Lancaster Intelligencer. FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 11, 1881. Miss Mortimer. BY W. T. WALLER.

The bills proclaim her an Amazon Queen in the sort of "fakement" to which Bowker, lessee and manager, finds his Milchester audience of bloated cotton swells, used up "hands" and heavy dragons can most promptly and profitably be put to "tanbark."

Outside the green-room some one lurks about expectant of her—a stunted Caliban in a grimy jacket and paper cap, whose countenance exhibits an uncouth arrangement of the objectionable passions in dirt and white.

means what she says, when he finds himself held steadily, coldly at arm's length, with never a chance of breaking down this woman's guard.

She looks dangerous enough as she leaves him with this warning; but to him it only means that she is a very angry woman. Justifiably angry, no doubt.
