Frank Pyle, miller in the lower end of Lancaster county, was the possessor of a handsome and long beard. While he was ongaged in greasing some machinery in his mili his whiskers got entangled in the wheels and were actually torn from his face. The accident was an exceedingly painful one, but the fact of their being torn out no doubt saved his life.

The fine large stone barn of Townsend W. Evans, of South Coventry, Chester county, has been destroyed by fire. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The loss is $2,000, on which there is an insurance of $1,400.

Miss Hattie B. Trimble, of West Chester, has strawberries ready for market. They sell for $5 per quart. She also has beautiful ripe tomatoes which bring just half the price of the strawberries per quart. West Chester has at present two sources from which to obtain water, neither of which separately will afford a full supply many years. During the dry season Bath spring furnishes less than 40,000 gallons per day, and Chester creek about 210,000 gallons per day, making a daily consumptian of 250,000 gallons. This is thrown into the present basin at an elevation of 85 feet from the former and 62 feet from the latter place. In dry seasons this amount is all the borough has to depend upon, and the present reservoir holds but slightly over a day's supply.

Some scamps broke in the door of Hostetters's school house, in the southeastern part of Jackson township, Lebanon county, took some of the scholars' copies and Allen German, the teacher's report and other papers, piled them under the desk and set them on fire, with the object no doubt, of burning the school house, but happily the fire only scorched the desk and did no further damage. This is the third attempt made this winter to burn the building.

The surveying party of a new telegraph line reached Oxford last week. This line is being built by the Mutual Union tele graph company and extends from Boston to Washington. The superintendent of construction is Mr. James Fite, formerly of Oak Hill, Lancaster county, who has had large experience in building telegraph lines. This line is partially completed and is in operation between Boston and New York, and the construction party is now working between Washington and Baltimore. It is being built in a very substantial manner, and when finished will be one of the most complete lines in the country.

TWO BOLD THIEVES.

They Steal Whisky and are Caught. Yesterday afternoon between 2 and o'clock two men who bear a close resemblance to tramps went into the Fairmount hotel, on East King street, which is kept by John Bruder. The proprietor was not at home and the men asked Mrs. Bruder to give them each a drink of whisky for nothing. This the lady refused to do and the men left, stating that they would get square with her. Mrs. Bruder went back into the kitchen, but she soon heard a noise in the barroom. She went in and found that the men were back and each had taken a bottle of whisky from behind the bar. When they saw her they both fled but she gave chase to one of them named John McKay. He ran out East King and down Ann street. The woman yelled "stop theif" at the top of her voice. Wm. B. Middleton happened to be passing along Ann street the time, and seeing the man running from the woman he caught ho'd of him, and after some little difficulty, handed him over to the police. The name of the other man was John Stanton; he was pursued for a short distance but he escaped for the time. Later in the afternoon, after Bruder had returned home, Stanton was seen going into Zieg er's hotel, on East King street. Bruder was informed of this and he waited until Stanton came out, when he Joe Bender started after him, Stanton took to his heels, but the men followed him to a point near the What Glen picnic grounds, where they overtook him. They brought him back to this city and gave him into the hands of the police. Alderman Donnelly, of the Seventh ward, committed both men for a hearing. It was thought until last evening by Mr. Bruder and his wife that the men had stolen $50, which was in a package in the barroom. and that is the reason that they gave them such a hot chase. After both men were caught, however, it was found that the money was safe.

Council met on Tuesday evening. Out-side of the regular proceedings, the only matter of interest was that instructions were given to David Dennison to repair the leak into John Campbell's cellar, that comes from the alley adjoining his property. The opening of the sewer that was built in the alley, instead of being in the middle, is close to Mr. Campbells foundation wall, and the water during a late rain not finding a free outlet from the alley found its way possibly through rat holes into the cellar and filling it. In which delightful condition it is now. The Chickies rolling mills were com-pelled to stop for the remainder of the week on account of the height of Chickies creek. MAYOR'S COURT.

Drunks, Fighters and Loquacious Woman This morning the mayor had several customers before him. Two of the number were Wm. King and Bernard Gallagher, two hard-looking customers who were arrested by Officers Merringer and Holman while they were fighting on East King street. King showed up this morning with an eye on him which looked like a gum shoe, and the mayor gave him 20 days in prison in order to take the color out of it. Bernard was sent for 20 days to the same institution as he has a bad reputation and is in the habit of getting into fights in that part of the city. Frank McGuire was the third customer to receive his honor's attention. He was found very drunk lying on Orange street, by Officer Cramer. He was given 10 days in jail, and by the time he comes out he will know in which part of the prison cell "81" is located.

Mary Wise was released from prison this murning and she came into the station house while the hearings were being held by the mayor. She was dressed in her best clothes and was very cheerful. She was very hard to keep quiet, however, and while a witness was being examined by the mayor, she began to interrupt the hearing by loud talking. Wine Products in New Jersey. This state is becoming celebrated for its wines. Some of the richest in the world are produced in New Jersey, by Mr. A. Speer, whose name has become celebrated as a producer of strictly pure unadulterated Port Grape Wine. The wine of Mr. Speer is not bo tled or put in market until it is four years old, and has become thoroughly fine and mellow. It has proved itself a wonderful assistant to physicians, who prescribe it. This wine recommended for debilitated persons, and s given to consumptives. The difficulty of getting an imported or even a pure California Port is well understood to be so great as to preclude doctors from allowing their patients o run the risk of its use. Mr. Speer being aware of this fact has taken the utmost care in the making of his wine, so as to supplant the imported wines by producing a genuine article. His wines are known by chemists to be pure and the most reliable for medicinal purposes. The druggists throughout the country sell it, as bottled by Mr. Speer.-N. Y. Tribune. It is Settled But not Yet Disclosed. Washington, March 11-1:30 P. м.-The cabinet just adjourned, having decided the national bank question and instructed Secretary Windom to prepare a decision on the subject which he will endeavor to complete by 4 o'clock this afternoon. Until that time nothing can be said authoritatively as to what the nature of the decision will be.

It is considered in unofficial quarters that in the event of the refusal of the request made by the national banks to withdraw their deposits made for the purpose of retiring their circulation, it is quite probable that the secretary of the treasury will invite proposals for the sale of United States bonds, in order to prevent any stringency in the money market This opinion, however, is not entertained by government treasury officials, who, in reply to inquiries on the subject this afternoon, said that while the cabinet may determine to pursue that course, the matter has not been considered at the department.

The treasury department has returned to the following named banks the amount of the legal tenders deposited for the purpose of retiring their circulation : Gettysburg national bank, of Gettysburg, Pa., $85,500; Boone County national bank, Columbus, Mo., $45,000 ; National Albany Exchange bank, Albany, N. Y., $270,000 : First national bank, Troy, N. Y., $90,000 the National Bank of West Troy, N. Y., $74,500; First national bank, Westfield, N. Y., $45,000; Thames national bank, Norwich, Conn., $500,000.

This action was taken under the ruling of the department which has been in force since the passage of the act of 1874 and which allows any bank to withdraw the legal tenders deposited to retire circulation, when the bonds have not been withdrawn and the deposit of legal tenders has not been impaired by the redemption of any part of the bank's circulation. The above amount was paid by checks on the sub-treasurer at New York.

IN THE SENATE.

Judge Davis Modestly Declines but will Vote with the Democrats. WASHINGTON, March 11.-In the Senate Mr. Pendleton called up his resolution for the formation of Senate committees. Mr. Davis (Ills.) said he would vote with ship of the judiciary committee.

A Point of Order.

The vice president sustained a point of order raised by Mr. Conkling that the resolution for the re-rga nization of the Senate committees is not now in order. The decision was appealed from by Mr. Pendleton, Messrs, Hill vice president should be overruled. In discussing the point of order Mr. Conk ling said that was proposed on the Friday preceding the Tuesday when the Senate would be full to elect all of the committees of the Senate for the present session. It is proposed by that party which now prevailed on account of vacancies in seats -that party which had sought in vain an alliance with the independent party of the Senate-to do to-day by force, by its own votes, what it could not do on Wednesday next. He did not think that the organization of the Senate should be a trip and twitch to be formed in one way to day and in another to-morrow. Before any vote had been taken upon the appeal from the decision of the vice president, but after quite a long discuscussion, the Senate at 2:30 went into executive session.
