

LANCASTER DAILY INTELLIGENCER, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1881.

ases of medium running '79 Pennsylvania. practice is once more demonstrated to be far ahead of theory. This paper has from time to time advised its readers, and especially manufacturers, wayn looking for leaf not to look or ask for a particular crop, but to exam-ine everything, whether it is Connecticut or Pennsylvania, Ohio or Wisconsin, or any other sort. How many have lately bought '79 Ohio for '79 Pennsylvania, only Providence and the sellers know. The effect of the sale of 1,000 cases of '79 Ohio will certainly be that a great many maaufacturers who heretofore have treated an offer of Ohio with contempt, will now bestow their affections upon it.

The sales of the week were as follows : Pennsylvania--Crop '79 : 1,800 cases ; me dium, 14 to 17 cents ; tine, 20 cents ; very fine, 11 to 231 cents.

Ohio-Crop '79: 1,000 cases running, reported at somewhat above 10 cents, reweight.

State--Crop '79; 360 cases (165 of which were Big Flats), 114 to 18 cents. Wisconsin-Crop '79: 300 cases; running, 8 to 12 cents; some Havana seed conning, 17 cents,

Havana-Market lively, '79 stock sells easily. Remedios was much in demand at 80 to 90 cents. Two hundred bales of at 80 to 90 cents. Two hundred bales of '79 Vuelta Abajo sold at $1.16. Total sales of '79 stock, 900 bales, A sale of 150 bales '80 Vuelta Abajo at $1.10, is re-ported to a manufacturer, but both the al-leged bayer and seller refuse to give par-the sale of the manufacturer. Take it and the sale will add one more to the number. Take it and will add one more gladden your heart. Why suffer longer from the forment of an aching back? leged buyer and seller refuse to give particulars.

Not Heard From The creditors of Joseph Lewis, who so adroitly swindled New York leaf dealers out of $65,000 worth of leaf tobacco, have in vain tried to elicit a statement from him. He utterly refuses to say anything in regard to his indebtedness, or, better, the money he stole from the trade here. Many letters have been addressed to him regard. ing the matter, all of which he has treated with stolid indifference. Lawyers have been appealed to, but their views are of such a discouraging nature that the idea of criminal prosecution has apparently been given up, and Lewis remains the undesputed owner of about $65,000, which he obtained by downright swindling.

Gans's Report.

bers of witnesses-one case in particular we cite:-A hard-working farmer had been addicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years: his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations con-stantiy-no appetite-in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Mcthodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Braudy,

Reigart's Old Brandy, in his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wondeclut effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. The used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a lit-tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.
