EAST END NEWS.

Our Salisbury Correspondence.

The tobacco market was rather lively last week. Between Lancaster and our local buyers, quite a number of crops have been disposed of at fair prices. Salisbury has several dealers in the weed. Messrs. Worst & Shertz, packers at Springville, being the most extensive dealers, they have so far bought about 100 cases. Mr. John Wilson of Springville, and B. S. Weiler of White Horse, also are buying some. Mr. Weiler, bought a crop from Franklin Ross, a few days ago over which there appears to be some difficulty. Ross delivered the crop to Weiler, received his check for the amount, and a few days later, Weiler resold the Ross crop and delivered it to Lancaster, when it weighed some 400 pounds less than he had paid Mr. Ross. Quite a mistake to be made in less than 1000 pounds of tobacco. We have not heard how the matter has been adjusted.

Messrs. Worst & Shertz are putting additional force on in their packing establishment, and are packing a superior article, having bought some of the finest crops in the township.

The Republican primaries took place on Saturday last at the White Horse, and resulted in the selection of the following ticket: Road Commissioner, Peter Esch; Constable, Samuel Bowman; School Directors, Christian Kauffman and Henry Eaby; Assessor, Hervey Shimp. The principle fight was for Road commissioner, there being four contestants in the field, and Mr. Esch being a third termer, but he was more fortunate than the third term candidate at Chicago; Peter received almost as many votes as his opponents combined. Being a German and very much opposed to the third term last June, when reminded of his opposition, made this remark: "If de people want Pater for de dird derm den Pater goes in, and if de people not want Pater, or a dird derm den Pater goes out, but you will find oud day de people goes wotin' for Pater." And Peter's predictions proved true. The people will have to trot out a strong horse, or else keep on electing Peter. We would recommend Garfield to give Peter a cabinet office; a foreign mission, for instance, so as to give some other royal representative a chance in Salisbury, or surely there will be a stampede in the ranks of the stalwarts. Frank should have a show.

While Mr. W. H Sweigart, accompanied by his wife and two children, were crossing the Welsh Mountain in a sleigh, well muffled up with blankets and robes, by a displacement of one of the blankets they discovered that they had lost their baby. They quickly retraced their steps and found baby snugly wrapped up lying in a snow drift, none the worse for its mishap. We would recommend friend Sweigart to be more careful in the future, as next time he may not be so fortunate. Did we not know him to be strictly temperate we might have been uncharitable enough to accuse him of having tasted hard cider before starting on the journey.

Martin Diem, of Mount Airy, owned a very valuable dog which he prized very highly. A few days ago some parties enticed the dog away, got him into a fight with another dog and finally beat him to death, after which they secreted his body in a thicket. Mr. Diem threatens to bring suit for cruelty to animals against the perpetrators of the deed, as soon as he has sufficient proof.

Uriah Wallace, an old citizen of Salisbury, died a few days ago, after lingering for eight months. He leaves a widow and eleven children; burial at Mount Airy church.

Mr. Henry Mentzer had a valuable bull (Alderny) break his neck on Saturday. This is the third one that has died for Mr. Mentzer in the same way within a short time.

Quite a number of our citizens went to New Holland to partake of Mr. Abram Settley's oyster supper on last Thursday evening. On account of the weather Mr. Settley was unable to procure the oysters, but fed his friends on turkey and other good things, which proved as acceptable as the oysters, and they all vote Abe a good provider.

Sleighing is gone for the present, and it bespeaks rest for the horses of our young bloods for a time at least.

The wheat and grass come from under the ice and snow looking unusually well, and present appearances speak well for a good crop of hay and grain.

Professor Shaub visited our schools this week, and our Frank Groff who ably wields the sceptre at Pleasant View, wears a bright smile ever since, the professor having giving him an extra mark as a teacher; Frank is on the road to success, and should he continue in his present calling, will in a short time stand at the head of his class as a teacher.

Why Are You Bilious?

Because you have allowed your bowels to become inactive, and liver torpid. Use Kidney Wort to produce a free state of the bowels, and it will stimulate the liver to proper action, cleanse the skin of its yellowness, cure bilious headache, and cause new life in the blood. Druggists have it, both dry and liquid.—Zion's Herald. 13-1wd&w

Magic in the Nineteenth Century.

N. McKee, Wyebridge, Ontario, writes: "I have sold large quantities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil; it is used for colds, sore throat, croup, etc., and, in fact, for any affection of the throat it works like magic. It is a sure cure for burns, wounds and bruises."

Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for Liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others who have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading Railroad Official, Chicago, Ill. feb1-2wd&w

Brandy as a Medicine

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those afflicted with Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. When purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalid—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than Brandy.

The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy

or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is

REIGART'S OLD BRANDY.

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various imputed dyspepsia specifics would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of

Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon numbers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—

A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his Stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—no appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used Sheffrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed earnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try

Reigart's Old Brandy.

In his case, he looked up with astonishment, but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A PRACTISING PHYSICIAN.
