Tobacco.

The New York Market. Tobacco Journal. Compared with the previous week, the present one was quiet, though the sales ran up to an aggregate of 2,000 cases. It is next to impossible to report correctly what these sales consisted of. Sales of nothing else but '79 Pennsylvania were talked of, as if such stock as Connecticut, State, Ohio and Wisconsin were not to be

The prices that were paid for '79 Pennsylvania astonished even the "oldest in-habitants" of Water-street. "How can the manufacturers exist ?" is being asked. Shrugs of shoulders and gesture, signifying balloon ascensions, are the answers. running lots of '79 'Pennsylvania sold as high as to make the wrappers cost above 45 cents, and the prices eigars are being sold for, there is some probability of as-censions in our balloon. Those initiated into the intricacies of the manufacture of cigars, though, hold that the manufacturers, when compelled to pay big figures for their seed leaf, get their satisfaction out of the Havana by banishing it in as great a proportion as requisite from their cigars.

How far this argument agrees with facts,

we will not discuss to-day. Certain it is that the state of the leaf market is anoma The desire to purchase everything useful can only be explained by the doubtful condition of the '80 crop. Packers are timid. They examine tobacco crop after crop in the different states, and outside of the '80 New York state and Housatonic, they have so far bought with a caution unusual. How long these measures will prevail it is hard to tell. They may to-morrow, how ever, rush out en masse to certain sections, and regardless of white veins, flea holes, stem rot, and pole-burn, buy up the leaf at figures inconsistent with all calculations and facts. Our inability to secure substantiation of the reports of sales of the various crops of '79 in our market this week, forces us to refrain from particularizing the same. Prices, through, did not differ from those of the preceding week.

Havana-Market active. Sales 1,100 bales. Jobbers were the main purchasers. The aversion to the '50 crop still continues, and we fear will continue till the useful stock of the '79 is either exhausted or the prices of the '80 become lower.

Gans's Report. Sales of seed leaf tobacco, reported by J. S. Gans's Son & Co., tobacco brokers, Nos. 84 and 86 Wall street, New York, for the week ending February 21, 1881: 900 cases 1879 Pennsylvania, fillers, 6@.7c.; assorted, 12@22c.; wrappers, 18@42\cdots,; 300 cases 1879 New England, wrappers, 16@30c.; 70 cases 1879 state, p. t.; 400 cases 1879 Ohio, 5@14c.; 100 cases sundries, 9(4)18c. Total, 1,770 cases.

A Protest.

By the Rev. Calvin S. Gerhard, of Co N. Y. Independent.

As a minister of the Reformed (German) church, I respectfully protest against having the Reformed church placed into line with those denominations among whom there has been a manifest decrease in the number of accessions during the last few years, as was done by Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler, in an article on revivals. published in the Independent, a few weeks ago. The statistical report for 1880 gives the following figures: Number of congregations, 1,695; adult membership, 161,002; infant baptisms for the year 1881, 13,213 adult baptisms, 1,096; additions by confirmation, 9,113; by certificate and renewed profession of faith, 4,129. The losses are as follows: Excommunicated, 123: names eras c, 1,503; dismissed by certificate, 2,249; deaths, including infants, 4,591. This shows the number of access sions by confirmation alone to have been on an average about 7 to a congrevation. In 1879 the rate of increase was somewhat larger; in 1878 slightly less. Any one looking over the statistical table will find that the percentage of additions varies but little from year to year, and that the growth of this church has been gradual and comparatively regular throughout its entire history in the United States.

The Reformed church has never been much affected by widespread fluctuations of religious interest or indifference. She does not lay any stress on these variations of religious feeling; but has always insisted that true religion is more a matter of principle and Christian nurture in the covenant of grace than of periodic activity superinduced by special causes. She lays down repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as the conditions of entrance into the full communion of the church, and teaches that it is union with the church, under the circumstances, that unites us savingly with Jesus Christ. Her people, therefore, become members of the church largely from a sense of duty and from a conviction of the necessity of a childlike submission of the ordinances of Christ for salvation, and do not believe that they must first become Christians, and then unite with the church for safe-keep

Reigart's Old Brandy,

It is, perhaps, not for us to decide for the general public whether this position is correct or not; but this is the position is the Reformed church, and in this way we account for her steady and regular increase, which increase compares very favorably with that of every other Protestant denomination in the country, since within the last twefity-five years this church has more than doubled her membership.

Brandy as a Medicine The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physician of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those at-Indigestion and Dyspepsia. BRANDY AS A MEDICINE.

This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant was never intended as a beverage, but to be used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims. With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or ess debility, will find this simple medicine, en used properly, A Sovereign Remedy or all their fils and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H E SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy, Kidney-Wort acts first by overcoming in the mildest manner all tendency to constipation; thee, by its great tonic and invigorating properties, it restores to health the debilitated and weakened parts. We have hundreds of certified cures, where all else had failed. Use it and suffer no longer.—Exchange.

Go to H. B. Cochran, druggist, 157 and 139 North Queen street, for Mrs. Freeman's New Mational Dyes. For brightness and durability of color are unequaled. Color from 2 to 5 pounds. Price, 15 cents.

Reigart's Old Brandy.

In his case, he looked up with astonismment, but after hearing ot its wonderfur ellects in the consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which hechose to eat. He still keeps it and uses a little occasionally; and since he has this medicine he has been of very little pecuniary benefit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.
