San-Ah-Brah spoke extremely correct English and with great distinctness, he having first been educated in a mission school in India, and came to this country about twelve years ago, and is now studying medicine at Jefferson medical college, Philadelphia. After having completed the study he designs returning to his own country to labor. During the address the speaker was listened to with much attention, and collections were taken up.

The lecturer had, back of the pulpit, a number of charts portraying the different full native costume.

Another Burglary. On Saturday night burglars forced at entrance into the residence of Capt. It may be noticed as a somewhat peculiar coincidence that Capt. Umble had showed the money to some of his friends on Saturday evening, saying that he had collected a part of it during the day. It is supposed that the burglar was not far off at the time, saw the captain's money and made up his mind to get it.

Surprise Party in Manor.

Thursday evening of last week a "surprise party" of some thirty couples visited the residence of Mr. Abram Leonard, in Manor township. They found their welcome none the less cordial because they hadn't been invited, and Mr. Leonard was indefatigable in his exertions to make his guests comfortable. After the first effects of the surprise had passed, the party engaged the swiftly fleeting hour in social games, music and dancing. The visitors having come abundantly supplied with good things, a bountiful supper was spread, and the wants of the "inner" line the evening the sermon was preached by Dr. McCullough, the assistant pastor. man"-and woman-were satisfied. ST. STEPHEN'S.

DEDICATORY SERVICES AT THE NEW LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Congregations—Eloquent Sermons-ne Music—Large Collections—Beau-tiful Decorations. St. Stephen's Lutheran church, corner of Duke and Church streets, a full description of which recently appeared in the INTELLI-

GENCER, was yesterday dedicated to the worship of God, with impressive services, in presence of very large congregations. The decoration of the altar and chancel with fresh flowers, ivy and other trailing plants, was very profuse. The altar was covered with a very fine cloth of royal purple, with gold bullion fringe and heavy gold tassels. In front of it was a golden sheaf of wheat, illustrative of the bread of life, and upon it were a number of vases gods and goddesses, and also some original filled with fresh and fragrant flowers of idols from Burmah, and was clothed in choicest variety and skillfully blended choicest variety and skillfully blended colors. Inside the chancel rail were several large vases upon pedestals, filled with blooming flowers and trailing vines. In front of the chancel rail were placed a row of decorated flower pots, containing lilies, geraniums, bigonias and many other superb plants in bloom, and on stands placed upon the chancel rail were several large and elegant bouquets.

The Dedicatory Services. Long before the time announced for the commencement of the dedicatory services (10:30 a. m.) the church was filled to its utmost capacity. Rev. F. W. Conrad, D. D., of Philadelphia, editor of the Lutheran Observer, and Rev. J. H. Menges, of Grace Lutheran church, Philadelphia, occupied seats in the pulpit along with the pastor, Rev. Emil Meister.

The service was opened by the choir under the leadership of Mr. Adam Oblender, singing with great spirit the beauti-ful anthem "When the Lord shall build up Zion," with organ accompaniment by Mr. Christian Oblender. The dedicatory psalm was read by the pastor after which the congregation sang the German hymn "Nun danket alle Gott."

Rev. Meister then read in German from the liturgy, the established form prescribed for the dedication of a church to the worship of God, after which another hymn was sung by the congregation.

Rev. J. H. Menges, of Grace Lutheran church, Philadelphia, preached the dedicatory sermon, taking for his text the 1st and evening and discoursed upon the subject, | 2d verses of the 84 Psalm : How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the Lord ;my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living faith."

The reverend gentleman spoke in German. After congratulating the congregation on the completion of their beautiful house of worship, to accomplish which they had worked for some years past so faithfully and zealously, the preacher said pleted his second year's service as pastor of the M.E. Church of this place. Commu-wrote the Psalm from which the text was taken, while he was absent from the sanctuary, and while longing to return to it. At 3 o'clock the church was again crowded. Rev. Dr. Conrad preached in English from Isaiah, 2d chapter, 3d verse. His discnourse was eloquent, impressive and instructive. He was followed by the pastor, Rev. Emil Meister, in German, who based his discourse on the text found on the 17th chapter of Matthew, 4th verse, "Lord, it is good for us to be here." Rev. Dr. Greenwald, of Trinity Lutheran church, made a brief address and dismissed the congregation. During the services another large collection was lifted during which the choir sang a fine selection.

Evening Service.

In the evening the house was packed to its utmost capacity. After an anthem had been sung by the choir, prayer was offere by Rev. J. S. Stahr, of Franklin and Marshall college. This was followed by congregational singing after which Rev. Sylvanus Stall, of St. John's, preached an able sermon in English and was followed by Rev. J. H. Dubbs, D. D. of Franklin and Marshall college, who spoke eloquently in German. During the evening service there was another liberal collection lifted and some fine choral and congregational

Last night about 11 o'clock private watchman Edw. Shuebrooks discovered that a water pipe which had been frozen had burst in Lewis Sylvester's eigar factory, North Cherry alley. He at once gave notice to Mr. Sylvester, but not in time to entirely prevent loss, two cases of tobacco being badly soaked with water. Other cases would have been ruined had they not been removed, as the leak could not be stopped until this morning. Charles F. Keller was held in bail by Alderman Barr to answer at court the charge of surety of the peace preferred by Joseph Beyer.
