COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. Before Judge Livingston.

In the case of G. A. Grove vs. Christian Hershey, owner or reputed owner, and Wm Hogentogler, contractor, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $347. 64. [By a mistake in the making up of the paper yesterday it was stated that this case had been settled. It was the case of the fire company vs. Seaber and Grube which was settled.]

Henry S. Herr vs. Henry H. Harnish, executors of Michael Harnish and James Keemer, on a mechanics' hen to recover a balance of $1,500 which the plaintiff alleges to be due him for the construction of a tobacco warehouse for the defendants on the ground of Keemer, in West Willow. Pequea township. The plaintiff's testi mony showed that in 1876 Keemer & John Harnish purchased the property on which the warehouse was aftewards erected. At the time the building was begun Michael S. Harnish was living on the property, and in a conversation with Keemer, he (Keemer ) said that the deed was to himself and John C. Harnish, who held it nominally for Mi chael Harnish, with whom plaintiff had contracted; as Michael, on account of hi financial difficulties, did not want the publie to know that he had property. Keemer appeared to wish to put the responsibil ity of the payment of the building upon Michael; when the plaintiff informed him that he would file a lien in case he was not paid; he said he did not wish that to be done nor did he wish to interfere with the progress of the work as he and Michael S. Harnish had agreed that he (plaintiff) should erect the building, as they were saving $600 by it; Keemer was present several times and seme : to be greatly interested in the progress of the work. He gave directions as to its construction through Harnish. It also appeared that in December, 1877, John C. Harnish sold his interest in the property and plaintiff fulfilled his contract on the credit of the building. Keemer promised the plaintiff that he would see his claim paid of he would fix the slate on the roof as he (Keemar) desired.

The plaintiff, on cross examination, said that he had been warned that Keemer Harnish would not pay him; he paid to attention to the statements, however, as he looked to the hen to protect his claim. Opinion by Judge Livingston.

In the matter of the appeal of it. W. and Alexander J. Larberger, sons of Eliza beth B. S. Harberger, late of Lancaster city, deceased, from the register of wills, granting letters testamentary to their brother, Louis B. Harberger, of Philadelphia, and the rule to show cause why said letters should not be revoked or Louis be ordered to give security in the sum of $50,000. Also in the appeal of Louis B. Harberger, from the decision of the his brothers, A. J. & H. W. Harberger, not occur for a day or two but the muddy or any other of the heirs of the deceased a estate, the court decided that Louis B. water and the rise in the river together had their effect on the ice, and here, i.e. Harberger had presented a primer fireb ordered and directed that the register of grant giving bond in the sum of $25,000 as security for any money that may come into his hands from said estate. The appeal of Louis B. Harberger from the decision of the register was dismissed.

Court adjourned at noon until Montay morning at 10 o'clock. The case before o'clock on Monday afternoon.

THE BUMANE PAGE. A Fine Time in Prespect on the Bill.

There has been great activity at the Hu mane hose house to-day in the completion of the arrangements for the opening of the fair to-night, the programme of exercises lished in full. The splendid large second floor, under the skillful direction of Anand sale of fancy goods are arranged after a new design. The main table in the centre of the room will be the ifumine table. Shiftler tables; on the east side are Sun, Friendship, Washington and American. Each table is trimmed with wreaths, arches, festoonings, flags, banners and shields, emblazoning the name of the respective company, its motto and the company device. The south end of the room is fitted up with stage handsomely set of with flags and other decoration, for the music and speakers to night. A full account of the decorations, attendants, and exercises to-night will appear in Monday' INTELLIGENCER. The firemen generally take a warm interest in the Hamane's fair and the relations of that company with its contemporaries is the very kindliest. Proof of this is afforded by the presentation to the fair of a hard some music box by the Empire Company, which has been on exhibition in H. Z. Rhoads & Bro.'s jewelry store window. A massive cake, surmounted by a towering device in confectionery work, presented to ported to have been washed away and their the fair by C. Boettner, is displayed in the coming is expected here. ## GBITUARY

Death of Henry R. Tronf. Henry R. Trout, an old and highly spected resident of this city, died this morning at his home on West Orange street, aged about 69 years. He was a native of this county and in his early life followed farming, but became a resident of this city many years ago, and for a long time conducted successfully the Western hotel, corner of Orange and Water streets. For several years past he has been out of business and lived retired. He was twice married and was the father of five daughters and one son, of whom four are married. For several months past Mr. Trout was in ill health. and for more than a month was confined stomach, which finally caused his death.

The Moravian Supper. We have just placed on exhibition about one hundred Oil Paintings, all handsomely framed. They embrace a wide range of subjects, from the familiar Madonnas and Holy Families of the celebrated masters of painting, to the illustration of humorous scenes in real life.

Our collection includes Figure Pieces, Bird and Animal Paintings, Landscapes, Ancient and Modern Architecture, Ancient Ruins, Character and Costume Studies, &c., &c. Classical, Historical, Mythological and Ideal Subjects, &c.

We have a number of very fine specimens of the sculptor's art, in beautiful white marble figures, mounted on colored marble columns.

We take pride in placing these goods before our patrons, believing that our community must appreciate our endeavor to popularize a class of fine goods, that could not heretofore be obtained except from abroad.

LULTON OPERA HOUSE. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12. HARRISON'S COMEDY COMPANY. An original eccentric coincidy by B. E. Woolf, author of "Mighty Dollar," &c., entitled "PHOTOS," replete with comic situations, sparkfing music and laughable effects. TWO AND A-HALF HOURS OF FUN. TWO AND A-HALF ROURS OF FUN.

MR. JOHN D. MISHLER says: "The company is composed of good dramatic and musical tialent, and the play is a kaleidoscope of tun, an epitome of mirth and melody. It is one of those peculiar productions, which, while it gives both Miss Alice and Louis Harrison an opportunity to display their dramatic talent and versatility, yet withat brings each member of the company prominenty forward, keeping an audience interested and amused throughout from the rise to the fall of the curtain. There is none of that drag so palpably manifest in most plays similarly constructed, nanifest in most plays similarly constructed, and which during the momentary absence of the principals, wearies the house with mediocre acting and worse 'business' from the lesser lights of the company."
