FOUND DEAD IN EAST EARL.

The Insane Wife of William in the Woods.

Special Telegram to the INTELLIGENCER. New Holland, March 12.-The body of the dead negro woman, found yesterday in the woods near Ranck's church, East Earl township, has been identified as that of the wife of Wm. Watson, a somewhat notorious negro, who ranged along the northern border of the Welsh monntains. He was arrested, tried, convicted and is now serving a term of imprisonment on a number of charges of chicken stealing. His wife was subject to fits of insanity and it is supposed that she died in some sort of a fit. Her body was found by Eli Dunlap while on his way to work. The conclusion of the coroner's jury has not yet been reported.

ANOTHER MYSTERIOUS DEATH. "Gent eman" David Kurtz Found Dead is

Special to the INTELLIGENCER.

NEW HOLLAND, March 12, 1881.-David Kurtz, better known as "Gentleman David," who resided near the White Horse, Salisbury township, was found dead in the field near his house this morn ing at three o'clock. His friends here have not learned the particulars of the affair.

LATER PARTICULARS. David Kurtz was the elder brother of family well known in the east end of Lancaster county. He was 66 years of age. unmarried and resided with his brother. Elias, and two maiden sisters, about half a mile north of the White Horse hotel, kept by John Mason, Last evening he went over to the village postoffice to get his mail and left Mr. Mason's hotel, in his usual good health and spirits, about 9 p. m. Not returning to the house by 10 o'clock, as was his wont, his family became alarmed and his brother went in search of him. He was found dead by the roadside about quarter of a mile from his home. It is supposed he died from heart disease. He was a man of temperate habits and high character, well known and highly respected as a good neighbor and citizen and an earnest, loyal Democrat.

> COURT. Business Transacted this Morning.

Court met at 10 o'clock this morning for the purpose of hearing current business. George M. Kline, esq., and John B. Kevinski were reappointed trustees of the Children's Home, their terms having expired. Mrs. Sarah Cox and Mrs. S. A. Gibbs were also reappointed lady managers.

The court made an order directing the county commisioners to pay to the Home the sum of $10,000 (the annual appropriation) as follows: $2,000 on the first Monday of April $2,000 on the first Monday of May, and $1,000 on the first Monday of amount is paid. The treasurer of the home was ordered to make out and itemized account of the receipts and expenditures of the institution up to January

Joseph Weaver was appointed constable of Cærnarvon township to fill the unexpired term of R. M. Arters, who resigned, having been elected justice of the peace. Joseph M. Jones and Philip S. Bush were appointed road commissioners of Sadsbury township. The former takes the place of John C. Jones, deceased, and the latter that of Robert Maxwell, who resigned.

Court adjourned to meet on the third monday in March.

Sheriff's Sales. Sheriff Strine sold at sheriff's sale at the court house, this city, this afternoon, the following described real estate: A lot of ground, on the south side of St. Joseph street, in Lancaster, with a one-and-a half story frame dwelling and other improvements, as the property of Ja ob Adams. Sold to A. A. Myers & Co., for

A tract of land in Drumore township, containing 68 acres, with a two-story frame dwelling house, bank barn and other out-buildings as the property of Hi-ram Shuman. Sold to Geo. D. Shuman for $1,100. A lot of ground on the west side of North Queen street, Lancaster, with a one story frame shop, frame office attached, frame stable and other outbuildings. As the property of William P. Frailey, Sold to D. P. Rosenmiller, esq., for $600. A tract of land containing 35 acres, in East Lampeter township, with a two story double brick dwelling house with a twi-story kitchen attached, bank barn and other outbuildings, as the property of Stephen H. Cooper. Sold to David N. Landis for $950.

Dedication of St. Stephen's. The dedication services of St. Stepheu's Lutheran church, of which Rev. Emil Meister is pastor, will commence tomorrow morning, and will be of an elaborate and impressive charcharacter. There will be several learned clergymen present, and the services will be conducted in both English and German languages. There will be a series of meetings Sunday afternoon and evening, and also Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—the dedicatory services concluding or Wednesday evening. St. Stephen's church of which a very full description was printed in the INTELLIGENCER a few weeks ago, is one of the handsomest church edi-fices in this city, being of fine architect-ural design, substantially built, with lofty steeple, and furnished and decorated interiorly in the best style of art-the walls and ceiling being frescoed by Reingruber. Doubtless the attendance during the dedicatory services will be very large.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.

A Family Rendered Homeless, On Thursday evening about 8 o'clock a coal oil lamp exploded at the residence of Charles Anderson, near the mouth of the Tucquan creek, opposite Hartman's island. The blazing oil set fire to the bed and the flames spreading to the building, which was of frame, it was soon in a blaze and burned to the ground. Mr. Anderson was in Lancaster at the time delivering tobacco, and there being nobody about the house except his wife and sister and a small child, very little of the furniture could be saved. The fire has rendered the family homeless. They are temporarily, however, provided for by neighbors.

This morning while handling a self-cocking pistol, John Martin, jr., of the Relay house accidently discharged the weapon and shot off the and a few stock.

This afternoon while Harvoy Sener was at work at Flinn & Willson's shops, making stove pipe, he got his fingers between the rolls and crushed them very badly. Harvey is unlucky. It will be remembered that two or three years ago he fell from a three or four-story building and frac-tured his skull so badly that a piece of it had to be removed.

John Hood, the Robrerstown colored man, by whom it is alleged the ear of Thomas Smith was bitten off in the fight f Monday night, was taken before Judge Patterson, by whom he was admitted to bail on the mayhem charge, in the sum of $800. Dr. Herr testified before his honor that he has been attending Smith since be has been in jail, and he is out of danger.

Al. Resenctein's Challenge This popular young ciothing merchant takes a new departure and, like a wise man, lets the neople know it through the newspapers. He is having an elegant. new store room fitted up for his increased and increasing business, and not proposing "to putold wine into new bot-ties," will sell off his present stock at marvelously low prices to' make room for the new.
