Welchans Carries His Case to the Supreme

This morning Messrs. Atlee and Brown, attorneys for Edward Welchans, took a writ of error to the supreme court for the purpose of having the order of our court, awarding a writ of mandamus reversed. This writ of error will not operate as a supersedeas, as the court has awarded a peremptory writ of mandamus, in obedience to which Mr. Welchans handed over to Mr. Shirk all books and moneys in his hands. But if the supreme court should reverse the court below, Mr. Welchans will receive his costs and damages, and have the satisfaction of with a weakness of the uterus. COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE Tuesday in this borough consisted in nothing more or less than Democratic gains, and the result, although not giving the Democracy a majority in either the school board or council, will give them a hold, and a good hold, too, which it will require at least three years to loosen. Two out of Benneville Artz, 131; Cyrus Miller, 101; three of the justices of the peace Jacob Kline, 75; William Regar, 110; are Democrats-a gain of two; then in the election of their candidate for chief burgess they gain another; they gain one coun-School Directors: George Bollman, 103; cilman and possibly two, and one school Henry Regar, 121; Nathan F. The total gain is seven, and if Gen. Wm. Patton is successful for council it will be eight. The Columbia Courant, in taking a peep at its profit and loss account, was sorely displeased and comes out in a not very enviable humor It says: "We think those kick ers who went back on the regular ticket at our borough election on Tuesday, broke their faith as well as their Republican necks. If they want Democrats to rule, they should go over body and breeches to that party. Out with such weak-kneed Republicans. Shame, disgrace and confusion of face to the whole gang of them -we had plenty of just such people during the war." As the editor of the Courant is a "stalwart," he is excusable. Strange to say, W. Hayes Grier's Columbia Herald came out without a single rooster to grace the heads of its columns stranger still when it is remembered that Grier himself was elected justice of the peace in the Second ward. But then we presume the usual modesty of the Herald's editor got the upper hand of his inclina-

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

We have just placed on exhibition about one hundred Oil Paintings, all handsomely framed. They embrace a wide range of subjects, from the familiar Madonnas and Holy Families of the celebrated masters of painting, to the illustration of humorous scenes in real life.

Our collection includes Figure Pieces, Bird and Animal Paintings, Landscapes, Ancient and Modern Architecture, Ancient Ruins, Character and Costume Studies, &c., &c. Classical, Historical, Mythological and Ideal Subjects, &c.

We have a number of very fine specimens of the sculptor's art, in beautiful white marble figures, mounted on colored marble columns.

We take pride in placing these goods before our patrons, believing that our community must appreciate our endeavor to popularize a class of fine goods, that could not heretofore be obtained except from abroad.
