COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Before Judge Livingston. The case taken up in the afternoon was that of D. W. Patterson, as assignee in bankruptcy of Bernard Short, vs. the Mutual fire insurance company of Chester county. This is an action to recover on a policy of insurance taken out in the defendant's company by Bernard Short in 1874. The first testimony offered was the proof of the president's and secretary's signatures to the policy. The policy was then offered in evidence. It was dated October 17, 1874, and was objected to on the ground that it was issued to Short, nine months after he had been declared a bankrupt, and it could not have been any part of the property which was transferred to his assignee by whom this suit is brought. The plaintiff then proved the transfer of the policy to D. W. Patterson and again offered it in evidence. The defendant again objected, on the ground that if this was an individual transfer, then the suit was improperly brought by Short's assignee. The court decided that as the person trying the suit had proved a transfer of the property to him it was not a bar, for the present purpose if the surplusage of assignee was added in the caption, and therefore the policy should be admitted in evidence. The covenant of insurance from loss by fire was read and then D. W. Patterson was called to prove, (which had already been shown in the other case) that the notice was given of the fire and the an inventory of loss, which was waived, the defendent contending at the time that if the property was that of D. W. Patterson, by a personal transfer, the company was not liable to him, for the value of the barn's contents, which the defendant alleged belonged to Bernard Short. The witnesss proved that he under a lease to Short claimed one half of the crops which were destroyed by the fire, and which insurance on the whole contents.

P. W. Houskeepen the receiver for the company, testified that D. W. Patterson, as and, in the event of a freeze, would be as assignee for Short, paid him two assessments in 1877-78, which money was handed over to the company.

Bernard Short was called and he testified that the inventory taken out of the fire tion of this copy. This morning the parties made an ar-

Man and Mare Missing. Yesterday Mr. Frew, of Paradise, came to Lancaster with a kicking mare and sleigh. When he had finished his basiness and was ready to start for home, his mare had one of her kicking spelis, and came near kicking Mr. Frew and kicking the sleigh to pieces. As she was entirely unmanageable in the harness, Mr. Frew hired a team from Swayne & Wiley's livery and drove with it to Paradise, and got a young man named Edward Rine to ride the mare. He started about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the arrangement should ' follow Mr. Frew to Paradise on horseback and bring the livery team back to Laneaster. The Snows of the Present Winter.

James Smedley, of Fulton township, Lancaster county, has made careful observations and accurate measurements of the snows of the present winter with the exact depth of the fall each month. Mr. Smedley's interesting observations show the following result : During the month of November the fall was 8 inches. December 28 inches, January 8 inches, February 6 inches, making a total of 50 inches. Mr. S. took his measurements in a sheltered spot near his orchard, where the fallen snow was not affected by the wind. He first placed a board on the ground before the storm, which was again placed on the surface of each successive snow and the depth of fall each time noted. He also observed that the frost which had penetrated the earth some three inches before the first permenant snow, was soon drawn out and much of the melted snow penetrated the earth. a heavy sheet of ice and the ground has taken frost of the depth of an inch or two. The ice is also considered as injurious to the wheat, particuarly on flat fields. This great body of snow, over four feet in depth, is the largest quantity we have had for many years. So much of it as has already melted and percolated the been gradually diminishing for years until it has become a matter of serious concern.

Brandy as a Medicine The following article was voluntarily sent to

Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice, It is commended to the attention of those af-Indigestion and Dyspensia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimelant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.
With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miscrable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and us but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY, Sold by our enterprising young friend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandles no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of
