any man's wife, and it cost me only two dollars. Be ye likewise foolish."—H. W., Detroit, Mich.

SAMPLE NOTICE. It is impossible for a woman after a faithful course of treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to continue to suffer with a weakness of the uterus. Enclose a stamp to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 238 Western avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

If You are Sick, Read the Kidney-Wort advertisement in another column, and it will explain to you the rational method of getting well. Kidney-Wort will save you more doctor's bills than any other medicine known. Acting with specific energy on the kidneys and liver, it cures the worst diseases caused by their derangement. Use it at once in dry or liquid form. Either is equally efficient, the liquid is the easiest, but the dry is the most economical.—Interior.

Wine. The unprecedented success of Speer's Wine in North and South America and Europe, has gained for it among the medical faculty a standing reputation. Chemists and scientific men have visited his cellar in New Jersey, and analyzed his Wine, and pronounced it the most healthy and beneficial in the market. The following letter was received by Mr. Speer from Dr. A. D. Wilson, one of the oldest and most celebrated physicians of New York city: "I have been in the habit of using Speer's Port Grape Wine, and I have found it an excellent stomachic, a gentle stimulant and tonic. It is especially useful in cases of great nervous debility and stomach weakness."

The disposition of unprincipled dealers to adulterate wines has compelled Mr. Speer to especially guard his production, and place his signature over the cork of each bottle, and the public's attention. It is being used in churches for communion purposes.

This wine is endorsed by Drs. Atlee and Dr. Hovey and sold by H. E. Slaymaker, Lancaster Pa. 121-2nd-4d

Dr. BROWNING, 117 Arch street, Philadelphia, has made a wonderful discovery, not by chance, but by patient, persistent research in medicine and chemistry. His C. & C. Cordial, for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, and all troubles of the chest, can make money of its sale, and is destined to make his fortune. He has already been offered a small fortune to part with his secret, but his wisdy conclusions that if others can make money of it he can. All druggists sell it, 50c per bottle. If not at your druggist's, tell him you wish to give it a trial.

DEATHS. LEVY—In this city, on the 4th inst., Phineas Levy, in the 44th year of his age. The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Maggie Keiser, No. 427 West King street, on Monday afternoon, at 12 o'clock. Interment at the Presbyterian church, Paradise, Lancaster county, Pa.

BOON—On February 4, in this city, Emma Catherine, twin daughter of Christian and Martha Boon, in the 27th year of her age. Death is caused by her darling Emma, but his soul upon her bow.

And her eyes, like mine so brightly shine in heaven with Jesus now. Fold her hands in prayer, and make money of it he can. All druggists sell it, 50c per bottle. If not at your druggist's, tell him you wish to give it a trial.
