COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. The Philadelphia & Reading railroad pay car was in town this morning, and the employees were paid for February's work. A new platform is being laid in front of the Reading & Columbia railroad depot at this place. Mr. William Hiteshue's class of the Bethel Sunday-school yesterday presented a handsome hymn book to Rev. J. II. Esterline, pastor of the church. Billy Andrews's company left here for Baltimore on Saturday afternoon at 3:05

The rainy weather of the past few days cleared away last evening and gave place to a starry sky, but this morning it is again ominous looking.

Michael Barry, who was injured at Lancaster a few days ago, was brought to his home at this place this morning. Barry was married to a Miss Hendricks, of Columbia, a few weeks ago. The Port Deposit passenger train, which leaves here at 7:45 o'clock, was detained an hour this morning by freight trains in the upper yard. The prospect is that the Rentz-Santiey company, who appear here to-morrow evening, will have a large house. Miss Lyda McCorkie, of Oxford, Pa., is visiting Miss Mazie E. Purple. Abram F. Boyer, a Harrisburg man, while coupling cars at this place at noon yesterday, had his left arm caught between two dead woods and severely squeezed. Dr. Alex. Craig, who attended to the injury, discovered that no bones There has been a rapid rise in the river since Saturday, and the water is now within a few inches of being as high as it was at any time during the recent ice freshet. Much driftwood has been passing here. Wm. O. Campbell, a brakeman on the Reading & Columbia railroad, while attempting to make a coupling at Millway station, this morning, had his knee caught between the tender of an engine and a coal car, and very severely squeezed. Dr. P. J. Roebeck, of Lititz, attended to the injury on the spot, and Campbell was brought to his home at this place on the 10:15 train this morning. Campbell, a couple of months ago, had his hand injured on the railroad. Last summer he lost three children from diphtheria. A couple of canal boats lashed together passed here on the river yesterday via the raft channel. They were not heavily loaded and we presume had no trouble in passing the sunken rock at TurkeyHill. One raft also passed down.

Rev. J. H. Esterline, pastor of the Bethel church, at Seventh and Walnut, read the following list of officers of the church last evening: Elders-William Hiteshue, J. C. Graybill and Taylor Gable. Deacons-Joshua Strouse, John Pearson, Adam Snyder and Amos Groff.

No services were held in the M. E. church yesterday morning or evening, the pastor, Rev. Henry Wheeler, being in attendance at the Philadelphia conference at Pottsville. A minister from the central Pennsylvania conference, now in session at York, was expected to preach, but he failed to turn up.

The teachers' institute, at its session on Saturday, had before it no question of any importance. Miss Carrie D. Ames, of Maytown, was a visitor. employees of the ing mill were paid on Saturday. We understand that a couple of members of the new band recently organized here will go to Philadelphia to-day to purchase instruments.

Lightning was in attendance on the storm of Saturday evening. Communion services were held in St. Paul's Episcopal church yesterday morn-

Mr. Griffiths, of Reisterstown, Md., spent yesterday with friends in town. Mr. Frederick Buener is visiting to-day at Philadelphia.

Rev. J. W. Deshong will preach his farewell sermon in the Church of God on next Sunday evening. Mr. Deshong has accepted a charge at Altoona. Rev. A. D. Rowe addressed the E. E.

Lutheran Sunday-school yesterday afternoon and in the evening preached a sermon on missionary work. This evening he will lecture in the E. E. Lutheran church on "The Customs of the People of

There was a dance in Desch's hall on Saturday night.

The lock-box department of the postoffice was open all day yesterday to allow persons wishing, to secure their mail. The call-boxes could be reached only at the regular Sunday hour-from 9 to 10 a. m. The departments were separated by a temporary gate which was locked in Auctioneer Gallagher, of Mount Joy, was too ill on Saturday night to fill his engagement here. Mrs. Jacob Wall, of Philadelphia, is visi iting her daugher, Mrs. Chas. E. Smith.

Mrs. Mary Harris is dead. ARGUMENT! COURT.

The Famous Grabb vs. Grabb Case Begun, This morning the regular week of argument court began with both judges on the bench. Nearly all the cases were found to be ready for argument upon the calling

After the list had been called the case of Clement B. Grubb vs. A. Bates Grubb, was attached. This is an action submitted to the court by agreement of parties, for the court to ascertain, under purchase and deed of transfer from the plaintiff to defendant, of his interest in the Mount Hope furnace, with the right to take ore from the Cornwall ore mines, what amount of ore he has to convey to him, or whether he has a right, as he is now doing, to take all that the Mount Hope furnace can consume. The testimony, which is being submitted to the court is all from a printed book of what was previously taken in the cases. The plaintiff is represented by Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, Amos Slaymaker and S. H. Reynolds, esqs. David W. Sellers, of Philadelphia, T. E. Franklin, II. M North and George M. Kline, esqs., are counsel for the defense.

In the case of Jacob Swade and Michael Snyder, executors of Wm. Hemling, vs. Henry L. Brubaker, defendant, and Sam'l Eaby and Henry Wolgemuth, executors of Rev. Henry Brubaker's garnishees, judgment in open court against the garnishees was entered for $450.87, the amount admitted to be in their hands as per answer filed, the garnishees to be allowed their reasonable expenses out of the same.

In our vicinity it was merely a long continued rain, commencing on St. Patricks day (the 17) and continuing with greater or less violence until last evening. To-day the air is damp and cold with occasional streaks of sunshine, that give promise of more pleasant weather.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Notable Events Briefly Related. Quite a number of persons went to the court house this morning to hear the new attorney general, Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, argue the Grubb case. He talked for some time, and left for Philadelphia at 1:40 p. m.

This morning two boys engaged in a fight at North Queen and Chestnut streets. They rolled in the mud until they looked like coal cars and they finished withou seriously hurting each other. It was Alfred Gregg, late of Drumore township, who was murdered in Leadville, Col. His mother resides in York county and his brother in Fulton township. They anxiously await letters containing particulars of his tragic death. He had been mining.

The funeral of Samuel Hallow, who was killed at New Providence, took place at his late home in Conestoga Centre yesterday. It was very largely attended by relatives and sympathizing friends of the family. The services were conducted by Rev. Daniel Rineer and the interment was made at the Methodist church in the village.

A young man named William Keller, residing in the Eighth ward, was arrested last evening for assaulting Johann Shantz. first by knocking a cigar out of his mouth and then by striking him with a stone, cutting him rather severely. When arrested Keller had "nippers" put upon him by Officer Harman, but being appealed to by his sister the officer removed them. When near the lock-up, Keller gave the offier the slip and ran like a greyhound, the officer following him as far as the high school building, where he was lost sight of.

Mrs. Margaret Stark, the wife of Jacob Stark, died on Saturday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Amanda Kleiss, 502 North Queen street, aged 84 years. Her funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon at half past 1 o'clock. Mrs. Catherine McDonnell, wife of Samuel McDonnell, died yesterday at the residence of her son, Samuel McDonnell, No. 125 Middle street, in the 81st year of her age. Her funeral will take ploce on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The husbands of both the above named old ladies survive them, and both are, we believe, even older than their departed wives.

STREET-LOAFING.

A Vigorous Crusado Begun by the Police The city police have taken a new departure in a vigorous enforcement of the ordinance against corner-loating. The blue-coats were kept busy all day yesterday and especially in the evening, warning and dispersing knots of boys and young men gathered on the corners and at points along the sidewalk for no other apparent purpose than to watch pedestrians. It is very annoying for ladies who have occasion to be on the street after nightfall to run the gauntlet, and often to push their way through a party of inquisitive and illbred young fellows, who haven't any seruples in passing remarks upon whatever peculiarity of appearance or dress may happen to engage their notice. The police will be encouraged by all good citizens in their crusade against what has become an intolerable nuisance. Sunday night is one that puts the energies of the officers to the crucial test, the corners and sidewalks being habitually lined with professional loafers on that evening, but last night the cops" were equal to the emergency, and kept the hangers around moving pretty lively. The ordinance against this oflense is very explicit, declaring "that no person shall loaf or lounge upon the pavements, corners or cross walks of this city under penalty of $10 fine or 48 hours' imprisonment.

Before the Mayor. This morning the mayor had a number of customers before him. Eleven lodgers were discharged. John Moran, who is a regular tramp, was fighting on Manor street and was arrested by Officer Harman on Saturday night. He was sent to jail for 40 days for being drunk and was held in bail to answer at court the charge of being a tramp.

James Lindhurst, and his wife Annie, two old offenders, were arrested at the depot, while drunk by Officer Titus. They made some resistence but were lodged safely in the stationhouse and this morning were sent out for 45 days each.

Emma Archy, colored, whose face is as familiar to the police as the face of the town clock, was arrested on Middle street last night by Officer Merringer, while she was drunk. She got thirty days. Three other drunks were sent out for terms of 15, 20 and 30 days and two were held for a further hearing.

O. U. A. M. Working Under the New Ritual.

Conestoga Council No. 8 of United American Mechanics of this city, has received and is now working under the new ritual which has recently been promulgated by the national council. This council is one of the most prosperous under the jurisdiction of the state council of Pennsylvania. Its membership is over two hundred and it assets on January 1 last amounted to $10,990.70, invested in first class five and six per cent bonds. The council will celebrate its thirty-fifth anniversary on March 23, when a number of the officers of the state and national councils are expected to be present. A new council of the order will shortly be instituted in this city. The application for the charter already contains the names of ninety applicants. It is expected that the council will be instituted prior to the meeting of the annual session of the state good common sense, and if he means to run the department so as to support and improve a system of common schools, for all the children of the state, then the change is a good one. But, if the new superintendent is merely a very polite gentleman, excessively fond of himself, constantly fishing for honor and personal flattery, and if he is chuck full of vanity and egotism and if he believes and acts out the belief that the office of superintendent exists only for his own special glorification, then there was no necessity for any change, and in that case the change can only be excused or justified by the principle of rotation in office. New Era Editorial Paragraph.

The Carlisle Herald thinks the last line in Prof. Wickersham's letter to the Press, make public hereafter, "shows him to be a sorchead," and that "he intended that mil-2wd&w this innuendo should be a slur upon Gov. Hoyt!"

Set Out.

This forenoon, John Scherff accompanied by Constable Geist, of Manheim township, and several other men, proceeded to a house on North Lime street, which is ocwrit of possession, and they went to work at once to set all the furniture, &c., belonging to Mrs. Bookmyer out upon the pavement, where they were at last account. This is the second time that Mrs. Bookmyer has been put out of the house for the same cause, but on the other occasion she retook the fort and held it. There was a good deal of noise this morning, but no one has been hurt as yet.

The Bill Pesting Business. Mr. Henry P. Carson, the veteran bill poster, of this city, has sold his boards and ousiness to Henry E. Carson and Harry H. Hensel, energetic and popular young men, who announce that they have en-larged the facilities with which Mr. Carson made the business successful and permanent, and are prepared to satisfactorily execute all work entrusted to them in the line of amusement or commercial bill posting, circular, show bill, programme and invitation distribution.

COAL MINING.

Partial Suspension Asked by a Committee of the Schuylkiil Exchange. PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—The following notice, signed by Wm. H. Johnson, John E. Graeff, John Milnes and R. C. Thomas, a committee of the Schuylkill coal exchange, was issued to the coal operators of Schuylkill county this morning: "The anthracite coal interests have agreed to the stoppage of coal mining on the last three days of next week; that is to say, they will stop work on March 24th, 25th, 26th and the last three days of the week following, that is to say, on March 31st and April 1st and 2d. To carry out fully the spirit of the agree ment it is essential that the mining, hoisting, preparation, and loading, of coal, during those days be entirely discontinued and it is earnestly hoped that the above agreement for suspension will be carried out by every one in perfect good faith."
