COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. The large canal boat, of which we spoke yesterday as being stuck on a rock below the dam, is still there with its bow pointing shoreward. We understand that Henry Siple, of Washington borough, was pilot-ing the boat, but that the wind was so strong as to make its management utterly impossible. Unless something is done while the river is high, there will be some difficulty in getting the boat off when the

To day is payday at the Shawnee rolling mill. The Aid society of the church of God met last evening at the residence of R. O. Young on Walnut street below Fifth, and was attended with financial success and much enjoyment. Conductor Wilson P. Miller, of the Frederick division of the Pennsylvania railroad, is off on leave of absence for a few days, and his place is filled by Extra

Conductor John Reagan. The Columbia social club held a business meeting last night. Twenty cars were unloaded at the P. R. R. wareh use before noon to-day-something unusual and the sure index of a look up in business. Samuel F. Eberlein, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in town, The Young Folks' society of the E. E. church held a meeting last evening at the residence of Mr. William Baight, on South Third street. A musical programme was discussed, and after spending a very pleasant evening the "Young Folks" separated but not until Mr. C.C. Hogentogler got the John Carter, the clerk at the P. R. R. freight warehouse, who sprained his ankle a few days ago in stepping from the warehouse platform, has recovered from his injury and left for other quarters, and has been succeeded in his clerkship by Mr. Jacob Bletz, of town.

On and after Sunday, April 3d, the Sunday hour at the postoffice will be from 8 to 9 o'clock in place of from 9 to 10 o'clock as at present. The lock-box department will be open all day.

General Welsh post No. 118, G. A. R., is making arrangements to hold a fair in the armory beginning about May 16th, with the object of raising funds to provide a suitably furnished room for post head quarters and to increase the charity fund of the post.

At the meeting place on North Second to-morrow evening at seven o'clock, Rev. F. W. Staley will preach his last sermen as the pistor of the English Evangelical Lutheran church of this place. Mr. Staley has been pastor of this church for several yeers and while discharging his duties here has made for himself many warm friends who will regret his purposed departure for other fields of labor. Eight bums spent last night in the borough lock-up. Steve Burrells and wife. colored, were drunk and disorderly yesterday and were sent down to-day. The report, unconfirmed as yet, has been floating around town for the past few days that the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad company would lead a helping hand in removing the rocks from the raft channel at Turkey Hill. Officers Elected.

At a recent meeting of Cyrene Commandery No. 34, K. T., the following officers were elected:

Entinent Commander-Simon C. Camp Generali-simo-Christian Hershey. Captain General-Wm. H. Pfahler. Treasurer-Dr. W. G. Taylor. Recorder - A. J. Kauffman, esq.

Dr. Wenger Going to Berks. Richard A. Leinbach, of Bern township, Berks county, who will remove next Thars day to the mill property near Union station recently purchased by him, has rented his tine residence near Leinbachsville to Dr. Gershon Wenger & Son, of Akron Lancaster county. Dr. Wenger, the elder, is a physician of many years experience, and his son has been one of the attendant physicians and surgeons for the past six years in a New York hospital. A physician is much needed in the vicinity of Leinbachstread and Insured for $100,000. William Lutz, of Schaefferstown, Lebanon county, is dead. It is reliably stated that outsiders carry $100,000 insurance on him. He had been ill for some time and policies were only recently issued.

Michael Musser, aged 80, who lately died in the York almshouse, had $20,000 on his life by speculators. Fell from a Wagon, Ernest Henricci, the baker, met with a mishap on East Lemon street yesterday. He accidentally lost his grip of the driving lines, and in attempting to recover it, upset the large box in which he keeps his bread, spilling it upon the street and then falling headlong imself out of the wagon.

Stolen and Recovered

Last night two valuable horses were stolen from the stables of Wilson Brubaker, on the New Holland turnpike, a short distance northeast of this city. The thieves were traced to New Holland, where the horses were abandoned by them and recovered by the owner.

Assault and Battery.

Edw. Butt had a hearing before Alderman McConomy and was held to bail to answer at court for assault and battery on Samuel Lovering.

A Good Stable of Horses For Saie. Cyrus Colvin offers for sale on Monday, as will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere, the stock of his livery, which is very exceptionally good. Mr. Colvin, in fact, has kept such a good class of animals in his business that he has found it unprofitable, and therefore has resolved to relinquish it. Lovers of good horses will find many in his stables to excite their admiration and invite their purchases. His wagons and harness are also firstclass. We are sorry to see this excellent livery discontinued, as a good team is a very enjoyable tuxury, and Mr. Colvin's establish ment has been a credit to the town. Among his horses we notice several fine pairs. The animals are all young and of good style and

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its former elasticity; driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and frettul, can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special causes of periodical pain are permanently removed. Will you heed this? See "Truths."

Itching Piles-Symptoms and Cure. The symptoms are moisture, like perspiration, intense itching, increased by scratching, very distressing, particularly at night, as if pin worms were crawling in and about the rectum; the private parts are sometimes aftected; if allowed to continue very serious results may follow. Mr. Pendleton moved to go into executive session. Rejected—yeas 20, nays 29 -Mr. Mahone present and voting with the Republicans. A motion to lay the motion on the table was lost, yeas 28, nays 29. Mr. Logan said that during the special session held by the Senate in 1852 the officers of the Senate had been elected. He cited this to show that there was a precedent for the position now taken by the Republicans. Mr. Harris said that that was the only precedent that could be found and called attention to the fact that at that time all the old officers had been re-elected except one who had been removed for cause. Mr. Farley inquired of Mr. Logan if he could find any precedent where the domi-nant party had refused to go into executive session to confirm or act upon nominations made by its own president.

Mr. Logan replied by inquiring whether the gentleman could find a precedent where the minority had ever undertaken weeks filibustered against the organizajority.

Mr. Morrill read from a speech made two years ago by the Nestor of the Democratic side [Mr. Saulsbury] at a time when a change of officers was proposed, advising the Republicans to reconcile themselves to their position as a minority and like Christian gentlemen to bear it DRC POSALS FOR BONDS. Mr. Butler retorted by quoting from a tor of the Republican side [Mr. Anthony] n which he stated that he did not think he would ever be found advocating the removal of officers who had performed their PUBLIC SALE —ON MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1881, at No. 249 North Water street, one horse and market wagon, no-top buggy, two-scated carriage, steigh, chopping machine, ropes pulleys and the tools belonging to butchering.
