One hundred natives of Vermont had a maple sugar party at a public ball in Elgin, Ill., on the evening of the 18th inst. They ate 100 pounds of sugar sent from the old state, and told stories, sang songs and danced.

The new public building now going up on the Government Square at Denver, Col., is to be one of the finest structures in the West. One wing is designated for the high school, the other for a free publie library. There will also be a lecture hall with a seating capacity of 1,000.

The official returns of the late election in Indiana on the constitutional amendments have all been received, and show a total of 172,915, against 470,738 votes polled at the last October election. The amendments were all adopted, the majori ties ranging from 75,136 to 90,386. Only one county in the state, Dubois, gave a majority against all of them. One other county, Starke, gave a majority of 7 votes against the first amendment, and voted in favor of the remaining six.

Harry Buhn's Reforms.

Harrisburg Correspondence Pittsburgh Post When the law of 1879, to abotish the stationery business, was passed, it compelled members to furnish their own stationery, as the only stationery furnished was for the standing committees and the officers of the House. The chief clerk was instructed to take charge of the supply, as is his duty. Huhn saw his opportunity and he brought down a good-looking young man with auburn side whiskers to fill the self-made office of storekeeper at $1,000 for 100 days. It was no trouble to get it through George Hall's appropriation committee, only one member showing he could not be convinced by the bland arguments of the boss Philadelphia rooster and trimmer. Wolfe kicked against it as unconstitutional, but the wily Halm suc ceed in getting the bill so amended that the extra officer was not recognized, but Harry's appropriation was increased just $1,000. Ruddiman, Hall and other Philadelphia members stood right up for the steal, but Geo. J. McKee was the only one who dared to oppose it. The batagainst the roosters was hard continued till the hour of adjournment. It will be resumed to morrow, but I have no doubt of its pissage as the boys must be cared for in one way or the other. Formerly 201 members were supplied with more stationery than they wanted, but now twenty-four committees are given a handful each and it is proposed to give a man (George Taylor, of Philadelphia,) $1,000 for taking charge of the immense supply. Wolfe stated in his re-marks that he was chairman of the judiciary (general) committee, which uses more stationery than any other committee of the House, and to the honor of the members not a single sheet of paper was drawn from the state. That makes no difference, however, and the bill must pass.

Chinese Table Etiquette. Amherst Gazette.

Ting Lang Ho, an educated Chinaman. writes as follows: "According to the teaching of Confucius, no conversation must be carried on at the table. This precept of Confucius, disagreeable though it must seem to many, prevents many embarrassments at table, namely, one's being interrupted when he tries to speak at table and the boisterousness with which some carry on conversation at table. Chinese etiquette requires all to begin to cat at the same time, but each one before he begins to eat generally says " Let us be gin," which is accompanied by a gesture with the chopsticks In finishing one's meal, the same gesture is used, but not the same words. He says then to those who are still cating, "Do not be in haste." It is customary for the elder to help the younger to those dishes which he cannot reach, but'in receiving etiquette requires him or her to rise. In sitting at a Chinese table neither one's body nor her dress must touch the table, and great strictness must touch the table, and great strictness in regard to one's position is enforced. It is not according to Chinese etiquette to look around when one is cating, nor to stare at one another. Remarks made on the food and the smacking of one's lips are (I'm sorry to say) allowable in Chi nescetiquette. The chapsticks, when one is not using them, must be placed on the table close together perpendicular to the spoon. According to Chinese etiquette, it is rude for one to finish too soon; one must try to keep together with the rest, though it is becoming for inferiors to finish a little before their superiors, but not a little too late. Reading of periodicals is strictly forbidden, but letters are allowed if they are very important. One very seldom asks for an excuse from table in China, but every one goes at the same

Killed and Burled by Lightning. A strange story comes from Florence, S. C. As James Best was crossing a field on his farm yesterday he was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning, which tore up the ground where he had stood, and buried him from sight. Mr. Best was seen just before the fatal stroke and his disappearance produced great consternation among those persons who were watching him from their windows, and several ran out to fathom the mystery. They found a large hole, sur rounded with heaps of dirt, but not a ves-tige of Mr. Best. After two hours hard work with shovels his dead body was found at the bottom of the hole. The case is producing a sort of religious terror as an omen of some great calamity. Derry (huren Going to Rack.

The old Derry church, at Derry, on the line of the Lebanon Valley railroad, is rapidly going to ruin. During the winter a portion of the roof, which had been weakened by the weight of snow resting upon it, was blown off, and the building is now exposed to all the inclemency of the weather. The church was erected in 1720 and is one of the oldest places of worship in the United States. An effort should be made to save it for many years to
