Runawayi.

Last evening Jacob Laveinder, colored, who is a hostler for Dr. M. L. Herr, was watering the doctor's mare at the stable in the rear of the Swan hotel. The animal frightened at some object in the shed and started out of the yard. She ran out Vine street to the corner of Strawberry and Mulberry streets. Here the buggy, to which she was hitched, struck against a fence and was mashed to pieces. The mare continued in her flight with but a single tree [hanging to her, and finally turned up in East Orange street. She ran out that street to the end and then down the Philadelphia turnpike. At 10 o'clock last night she was found running loose in the road, about three miles from town, by a man who took her to Metzgar's hotel, at Witmer's bridge, where she was got by the hostler. She was but slightly scratched the buggy is a total wreck. A team belonging to Peter Mohr, baker, took fright about 9 o'clock this morning, and ran out Orange street to Duke and up Duke street for some distance. It ran into another wagon on Orange street, without doing much damage. There were one or two other runaways this morning, but we did not learn the names of the owners nor the extent of the damage done. On to Washington,

Yesterday and to-day seventy-three tick-

Wine Products in New Jersey. This state is becoming celebrated for its wines. Some of the richest in the world are produced in New Jersey, by Mr. A. Speer, whose name has become celebrated as a producer of strictly pure unadulterated Port Grape Wine. The wine of Mr. Speer is not bo: tled or put in market until it is four years old, and has become thoroughly fine and mei-

low. It has proved itself a wonderful assistant to physicians, who prescribe it. This wine is recommended for debilitated persons, and s given to consumptives. The difficulty of getting an imported or even a pure California Port is well understood to be so great as to preclude doctors from allowing their patients to run the risk of its use. Mr. Speer being aware of this fact has taken the utmost - are in the making of his wine, so as to supplant the imported wines by producing a genuine arti-cle. His wines are known by chemists to be pure and the most reliable for medicinal parposes. The druggists throughout the country sell it, as bottled by Mr. Spe-r.-N. Y. Tribune. This wine is recommanded by Drs. Atleand Davis, and for sale by H. E. Slaymaker.

The Hunter started in pursuit, but could not keep up with the yacht, and was about to give up the chase, when the revenue cutter Samuel Dexter was sighted. Captain Davis ran down to the cutter and told his story to Captain Irish, asking him to bring the America to and examine her papers. The cutter was near Tarpaulin Cove and the yacht off Cuttyhunk, but the Samuel Dexter overhauled the yacht after a long chase. Captain Irish hailed the America and ordered her to come to. No attention was paid to the hail, and the yacht kept on her course. A gun was then fired. This was treated with the same indifference, but a second salute brought the America to, and Captain Irish boarded her. Upon examination her papers were found correct, the yacht being bound from Boston to Baltimore, where General Butler was to join her and make the trip to the West Indies.
