THE LEAF.

The Local Tobacco Trade. The past week has been notable as the week during which more tobacco was bought and more delivered than during any other week this season. There were also a greater number of buyers in the field and a consequently rather more competition in securing choice crops. The total purchases of the crop of 1880 thus far made in this county are estimated at fully 20.000 cases, and some think the amount still larger. Some buyers are said to have already secured all they want. Mr. Goslinsky, of San Francisco, is said to have taken 500 cases and stopped buying, as he is not well pleased with the crop. Messrs. Rosen-shine, Rosenwald and Merfield & Bachman are also reported as slacking up in their purchases for the same reason, but their places are filled by new buyers from abroad and we hear of a few of our local buyers who have not yet entered the market who intend to commence operations. These last named profess to believe that they can easily secure all want of the crop, and get of as good quality as any yet purchased. On the other hand, buyers who have been purchasing largely, and who have visited all section of the county declare that the cream of the crop has been already been secured and that while there is an immense quantity of the crop yet remaining unsold, the bulk of it ing condition, but the rafts do not apwill be found to be of inferior quality.

Of old tobacco we hear only of a few sales, aggregating about 100 cases, all told. The terms of sale were private, but are said to be "stiff." There is but little '79 tobacco in the Lancaster market and to this cause is owing the eagerness of our local buyers to secure the cream of the Business goes on very actively at nearly all the packing houses. Of the men who depend for a winter livelihood on work at sorting and easing tobacco, and who this persons interested in the work. season waited so long in vain, hundreds are now at work in the city packing houses. Messrs. Skiles & Frey have between 80 and 90 hands employed. Teller Bros. had about 25 employed last week, and judging from the great quantities of leaf received by this firm within a few days past it is evident they will require an increased force of workmen. Messrs. Oppenheimer, Rosenwald, Moore, Frey & Weidler, and a dozen other city packers, employ large numbers of men and when their purchases begin to come in more rapidly will doubtless require additional

Our Conestoga correspondent sends us the following sales: Benj. Gardner, 2 acres to Dr. B. S. Kendig, at 19, 6 and 3; Adam Brady, 1 acre to same at 15, 5 and 3; and 14 acre to same at 10 and 3; Lewis Kirk 13 acre to Fatman & Co., at 181, 10, 6 and 3. Martin B. Herr of Pequea township has sold to Amos McAllister 21 acres at 15, 5 and 3; and Benj Herr, of Pequea, to same, his crop at 15, 5 and 3.

Our Drumore correspondent writes that Robert J. Barnes sold a lot of tobacco to Skiles & Fry for 23, 8 and 3: another lot for 18, 7 and 3; and another for 18, 8 and 3. Pa. The same firm bought William Risk's crop for 18, 8 and 3; and Israel Penrose's crop for 20, 6 and 3, and J. O. Wilcox They will continue to work on full time bought Alex Carroll's for 18, 6 and 3. Our Marietta correspondent writes as follows: A great amount of tobacco was delivered on Saturday last. Quite a number of large wagon loads came in and a few sales are reported: Levi Miller re-ceived 16½, 6 and 3 for 3 acres; Benj. Shields 3 acres at 18, 6 and 3; Fred. Waller a small lot for 30 cents and the fillers and seconds thrown in. It was a nice lot with comparatively little of the lower grades. John Shields, 28, 10 and 5-another good lot. Our Salisbury correspondent sends along the following items of interest: The tobacco trade has been lively for the past week. Several new buyers have been among us. Messrs. Worst & Shertz have bought several crops, Shindle & Hershey, secured quit a number of crops in Salisbury, and Prangley bought of William Henderson 2 acres at 18 and 3; and of Christian Eby 4 acres at 20, 6 and 3, there still remains a few prime crop for sale. The packers in Worst & Shertz establishment held their oyster supper on last Saturday evening and the affair proved a grand success. Invitations had been extended to all parties who had delivered their crops to this place and most of them were present, they were highly gratified, and expressed themselves through their chosen representative Messrs. Wm Coffroath and L. Hilton who both made very neat and impressive speeches. Thanking and congratulating the packers on their very palatable cutertainment, on behalf of the packers. Mr. Isaac Coffroath, jr., responded, thanking the growers for their kind assistance, rendered in the shape of liberal donations contributed by them which enabled the packers to give this very acceptable entertainment, after all had done due justice to both edibles and drinkables, the time was whiled away for a couple of hours, by speech making and music, when all went home happy hoping that the packers may be able to repeat the entertainment next season. Some unprincipled parties, a few evenings ago, took possession of the beer in-tended for the tobacco packers, and stole nearly a keg, rendering what was left unfit for use. Some people in this vicinity have an idea that everything they can lay their fingers upon is public property. They should be taught a lesson for their own moral tenefit, and it is to be hoped that the next time they attempt to appropriate other folks' property they may do Wilhelm, so in such shape that the law can be enforced. It is not pleasant to pay for delicacies and have them appropriated by a party of gourmands, or, more properly speaking, a lot of hogs.

Mr. Linderman, of West Donegal, has sold to Rosenwald Bros. 3 acres at 20, 10 and 6. John Bull, of East Hempfield, has sold 7 acres to Mr. Mayer at 20, 10 and 7; A. E. Evans of Washington borough has sold to Mr. Loeb his crop at 15, 6 and 3; Jacob Linderman of Manor has sold to E. Spingarn & Co. his crop at 22, 8 and 3.

Mayer & Co. have bought in Chester county C. H. Thomas's crop at 18, 61 and 3, and J. A. Cowan's at 18, 5 and 3. D. W. Grow, of York county, has sold to Mr. Kendig one lot at 11 cents through and another lot at 15 and 3.

Mr. Moore has purchased in Dauphin county the following lots: David Wilmer's at 12, 6, 4 and 3; M. Metzger's at 15 through; J. Yeager's at 12 through; J. Bachman's at 10 through, and M. Gyger's at 8 through.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Sheriff Strine is in town to-day. Rev. Henry Wheeler and wife left here to-day to attend the conference of the M. E. church, to be held at Pottsvills, Pa.

Mrs. Wheeler, it is said, will address the conference on missionary work, in which she has aiways taken a deep interest. The conference of the M. E. church of Central Pennsylvania will be held this week at York. Rev. Thomas Guard will lecture on Thursday evening, and, to hear bim, a number of Columbians are making arrangements to procure transportation to

York and return. Some fellow has got a Cumberland clock on exhibition in a vacant store room on Locust street below Third. He will not make a fortune. We have too many of these "public benefactors" visiting us. Samuel Campbell is about ready to open his bazaar for the sale and exchange of horses at Fourth and Walnut streets. His sign is already in place and he will probably commence business in a day or so. Since yesterday there has been a fall of almost a foot in the river at this place and the water has cleared wonderfully. Navi gation will be resumed on the Pennsylvania canal in a very short time-probably between this date and April 1st. Barring the big rocks in the channel at Turkey

Her book, we have no doubt, is well worth reading and will give much knowledge to Fifteen or more wagons heavily loaded with tobacco came here this morning consigned to John Frendrick, and their contents were stored in his warehouse at | Front and Walnut streets. The tobacco ing Tony Denier's large and excellent pantowas mostly from Washington borough, where Mr. Fendrick is a heavy purchaser. The movement of freight over the Penn sylvania railroad is just now very light and as a consequence the extra men are making but little time. Several of the extra engineers, who were talking together the German wonder, and a score of others. This at the depot this morning, remarked that they were making no time at all. BART ITEMS.

Tobacco Notes-School Matters. The indications are that Georgetown will have a tobacco warehouse soon. The Green Tree school closed its session on Friday last and in the evening the pupils gave an entertainment. The entertainment was a very credable one and speaks well for the teacher Mr. F. M. Tront.

Mr. J. Leech, one of the board of school directors, has resigned his position in the board and is about to move to Philadelphia. Mr. Milton Heidlebaugh has been appointed to fill Mr. Leech's unexpired term. The board is now composed of R. B. Aitken, Elwood Jackson, Alban Walton, Aaron Hartman, Dr. John Mar-tin and Mr. Heidlebaugh. When the new board goes into office the only change will be the retiring of Jackson, whose place will be filled by the newly elected, J. Hompsher. The read supervisors are the same who served during the past year. Fully two-thirds of the tobacco crop of

Charged With Horse Stealing. Last night Peter Hess, a young man, while drunk went to the premises of Mrs. John M. Slaymaker in Williamstown, and took from hor stable a horse which he rode to his home. A son of Mrs. Slay-maker saw Hess ride off with the horse and he made complaint against him before Squire Slaymaker. He was arrested by Constable Bowman, and after having a hearing was committed in default of bail, to jail, for trial at court. It is claimed by the young fellow's friends that he was so

This evening the services will be continued, but Rev. Fernsler, who was announced to preach, will be unable to attend, on account of a severe cold. The pastor, and perhaps other clergymen will address the congregation. The services will close tomorrow evening.

Rather Serious Accident. Michael Berry, aged 32 years, who is employed as a rougher at the Penn iron works, met with an accident about 12 o'clock last night. He was standing at the rolls when the hook used for placing in the iron was caught in the rolls. It struck Berry a terrible blow in the face, fracturing his lower jaw. He was knocked to the ground, and in falling his head struck a piece of iron, which badly cut his scalp. He lay insensible for some time was afterwards removed (to No. 313 East Chestnut street, where he boards, and was attended by Dr. Roland. ALAW STUD: NT'S SUICIDE.

Shooting tilmself in Prospect Park, Brook-lyn—No Reason for the Act. The second suicide within six months in Prospect park, Brooklyn, occurred yeste:day. The victim was Lewis H. Cummins, aged nineteen, the son of Humphrey H. Cummins, a lawyer of No 52 Broadway, New York, whose home is No. 243 Tenth street, Brooklyn. The youth left home yesterday afternoon for a walk in the park. After going in at the Ninth street entrance he made his way to the height beyond the pool, which is covered with beyond the pool, which is covered with PHILADSLPHIA. trees, and is usually called "The Woods." Wheat............ 1.17% About 4 o'ciock, two of the park keepers heard the report of a pistol in the direction in which he had gone. They hastened to top of the hill, near the Quaker cemetery whence the sound apparently came. tery whence the sound apparently came, and soon found the young man. He was lying on his left side, near the foot of a ground was an old-fashioned revolver, with one empty chamber, which had just been discharged. The wounded boy was unable to speak and appeared to be rapidly sinking. While one of the keepers remained with him, the other hurried for aid to the house of John Y. Culyer, chief engineer of the park, near the main entrance. A horse and wagon were secured to carry the injured youth to the police station in the park, but soon after he had been placed in the vehicle and while it was slowly proceeding to the sta-tion, he ded. His identity was made known by papers found in his pocket. Coroner Keler was informed, and by his permission the body was taken to Mr. Cummins's house. The father said that his son was a youth of correct habits. He had been studying law in his father's office of late. For some days his parents had noticed that he was very gloomy and despondent, but he gave no reason for it. They supposed that it was a mere temporary depression and would soon pass away. Nothing was more remote from their minds than that he would take his own life. Young Cummins was popular and his manners were very pleasing, but he was somewhat fond of solitude. No one was able last night to assign any cause for his taking his life.

A Bad Man.

Denis Fenton, a contractor on the West ern Maryland railroad, at Chambersburg, six feet four inches in height and weighing 340 pounds has been stirring uy the natives in that locality. A constable undertook to arrest him for assaulting an entire family, but was fain to beat a hasty retreat before the prowess of this mighty giant. Finally the sheriff persuaded him to yield himself and he was placed in durance vile. The first night after his incarceration he placed his clothes on the stove in his cell and set fire to them. The Chambersburg fire department Was called out and distinguished the flames. The next morning he was released. The judge of the court having reprimanded the local police authorities for permitting such a dangerous man to be at large, Fenton hastened into court where be addressed the most violent and insulting language to the judge. The correspondent describes his language on that occasion as most profaue and revolting. Although the court ordered his trial to proceed he was so violent that the judge directed him to leave the court room, This order he would not obey except on condition that the cour would address him as "Mister" Fenton. Finally the judge requested "Mr. Fenton" to leave and the fellow then withdrew amid a streak of fearful expletives. He was afterwards bound over in $500 bail for his appearance at court.

Bunting Mooushiners. United States Deputy Marshal James Heflin, with ten men, entered Letcher county, Ky., on March 5th, in search of shiners. His first objective point was Rockford valley, among the foot hills of the Cumberland mountains. The moonshiners, apprised of his approach, or-ganized, and, taking a six-pounder brass cannon left there by Gen. John Morgan during the war, masked it and awaited the marshal's approach. When the marshal and his party entered the pass the moonshiners fired the piece, charged with nails, scraps of iron and the like, but ovshot the mark. The marshal's party, none of whom was hurt, dismounted, captured
