MARIETTA MATTERS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE.

Those who are interested in rafting business are considerably exercised concerning the report about that the course is shut up at Turkey Hill by rocks that were shoved into it when the ice moved. It is an affair of great importance to the timber interest, not only to the buyers and sellers, but to those who handle the timber.

Nothing very definite is yet known in our vicinity as to its truth and doubts are entertained, from the fact that similar reports, proving false, have been gotten up by lower pilots, in order to intimidate raft owners and lead them to discriminate in their favor against Marietta pilots.

A test will be made by two pilots, the Hippie and Fred. Waller. They have made up several rafts at Columbia and will run a light one down. The river is very high and they will have the advantage of plenty of water.

About 40 invitations had been sent out, but the inclement weather diminished the number of persons present to about 20. A very enjoyable occasion it was, and extensive preparations had been made by way of feast.
