IN THE TWILIGHT.

As we grow old, our yesterdays Seeth very dim and distant; We grope, as those in darkened ways, Through all that is existent; Yet far-off days shine bright and clear With suns that long have saded, . And faces dead seem strangely near

As we grow old our tears are few For friends most lately taken, But fall—as falls the summer dow From roses lightly shaken-The chords of memory sweeping. Unlock the lood-gates of our pain For those who taught us weeping.

To those who greet us daily, Or, if some living faces wear The looks that beamed so gayly From eyes long closed, and we should smile In answer to their wooing. 'Tis but the Past that shines the while

As we grow old, our dreams at night Are never of the morrow; Or dark with olden sorrow : And when we wake the names we say Are not of any mortals. But of those in some long dead day don, were enxious that the property should be given up. The "go between" New York lawyers would not agree to this, and it was finally decided to arrest Leary. Scott and Dunlap agreed to testify against him if the funds were not forthcoming. Leary was captured, and while he was in Northampton jail the two men at Concord sent him word that they would "damn him" unless he gave up the property. Leary then came to terms, and a New York lawyer gave the funds to President Edwards in two installments. Leary tried to make it a condition that he be let off, but the prosecuting officers said the case must go on. Scott and Dunlap refused to appear against their comrade after the bonds had been returned, and so the case fell through.

A Rejected Suitor's Ruse. a rejected suitor, who appeared to take his rejection with perfect coolness and good nature, asked the young lady to rehearse the marriage ceremony with him, in order that she might be well posted when the time came for giving her hand to his friendly rival. A minister who was present was asked to assist in the rehearsal, and the girl jokingly consented. The marriage service was gone through, the proper responses made by the principals in the presence of a crowd of amused spectators, and the pair were pronounced man and wife in jest by the minister. Then the fun began. The young man claimed that he was lawfully married and acknowledged the ruse he had resorted to get his bride. The minister saw the part he had been unwittingly made to perform, and had to acknowledge that, in the eye of the law, it was a legitimate marriage. The girl was frantic when she realized the full extent of the joke. She refuses to live with him.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S Vegetable Compound,

The Positive Cure For

All Female Complaints.

This preparation, as its name signifies, consists of Vegetable Properties that are harmless to the most delicate invalid. Upon one trial the merits of this compound will be recognized, as relief is immediate; and when its use is continued, in ninety-nine cases in a hundred, a permanent cure is effected, as thousands will testify. On account of its proven merits, it is to-day recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country.

It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrheea, irregular and painful Menstruation, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Floodings, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Lite.

ness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life.

In fact it has proved to be the greatest and best remedy that has ever been discovered. It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach.

It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its-use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

For Kidney comptaints of either sex this Compound is unsurpassed.
